are to bring the joy of religion back to the hearts of the people there must be a revival of old-time congregational singing.

FRANCE AND GERMANY. The Petit Journal, of Paris, presents a striking picture of the contrasted state of affairs in France and in Germany.

On the other hand, conquered Germany "stands unscathed" at home. Her territory is unharmed, and she is running her home industries with renewed activity.

UNWORTHY MISTRUST. It is surprising what a number of people one meets who seem genuinely alarmed about what is going to happen when the soldiers come back from overseas.

The Balkans are the first in line for "a league of nations." Will the firebrands hold the place they have made?

President Paderewski is being congratulated on his appearance in Poland and it is hoped his rule will be a perfect recital!

The population of Petrograd has fallen to 800,000. The declination by starvation is slowly accomplishing the Bolshevik idea.

An exchange in discussing the freedom of the seas has hit this idea as to what it means. That you can go where you please provided you are welcome.

Good. Men's hats will not change this year. The 1914 vintage will still be serviceable.

The Thaw case will not dawn. New York is anxious to bring it in to the limelight.

German camouflage cannot change the view of the Allies that the nation must pay to the uttermost farthing the indemnities imposed upon it.

Weakness is not a fault of genius. The best minds have often been found in frail bodies.

Prof. I. E. Martia, of the Royal Military College, advocates the continuing of the provincial war-tax of one mill as an education tax.

The Royal Military College has emerged from the war with a record that time will never dim.

What a glorious winter! Here it is the middle of January and thus far on only five days has the mercury dropped below zero.

The London "Fros Press" had a word to say on congregational singing, a lost art in many churches.

ing them, and yet they were hand-to-hand; they why all this potter about three hundred thousand of our very own coming back?

PUBLIC OPINION

Net in Canada. (Galt Reporter) Reconstruction should not mean a starvation pension for the disabled soldier.

Cure for Bolshevism. (Montreal Star) Democratic government, everywhere replaced on a basis of popular-understanding, will open a counter-offensive against Bolshevism.

Yes, Let's. (Cleveland Plain Dealer) A delegate to the national health convention in Chicago argued that the fashion of low necked gowns forced the wearers to keep their necks clean.

The Returned Employee. (Hamilton Times) Employers are asked to find places for the returned soldiers who left their employ to fight for their country.

No Interpreter Required. (Toronto Star) Recent revelations in Toronto show that if communications from the other world the shades of the departed, including Plato, and everybody worth mentioning, all talk English.

Seven Sentence Sermons. Thought is the soul of action. Browning. Human improvement is from within outward.—Frost.

All we have to offer. All we hope to be. Body, soul and spirit. All we yield to Thee. Anon.

Whatever power of any kind is given there is responsibility attached.—Ruskin.

Jehovah is my strength and my shield; my heart hath trusted in him, and I am helped; therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him.—Ps. 28: 7.

Lord Christ, my trembling lips inspire. So with Thy love my words impress. That I may link each heart's desire. With Thy vast eager power to bless.—Howard Arnold Walter.

The noblest thing you ever did, the noblest emotion you ever felt, the deepest and most self-sacrificing love ever in your soul, that is your true self still, through all the baser life into which you have fallen.—Phillips Brooks.

TO HELP THE MEN OUT. Civil Servants Are to Receive War Bonus. (Toronto, Jan. 16.—Civil servants in the employ of the provincial government will receive without delay a war bonus to meet the increased cost of living.

NO CONSTIPATION NO PILES. We think, without a doubt, that constipation is the most prevalent, and at the same time, one of the greatest troubles human nature is afflicted with, and causes more sickness than anything else.

CLOTHING ON EASY TERMS. Ladies' Suits, Dresses and Furs, Gentlemen's Suits and Overcoats. N. Morris, 374 King St.

Rippling Rhymes

CUTTING LOOSE. We learned to salt some kopecks down, to do without new hat or gown, in war's forbidding days.

THINGS THAT NEVER HAPPEN. Copyright. MY DEAR SIR YOU MUST BE VERY UNCOMFORTABLE SITTING ON THAT COUPLING PIN WONT YOU STEP INSIDE AND HAVE A SEAT IN THE PARLOR CAR?

NO TANKS—I DON'T CARE TO MINGLE WITH COMMON PEOPLE.

Another thing—this country is one of big spaces and large opportunities. The devastated lands of Europe will want our raw materials for many years to come.
