THEATRICAL

"Turn to the Right." Leaving the theatre one evening after witnessing one of the season's popular successes a kindly old gentleman was overheard discussing the play with his companion, a sweet, elderly lady. He was praising the play; he was thrilled. His companion answered, "Yes, it was very exciting, but I do wish some one would write a play with an old-fashioned idea. I mean a clean play of home life. Somehow I can't help wishing for another 'Way Down East,' 'Old Homestead,' or 'The Fortune Hunter.'"

At The Strand Emmy Wehlen, in "His Bonded Wife," a smart up-to-date comedy drama of society life, will be the attraction at the Strand on Monday Tuesday and Wednesday. In this picture Miss Wehlen is supported by a cast of well known and distinguished players, headed by Christopher Hale in the leading role. The story is that of a beautiful young society debutante who wishes to be sure that the man she marries is in love with her for her own beautiful self and not for her wealth. With this idea in view she leaves her luxurious home and lives the quiet, simple life of a girl in ordinary circumstances. Here she meets and falls in love with a young architect who is also in love with her. She still poses as a poor girl, however, and the unusual complications which arise impart many humorous situations—as well as many semi-tragic ones—to the clever play.

At Griffin's. Again last evening a large audience witnessed the entertaining programme exhibited at Griffin's, and which is headlined by the noted comedian, Fred Stone, in "The Goat." It is an excellent vehicle for Fred Stone, and gives him extraordinary opportunities to display his humor and acrobatic skill. The other delightful feature is Lila Lee in "Such a Little Pirate," which proved even more charming than her first picture, "The Cruise of the Makebelieve," in which she scored so great a success recently. All who appreciate the best in motion pictures should see the above programme this evening.

Returned Soldiers Coming. An ambulance special from the S.S. Araguaya, carrying one officer and forty-one men bound for Kingston, left Halifax at 9.45 on Friday evening, and is expected to reach Kingston on Sunday afternoon. These men are all bound for Queen's Military Hospital. A troop train carrying 10 other ranks for M.D. No. 3 from the S.S. Scandinavian should arrive in Kingston on Saturday night. There are no Kingston men in either the Scandinavian or the Araguaya party, but several of them are from the surrounding district.

Winter Tours. There is no pleasanter way to recuperate from fall colds or influenza than by taking a trip south. Splendid climatic conditions and beautiful scenery await you, while there are scores of attractive resorts. Winter Tour tickets are now on sale to points in Alabama, Arizona, Cuba, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Carolina, South Carolina and Texas. Stop-over privileges allowed. The Grand Trunk system affords a variety of routes and its representatives will gladly map out a tour for you. Consult J. P. Hanley, C.P. and T.A. G.T. Ry., Kingston, Ont.

Information Wanted. In December the Whig published the picture of Pte. O'Reilly, a member of the P. P. C. L. I. Will the person who kindly sent us in this photograph please furnish name and address of same? Some of Pte. O'Reilly's former friends at the front are also anxious to know of his present whereabouts. The Whig will gladly receive and transmit any information.

Out Of Town Buying. H. J. Bongard, the bustling young manager for Messrs. Bongard, Ryerson & Co., 239 Bagot street, says fully seventy-five per cent. of the bond buying of this city is done through travellers representing out-of-town houses or by mail. Surely this is unfair to a local enterprise and a deserving manager.

Saturday's Market. There was an exceptionally small market on Saturday morning, only a few farmers being on hand. Prices were higher than usual, butter being 50c a pound and eggs 80c. and 85c a dozen. Pork sold at 23c. and 30c a pound, and beef at 15c. to 18c.

Prime western beef at Pickering's.

- Gen. Hemming's Picture Free
The Whig has prepared a splendidly mounted copy of a splendid portrait of the late Major-General T. D. R. Hemming, which it will be pleased to present free of cost to any adult caring to call at this office for it. This is a large-sized and very fine picture of the late general, and is mounted on heavy gray paper, suitable for framing. It measures about fourteen by eleven inches. The cost of wrapping and mailing to any outside address will be 10c. Copies of this picture will not be given to children. It will be ready for distribution Saturday afternoon.

Several soldiers and discharged soldiers in the city are finding that some of the lawyers, justices of the peace and commissioners are charging sums varying from fifty cents to one dollar for signing the application forms for the war service gratuity. It is, however, not necessary for any soldier to pay any sum at all, as these forms are being signed free of charge by A. B. Cunningham, W. F. Nickle, M.P.; James Macnee, and Dr. W. W.
