A Military Dance

An enjoyable military dance was held in the Knights of Columbus hall on Wednesday evening. The hall was crowded to overflowing, and the only fault was that the hall was so small. A number of the officers from Fort Henry attended the dance, also nurses from the various military and civil hospitals in the city. Captain LaRoche, the Roman Catholic chaplain at Fort Henry, made all the arrangements, and great credit is due to him for the splendid entertainment provided for the soldiers. The dance was the first of a series which it is proposed to hold under the auspices of the Garrison Regiment at Fort Henry. Salisbury's orchestra furnished splendid music.

All the world's a stage and the majority of us sit in the gallery and throw things at the performers.

VILLAGE OF MALLORYTOWN.

Large Quantities of Wood Are Arriving There Daily.

Mallorytown, Jan. 20.—Mrs. Robert Bunn, an old resident, passed away on Saturday at the age of eighty-one years. The funeral services were held at the home, and were conducted by Rev. Dr. Saunders and Rev. C. Curtis, after which the remains were placed in the vault. Her aged husband, six daughters and one son, with a large circle of friends, are left to mourn the loss of one who was loved by all.

Mrs. Emily Barnham is still very ill, and but little hope is entertained of her recovery. The stork this week left a fine baby boy at Willie Mallory's. Baby O'Malley took her first sleigh ride this week. Friends will glad to know that this little one, whose mother died of the flu, is progressing well under the care of Mrs. Nettie Hagaboom.

In spite of the severe cold weather of Sunday, Rev. Mr. McLeod and Rev. Mr. Curtis were both in their pulpits. Judging by the quantity of wood being drawn into the village, no one will be cold this winter. William Cain has rented Norman Darling's farm.

Friday evening a party for the young people was given at the home of J. Haffie. The pastor and trustees of the Methodist church, with their wives, were entertained at the home of Eugene Hagerman on Tuesday evening. Rumor says that each of the village churches are to have an entertainment soon. Two Mallorytown boys, Lieut. Bunn and Pte. G. Root, were passengers on the Olympic.

Why Hold Anglo-French United Kingdom Or Canada 2-Year Notes Until Maturity?

These are payable in New York. By allowing you the high premium now ruling for American funds we could not say about 20-25 for Anglo's, 10 for U.K.'s and 101 for Canadian notes. Just now there are some high yield, longer term Canadian securities. Canadian securities now pay American funds are going to continue at to-day's advantageous rates. We draw your attention to yesterday's increased price for Victory Loan 1925 to 1927.
