~$~$~$~$~$~$~$~$~$~$~$~$~$~$~$~$~$~$

SECOND SECTION

"My Three Years in a German Prison"

By Hon. Henri S. Beland, M.D., M.P.

CHAPTER XIII.

A Desolate Major. One can readily realize that a I cannot permit you to return protest to Major Von Wilm, relating fer:" This was done, all the incidents of the day.

a reply from this officer, who ex- be of short duration; that all that a denunciation; that he had sup- lish my quality as a practising phy- ization act in harmony—then you lies close at hand between the forcide as to the future.

on my release. The reader will find temporary, the letter reproduced elsewhere in as declaring over his signature that wards we arrived at the hotel. I need not be uneasy as to the fujoy immunity.

from all annoyances (wo soldiers pre- mal, serted itself and he said: "No, sir, journey to Antwerp under the es- Capellen. You may write to madame; cort of a German soldier had rather tell her what has happened, and I get relief is to sit up in bed humiliated me. I wrote a letter of will forward the letter by messenplained that my arrest was owing to was required was evidently to estabplied the German military police sician; that as soon as documentary sleep as peaceful as a child. with all necessary information; that proof of this could be placed in the everything was now properly arrang- hands of the German authorities I St., St. John, N.B., writes:-"At

A young officer was ordered to this story. It is a document which accompany me to the Grand Hotel, are 50c a box at all dealers, or mail-I consider of the greatest importance. On the way he allowed me to stop ed direct on receipt of price by The In it the chief of the German mili- at a stationer's store long enough to T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, tary police in Antwerp is on record buy a few books. Shortly after-

Every public hall had been conture, as I should be allowed to en- verted into military offices. The officer who accompanied me, having This immunity, however, was to exchanged a few words with some be of short duration. On June 2, of the soldiers, the latter glanced at when I believed I had been freed me as though I were a curious ani-sented themselves at the house and "He must be an Englishman-yes

A front view of the headquarters of the German Commandant for Antwerp district.

accompanied by inconvenience or tion, taking with me only my walk- jailors had the extreme kindness to ing cane. One of the soldiers spoke inform me that I must take my parture. It was a solemn moment, frid's manifesto of 1917. Not only French. He appeared to think my meals in my room; that I must pay and profoundly sad. My wife and I should the said tariff increases of conducted me to a hall situated 4, my wife arrived at the hotel, near the kommandantur on des Re- more dead than alive. She was, as at Brussels, where we had to wait Liberal Opposition in the House collets street. In this hall I saw a one may easily imagine, in a state for an hour to connect with the Commons on May 23, 1917. large number of people whose ap- of great nervousness. Before com- express which ran from Lille to Lipearance was not very reassuring, ing she had asked and obtained per- ban in Russia. There were men and women who, mission to occupy the room with me doubtful-looking crowd, and the non- were much worse off than we might burned, and through a large number the birthright of a free democracy," commissioned officer did not answer. be at this hotel, we accepted the of towns and villages which showed must give way before legislation He just shrugged his shoulders as inevitable and settled down to our the effects of bondbardment and oththough he did not understand my present little annoyance with perfect er horrors of war; thence through people in Parliament assembled; the major. A few minutes later an On the following Saturday the where we arrived at about nine that in particular militarism must be, and sternly, repressed, and that the where we arrived at about nine (Continued on Page 11.) to follow him. It turned out to be them enter the courtyard on their Major Von Wilm's office into which way to apply for a permit to see I was now introduced.

late. New instructions have just mediately rushed from the office

Antwerp at the Grand Hotel, and should exchange greetings with their you will be well treated."

"But this," I said, "does not suit me. First of all, my wife and family The children were cavalierly ejectare not aware of what is happening ed from the courtyard and we saw to me. In any event I must go back them no more that day. But on and inform them of my predicament the following morning by special and obtain the clothing I shall need permission, they were allowed to at this hotel."

Visibly embarrased through being unable to grant my request even for one hour the major was unable to reply at once. He pondered, walked a few paces in front of his desk, then

> Grape:Nuts No sugar required

economy and excellent flavor

my family.

requested me to accompany them to he's English, all right," several of Aptwerp. I fest convinced that surely sthose repeated in turn, all the time in the room to which during the past the tariff since the resolution of the shown into a room. I was locked in I left the house without hesita- and a sentry kept guard outside. My a week.

Arriving in Antwerp, the soldiers On the following day, Friday, June this world. judging by appearance were no more and share my imprisonment. Well, at a good speed in the direction of as one should bear all things philo-sophically, and as we were in war sights of Boletum We aristocratic, auto-Left alone by the two soldiers I sophically, and as we were in war sights of Belgium. We crossed cratic and high Tory method of made a close observation of this times, as many millions of people through Louvain, which had been order in Council, designed to destroy us. As they waited we hailed them "Mr. Beland," he said," I am deso- from the window. Two soldiers imarrived from Berlin and I must in- and addressed us with bitter invective because we had dared to speak I had no time to express surprise to our own children and because or utter a word of protest before he the children had been "audacious" added: "But you will be a prisoner enough to speak to us! What a terof honor. You will lodge here in rible provocation, that children > speak for a few moments with us. The same day, at noon, the major visited us in our room, transfered into a jail cell.

His face was gloomy. His whole bearing betrayed much anxiety and uneasiness. He brought us bad news. "I am desolate," he said again, "I am heart-broken, but Mr. Beland must leave today without fail for Germany." Imagine the dismay of my wife and of myself at this abrupt announcement! I ventured to protest. I reminded the major of the assurances he had previously given me. I repeated to him that in my quality as a physician I ought not to be deprived of my liberty. I asked him why was it that the competent authorities at Berlin had not been informed of the medical services I had been rendering at the hospital and to the civil sizes 50. All dealers, country ask this question, but still continue to toss night after night on a sleepless bed, and it is impossible for them to get a full night's refresh-

Why Can't I

Some constitutional disturbance, worry or disease has so debilitated and irritated the nervous system that it cannot be quietened except by the pernicious use of opiates or narcotics. Or again, you have heart palpitation, and sensation of sinking, a feeling you are going to die, or perhaps you wake up in your sleep feeling as . Through its first resolution, "un to though you were about to choke or faltering confidence" is placed in

To all who suffer in this way, Milburn't Heart and Nerve Pills offer an The major made every effort to inestimable boon. They bring back him on the fact that, "thanks to his A few days afterwards I received convince me that my detention would the much-needed night's rest by im- moderation and wisdom the ranks proving the tone of the nerves, Mrs. James Latimer, 39 Leinster ed, and that I need have no inquiet- should be liberated and restored to night I could not sleep. I had to sit up in bed, my heart beat so fast, ed, will again lead the van in as-I succeeded in taking with me to One can easily come to believe and when I walked up stairs I would serting the rights of Canadian dethe prison later this letter written what one fervently desires. I de- get all out of breath. A friend re- mocracy." hy Major Von Wilm, and I also was luded myself with the hope that Nerve Pills and after using two boxes sociation pledges, itself, "to insist able to smuggle it out of Germany my sojourn in this hotel was only I can sleep all night and am not out of breath after walking."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills

population since the beginning of the war? Altogether I made a very strong plea in the protest against tion; that those who have been inthe execution of the latest order.

planation. The instructions had "come from someone higher in authority than himself;" he had "tried to explain my case to them," but they "would not hear him"; "all the British subjects in Germany and occupied territory were to be in- satisfactory standard of comfort, assumed an air of haughtiness I had generously and systematically adnot noticed hitherto.

"At two o'clock this afternoon you will have to depart," he said. non-commissioned officer will accompany you to Berlin and thence to for civilians of British nationality ciple of representation whereby the The shadow of a very real sorrow interests of labor and of the compervaded that room, I did not know what to say. Two hours only remained in which my wife and might be together. She persisted in h her entreaties that she might bear me company to Germany, only to for which "there have been per inform her that her company, even to the station merely, was not de-

Finally I was conducted to the top- ed, as to a new little home where the lines the reductions and the articles most floor of the hotel and there children, living only a few miles call at Antwerp was a mere formali- for them and also pay the rent of were separated." I did not know 7½ per cent. and 5 per cent. be imty, and that I might be allowed to the room. His German Majesty re- then—and it was perhaps better return to Capellen the same evening. fused to feed his prisoner of honor! that I should never see her again in sufficient for three! TESTERDAY'S ANSWER months' use. Smaller Right aide foun eye at chin, the

(To Be Continued.)

CATARRH COLDS BRONCHITIS CURED WITHOUT DRUGS

EASTERN ONTARIO LIBERALS

COLLATE RESOLUTIONS TO GO TO THE CONVENTION.

Express Confidence in Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Leadership Call for Reduction in Tariff-Other Principles Defined.

The Eastern Ontario Liberals which came before the convention i Ottawa meeting on Tuesday.

smother, and the only way you can Sir Wilfrid Laurier as the leadof the Liberal party of Canada, and congratulations are tendered to es of progress and the advocates of sociation pledges itself "to insist and make sure that our soldiers and sailors shall have the first claim upon the consideration of Parliament, as they already have upon the gratitude of the Canadian people; that none of those who have served in the forces shall be allowed to fall into distress either from lack of employment or from other defect in our social organizacapacitated from following their oc-Perturbed and embarrassed, the cupations shall be freely assisted to major mumbled some sort of an ex- train themselves for new employments, and shall be further assisted by the State in every practical way to establish themselves as producers; that the pensions from the Government to disabled men shall be sufficient in amount to secure a terned without delay.". The major and that the pensions fund shall be ministered." Industrial Reconstruction On the question of industrial reconstruction, upon which strong emphasis is laid, the association stands for the introduction into the Ruhleben is the internment camp Government of industry the prinmunity may be considered in industrial control. "To democratize the government of industry," says the resolution, "is the task ahead."

peal of the War-times Election Act. meet with an absolute refusal every sistent and widespread demands. The Major had the delicacy (?) to a foul blot upon our national honor, but that it is a standing menace to the peace and progress of the Do-

The tariff resolution, the mos Punctually at two o'clock on June extensive of all the motions, recathree days we had become reconcil- national convention of 1893, outplaced on the free list from 1896 till away, might visit us once or twice since that date, and reiterates tariff mediately repealed, but that there should also be an immediate downward revision of the tariff in accord-At three o'clock the train arrived omnibus resolution, moved by the ance with the above-mentioned symptoms of Catarrhal Turned the tables on the Teutons driving them back with heavy losses. Catarrhozone at Sereth, two years ago today, Janto-day. Complete out- uary 15, 1817. fit costs $1.00 and is Find a Rosmanian look for trade mark dog on it

> Talks of "Prussian Autocracy." The convention further affirms (Continued on Page 11.)

Harry

Will Sing Again

in your own home on the Victrola.

This famous artist makes "His Master's Voice" Records exclusively

Harry Lauder's list of "His Master's Voice" Records is a very large. one, comprising over 60 selections, a few of the most popular are given below

Granny's Laddie From the North, South, East and West Love to Be a Sallor Roamin' in the Gloamin' It's Nice to Get Up in the Mornin' British Buildog's Watching at the Door

Any "His Master's Voice" dealers will be pleased to play these or any others you may wish to hear.

MANUFACTURERS

BERLINER GRAM-O-PHONE CO., LIMITED

We are always pleased to demonstrate Victrolas and Victrola Records. 229-231-233-235-237 Princess St.

Mahood Bros.

Agents Victor-Victrolas

113 Princess Street

Phone 90

F. W. Coates

Jeweler Local Agent Phone 445.

Health and Happiness

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I was very weak, al-ways tired, my back ached, and I felt sickly most of the time. I went to a doctor and hi said I had nervous indigestion, which, added to my weak condition, kept me worrying most of the time—and he said if I could not stop that, I could not get well. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my husband wanted me to try it. took it for a week and felt a little better. kept it up for three months, and I feel fine and can eat anything now without distress or nervousness. Health and happiness? Yes, I have both now."-Mrs. J. WORTHLINE, 2843 North Taylor Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

The majority of women nowadays overdo, there are so many demand upon their time and strength; the result is invariably a weakened, run-down nervous condition with headaches, back-ache, irritability and depression—and soon more serious ailments develop. Avoid them by taking in time

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Purchased Vessels, Steamship Company has purchased standard cargo carriers, built by Yes, young man, the world owes New York, Jan 15 .- The Cunard the British Government for use dur- you a living, but by the time you ing the war, will soon be placed in collect it you will be ready to give from the British Government six purchase price was not made pub- Don't meddle with the affairs of cargo steamships of an aggregate lie. The vessels, which were of the other people and you will have that tonnage of 29,734. The vessels, "war series," have been renamed, 'much less to worry about.