On Saturday evening, the 3rd inst., Miss Rhena Kendrick, treasurer of the local Blue-bird Mission Circle, entertained a few young lady friends at tea, the occasion being her birthday. During the evening other members of the organization dropped in and presented to Miss Hazel Latimer a life membership of the society (the certificate

COLEBROOK PRESENTATION

To Corp. Melville Lee, Returned From Overseas. Colebrook, Jan. 21.—About eighty residents of Colebrook and vicinity assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lee to welcome and celebrate the home coming of their gallant son, Corp. Melville Lee, who went overseas about three years ago, and who took part in several engagements, including Vimy Ridge, where he was wounded, but has completely recovered. Mr. and Mrs. Lee proved themselves to be a most entertaining host and hostess. Games, refreshments, music, recitations and speeches were indulged in and everyone enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Norman Boyce, chairman, called on George J. Riddell to read a very complimentary address, signed by H. W. Woodruff, Edward F. Furell, Ira Sallsbury and George J. Riddell, after which the latter presented Corp. Melville Lee, on behalf of the citizens of Colebrook and vicinity, with a beautiful signet ring, bearing his initials. The following gentlemen then made short speeches: C. N. Garrison, T. E. Four and E. F. Purcell. W. P. Benn gave an obliging recitation, which received much applause, and his brother, Ira Benn, entertained with music on the flute, accompanied by Mrs. William Martini. Mrs. Manford Garrison gave a recitation, which was highly appreciated. The speeches were interspersed with a solo by Mrs. Stanley Holmes and songs and choruses by the Colebrook choir.

Odessa Soldier Returns. Odessa, Jan. 21.—Mrs. Harry Peters, Lindsay, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Mabey. Mr. and Mrs. William Jenkins, Nanapan, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Watts. Mrs. Sidney Sproule returned last Tuesday after spending the past two weeks in Watertown, N.Y. Albert Snider left last Friday to spend the balance of the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Ernest Sharpe, Toronto. Fred Bennett returned last Saturday after spending a couple of weeks in Toronto.

James Robinson, who has been overseas since the early part of the war, returned home last Monday. His two brothers are expected soon. Mrs. Albert Baker left a short time ago to spend the winter with her son, Percival, in Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. George Haman spent a couple of days with friends in Kingston last week.

Earl Johnston's many friends were pleased to hear that he had arrived safely from England and was with his father and sister in Toronto. A. B. Emmons is moving in his new home recently purchased and occupied by William Heaslip. Harold Cairns has a position in the Royal Bank, Kingston. Miss Ethel Fraser has been engaged as teacher in the Albert school. Mrs. Marie Fraser, who has been seriously ill, is improving.

Robbery At Clarendon. Clarendon, Jan. 20.—Thieves broke into John Glenn's store on Saturday night and stole over $35 worth of goods and silver. Letters in the post office were also opened. Entrance was gained through a rear window. The fire is smothering here but school and church services have not yet been resumed as the young people though recovering nicely are not yet able to be out. "Tommy" Kirkham, who has seriously ill is now improving. Clarence Kennedy, Godfrey was a week-end visitor in Clarendon. Miss Margaret Campbell was to Sharbot Lake recently. Robert Gibson, section foreman, is to be congratulated on having obtained the prize given by the C.P.R. Company for having his section in best condition on the Kingston sub-division. C.P.R. agent M. M. Appleby leaves on Tuesday for two weeks holidays, part of which will be spent in Kingston.

Barriefield Budget. Barriefield, Jan. 21.—The Red Cross meeting was held at Mrs. Bridger's home last week, and the next meeting will be held at the rectory. The dancing party held at the hall was a success. Mr. and Mrs. William Milton, who has been visiting her brother, J. Stuart, have returned home. Mrs. Duggell, of Syracuse, N.Y., who has visited a month with her mother, Mrs. G. Medley, has returned. Miss Olive Murray is visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Toner at the court house, city. Mr. and Mrs. W. Hunter and family, of the Isle of Man, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Saunders and family, city, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nat. Stanton. Miss Maude Turner visited with Mr. and Mrs. Knight at "The Pines." Miss Agnes Stanton has left for Buffalo, N.Y., to visit with relatives there. The influenza patients are all recovering. Alec Hickey is recovering nicely.

Sharbot Lake News. Sharbot Lake, Jan. 21.—The Red Cross Society met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Mallett. A large number were present. Rev. J. Carriemills, who has been ill a short time, is convalescent. Jerome Thomson, township councillor, who is a patient in the General Hospital, Kingston, is expected home this week. Mrs. Wilmot, Kingston, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Smart, the Rectory, Tweed, is now the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McVeigh. Pte. George Tomlinson has recently returned from overseas. Mrs. James Lyle is again on the sick list. Miss Josephine Gutierez, Perth, and Miss Letta Gutierez, Balderson, spent the week-end with their parents here. Mrs. King, the former popular school teacher, is spending a few weeks in the village.

When you see a man who is willing to let well enough alone, you see one who will never occupy any of the room at the top. "Nothing is certain," as the fisherman said when he found it on his hook. A train of thoughts is the real thing in rapid transit.
