Military Matters

Lieut. Gordon Herridge, the younger son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Herridge, Ottawa, has been awarded the Military Cross for bravery in the battle of Cambrai, the same engagement in which his brother, Capt. William, won the D.S.O.

It was not James Fitzgerald, Gore street, that won the Military Cross, only a relative of his. James Fitzgerald, Gore street, enlisted with the 73rd Battalion, Kingston, and is now in Germany.

Second Lieut. Norman D. Mackay, 88th Field Company of the Royal Engineers, has reached London after five months' captivity as a wounded prisoner of war at Quedlinburg, Germany. He, with his younger brother, Douglas, graduated from the Royal Military College in the spring of 1917. Norman has been awarded a Military Cross.

There is absolutely no truth in the statement that the war service, gratuity, payable to men of the C.E.F. on retirement or discharge, will also be paid to war widows, dependent and next-of-kin of soldiers killed in action or who died of wounds. An official denial of this statement is issued by the Militia Department and at the same time it is pointed out that Order-in-Council makes no provision of this nature. The next of kin of deceased soldiers are provided for under the pension regulations.

Lieut.-Col. Sylvester, assistant director chaplain services, headquarters, Ottawa, is in the city making an inspection of the service in this district, in company with Major Horsey, senior chaplain, and Capt. LaRoche. Col. Sylvester is keenly alive to the great need of the soldiers in barracks and also to the fact that measures employed for their welfare and entertainment must be non-denominational.

Brig.-Gen. Victor S. Williams will proceed to Cobourg on Friday accompanied by Lieut.-Col. Gardiner, A.D.M.S., to inspect the military hospital there.

The SS. Megantic is due to arrive at Halifax on Jan. 29th with troops from England. There are on board for Military District No. 2, three officers, two cadets and nineteen other ranks.

The train carrying the troops for Kingston from the SS. Empress of Britain passed through Moncton, N.B., at 5.15 o'clock Thursday morning. There are on this train two cadets and ninety-one other ranks for Kingston, and 108 other ranks for the sub-depot, Ottawa.

Lieut. G. H. Thomson has been absorbed into the establishment of No. 3 C.A.S.C. Service Company, and has been seconded for duty with the Military Service Council, Ottawa.

Sapper Edward Hogan has been attached to No. 3 C.A.S.C. Service Company from the Engineer Training Depot, Brockville.

The camp at Barriefield, like many other military camps, has the fault of being very muddy. The mild weather, coupled with the rainfall on Thursday forenoon, has turned it into a morass, and the boys coming into town from the huts are splashed to the knees with mud. To make things less disagreeable, sidewalks are being built from the Barriefield road to the huts, and also all around the various buildings. Parts of the grounds are at present dug up for the installation of the permanent water system, and that adds to the discomfort. A spell of hard frost will be welcomed by the boys.

The recreation room at Barriefield barracks is now being run under the supervision of the Y.M.C.A. Mr. Webb, one of the "Y" secretaries, has been appointed to attend to this hut, and he is doing so very efficiently. A gramophone and a large number of records have been presented, and they are much appreciated and enjoyed. On Thursday morning there was an impromptu dance to the strains of the gramophone.

On Wednesday evening a programme of "movies" was presented at the Barriefield recreation hut, William Young, the director of the military "Y," operated, and some fine films were shown. On Thursday evening there will be games and a guessing contest, for which prizes will be given.

The Richardson Chapter, I. O. O. E., are to give a social and concert for the soldiers at Barriefield. In addition to a musical programme, refreshments will be provided for the boys.

Several donations of books have been received for the recreation room at Barriefield, and a library has been started. The soldiers are keen readers, and further additions to the library will be appreciated.

Honor Good Currier.
Rev. J. H. Turnbull, Toronto, was presented with a share of stock in High Park Curling Club and a pair of curling stones by twenty-eight of the members, who also form part of his congregation. Mrs. Turnbull was given a membership in the ladies section of the club. Mrs. Turnbull is a former Kingstonian and both she and her husband are Queen's graduates.

Wonders Never Cease.
At last after many weeks of corresponding we have secured the most thrilling serial story ever filmed, "The Silent Mystery," in fifteen episodes, featuring Francis Ford with beautiful May Gaston and fascinating Rosemary Theby. First episode at the King Edward Monday and Tuesday, also the final episode of "The Lion's Claw." Usual admission.

Of bad things your own bad temper should head the list.

THEATRICAL

At the Grand.

A master picture is "The Cast Off" which will be shown at the Grand Opera House tonight and also Friday and Saturday, both matinee and night. Bessie Barriscale, that versatile little star, has the titular role in this production and as her work is famous here because of other well-known pictures this particular one ought to make the hit of the season. It is a Paralta Play and to say that means that it is a film of quality for these high class pictures are famed the world over. Dainty Bessie has a role for which her charming mannerisms are well suited and with her large and well balanced supporting cast she makes "The Cast Off" one of her best releases. Not only will this feature prove an attraction but also the very entertaining vaudeville act that is booked for the same bill. Pero and Wilson, novelty barrel jumpers and acrobats will present their act for the approval of the Grand patrons. Besides these drawing cards there will also be the Pathe News, an O. Henry story and comedy reels to finish out a most appealing programme.

At the Strand.

"The Interloper," the new World picture, in which Kitty Gordon is the star, has a real surprise in the last reel that will make every one sit up and take notice. It is a delightful surprise, too, one that adds to the enjoyment of a perfect picture and makes one regret that the picture has come to an end. This production will be shown on Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Strand Theatre. Miss Gordon is dynamically dramatic in this production. Her role is a splendid one, one of the best she has had. The story deals with a girl of the south who marries a widower. The first wife's perfection is constantly held up to her as a model for her own guidance, and this is done so often that she becomes sick and tired of it and determines to put a stop to it at all hazards. Strangely enough, the means for doing this are put into her hands through a strange series of circumstances. She finds that the first wife was unfaithful to her husband. Then, at this point, comes the big surprise in the play. You'll enjoy "The Interloper." It is such a different, unusual, striking picture play. There is much pep and punch in it.

Master Emerson O'Connor will be retained all week with new songs.

At Griffin's.

A tale of absorbing interest, known to nearly everyone already, is to be the attraction at Griffin's for to-day, Friday and Saturday. This is "Huck and Tom," from Mark Twain's immortal masterpiece, "Tom Sawyer," and featuring talented Jack Pickford. Young Mr. Pickford appeared some time ago in "Tom Sawyer" and his success was so great that the producers decided to continue the production in a second five reel picture. Tom Sawyer, aided and abetted by the irrepressible Huck Finn indulge in thrilling and humorous adventure. If you want to see one of the best photoplays ever produced, bar none, see this one. Another important feature of our programme is Emil Bennett in "The Vamp." This is an entirely new characterization for the beautiful Australian actress, and one in which she is seen to signal advantage. Don't overlook this programme of feature photoplays.

Refuses to Tell.

This week has been very quiet in police court circles. An adjourned liquor case in which a person is charged with being intoxicated and having two bottles in his possession will be heard on Monday. The accused refuses to tell where he got his "tank."
