REPORTS FROM DENBIGH

New Blood In Council.—The flu is again epidemic. The flu epidemic has claimed a second victim in this vicinity in the person of Sidney Blackley, eldest son of Frank Blackley, who succumbed to it on Dec. 30th, at the age of thirty-five years. He was not married. The funeral took place on the 2nd, at the Methodist church and cemetery. Several other sufferers were very low but are improving, and everybody hoped that we had now seen the worst of it, when another fresh serious outbreak was reported in the Slate Falls Settlement, where a number of old and young persons have suddenly been taken seriously ill.

Among the holiday visitors in this neighborhood were: At Dr. J. Adams', their son Joseph from Kingston; at Adolph Frisch's, their son George from Renfrew and daughter Clara from New York; at M. Reay's, their sons Horris from Saskatchewan, and William from New Ontario; at C. Both's, John Both of Kingston.

A number of the young people have left Denbigh again, at least during the remainder of the winter. Albert Both, William Reay and Gustav Berndt left for New Ontario, Eugene Mieske and his brother Richard for a lumber camp in North Hastings.

Miss Gladys Stein resumed her teaching school at Eagle Hill. Miss Katie Marquardt is in Renfrew county, and George Balin in the local school. Miss Bertha Stein returned to Ottawa to resume her studies at the Govling Business College, and Miss Lily Rodgers to Renfrew, to resume hers at the high school there. William King is away on a business trip to Gratiot, and Arthur Ready to Kingston.

The municipal election passed over very quietly and resulted in the acquisition of some new blood in our council, which is this year composed of the following members: Frank Rodgers, reeve; and Simon Ball, Oscar Chanson, George Jackson and William Slater, councillors. There is now excellent sleighing, and the farmers, especially from a distance, are making use of it by bringing their wheat and other grain to the Denbigh flour and feed mills, which have lately been kept busy day and night, and have more than a week's work of custom grinding stored away.

Theodore Roosevelt

THE passing of this great and true patriot has left not only his own country but Canada—and the whole world—poorer by the loss of one of its wisest and most respected men.

Out of his vast and varied experience, coupled with a boundless sympathy for all things that make for the betterment of the people, he has, however, left us all the richer for his wise counsels.

He regarded life insurance as one of our best institutions, not only for the individual, but also from the broad national viewpoint of the people's betterment.

"Life Insurance," he wrote, "increases the stability of the business world, raises its moral tone and puts a premium on those habits of thrift and saving which are so essential to the welfare of the people as a whole."
