At Home" Held Under Auspices of Kingston Knights of the Grip.

Most enjoyable was the "At Home" held on Friday night in Mc-Auley's hall, Wellington street, under the auspices of the Kingston branch of the Canadian Order Knights of the Grip. The event was attended by sixty people, and it was one of the most successful ever held by the local travellers. "At Home" was arranged to take the place of the annual banquet. It was to have been held a month ago, but owing to the epidemic was post-

W McMahon, the retiring high chief gripman, who was the recipient of a beautiful electric lamp. Mr. Mc-Mahon very ably carried out his duties during the year, and his fellow gripmen took this opportunity of showing their esteem for him. Mr. Penwarden, past high chief gripman, made the presentation, and in a neat speech Mr. McMahon membrance from his colleagues.

More Mable Letters

THATS ME ALL OVER, MABLE, is beating the record of the record-breaking "Dere Mable." Published a little over two weeks ago, Five Printings, totalling 250,000 copies, have been necessary to meet the demand. A Sixteenth Printing of DERE MABLE is now required, making a total of 600,000 copies.

The author of "Dere Mable; The Love Letters of a Rookie," here continues his learned and passionate epistles. These letters might cure a confirmed melancholia; the humor of the Dera Mable letters remains undiminished. Bill is in a Southern camp, he describes his military duties, his jail-sentence, the stupidity

The Captin said not to touch any of em case they mightent have exploded and was liable to go off when you handled them. I asked them where they was going to but he couldn't see a joke if you hit him, with it. Im not taking no chances though Mable. I always carry a hammer and I pound each one of them good before I pick em up. Im beginning to think all this stuff about the mountin ears bein wild is a lot of fake. I been out with Angus Mackenzie three times huntin stills an the nearest thing we found to one was a fello who sold Hevo. An they don't seem to be very wild. They come around and get our dirty wash every day or two and the only wild thing is me when they bring it back. They all seem to be mixed up on the shavin regulashuns. They shave there necks and let there whiskers grow.

"MY HONOLULU GIRL."

Production Was a Disappointment as a Musical Comedy. As a musical comedy, "My Hono lulu Girl," presented at the Grand last night, was a dismal failure and the overflow audience that greeted it was very much disappointed. The Hawaiian troupe, in their musical numbers, delighted everyone with their sweet melodies but "the beauties of the chorus" failed to "make good." The chorus showed little training whatever, and the same comment applies to the dancing. However, apart from the musical end, there were some features, as Ned Melroy was really funny at times in his comedy work and with Richard Stockton the baby son (a regular Baby Bliss) and Naomi Garneldi as Ima Nut, an English maid, brightened up the piece with their antics. The production certainly needs some overhauling before it can be regarded as

AT PORTSMOUTH COUNCIL

Gathering Names to be Used in the War Memorial.

There was very little business for he Portsmouth Council, at its meeting on Monday night, and there was a very short session. Reeve James Halliday presided, and all the members were present, with the exception of Councillor Clark.

A report was received from the auditors, Messrs John Kenny Jr., and R. A. Morris, which was regarded as most satisfactory, and was adopted.

No further action has been taken regarding the memorial to be erected in honor of the meh of the village who paid the supreme sacrifice overseas. The council is collecting the names of the men to be placed on the memorial.
