The returned boys, who were the guests of honor were Parker Walker, Kenneth Babcock and Elburn Cole.

After instrumental and vocal music had held away for an hour or so, Rev. W. J. Parsons, Presbyterian minister, in a few suitable words expressed the feeling of the assembled company and led them in a prayer of thanksgiving to God for mercies vouchsafed to the returned boys. Rev.

ASKS JUDGE TO WITHDRAW

HIS STATEMENT REGARDING THE KINGSTON G.W.V.A.

The Local Board Resents Judge Langlier's Statement About "Lies" and "Talking Through Its Hat." The following letter has been addressed to Judge Langlier of Quebec by the Kingston branch of the G.W.V.A.:

"Dear Sir: In connection with the resolution of this association which read as follows: 'That this meeting heartily endorse the action of Ontario magistrates in sentencing offenders to very severe punishment and also that this meeting much regrets that Quebec magistrates on the whole do not meet out justice to such offenders.'"

"This resolution had reference to offenders under the Military Service Act, and was correctly reported in the public press of this city. 'You are reported in the press of this city to have stated in this connection: 'As to the G.W.V.A. of Kingston, they are merely talking through their hat. They talk of deserters who are not sufficiently punished. I never had anything to do with deserters, who still are tried before court-martials, and not before my tribunal. It is with such lies and talk that the ignorant classes of Ontario are roused against Quebec through false statements.'"

"May I also point out that no mention of deserters was made in our resolution, and also state that we are quite in accord with the regulations which prevent deserters being tried before your tribunal. 'As it is reported you categorise our resolution as 'lies,' we would request please that you point out to us where the lies exist. If unable to do so that you withdraw your statements. 'Further, we do not understand your reference to 'ignorant classes in Ontario, and would like your opinion as to whether the G. W. V. A. belongs to such class. 'Though we do not understand your term 'talking through hats,' we presume your statement referred to above is a fair sample. 'I am, sir, your truly, (Sgd.) EYTON WARBURTON, 'Sec.-treas., G.W.V.A., Kingston.'"

WAR SERVICE GRATUITY

QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Q.—Would you please tell me how much war service gratuity I am entitled to. Q.—Is a permanent force soldier who was serving before the war started and who is still a soldier entitled to the war gratuity, not having left Canada owing to the exigencies of the service? Ans.—Yes, the permanent force soldier who has served in Canada only is entitled to the gratuity under re-organization, if entitled to the gratuity by leaving the service, would be lose the same by not taking his discharge.

POSTIES WERE "LOVE LADEN."

Friday Was St. Valentine's Day and Many Were Sent the Round.

Friday was St. Valentine's Day, and as a result the "posties" were "love-laden" as they went out on their rounds. Although there is marked falling off in the number of valentines sent compared with other years, the letter carriers had quite a number. The valentines, for the most part, are of the pictorial type. Few of the cheap variety of valentines are now sent through the mails.

CASE OVER AN INFANT.

The motion was opposed by uncles and aunts of the child. The arguments in the case occupied all the morning and a number of witnesses were examined. The judge reserved decision. J. B. Wakem, K.C., acted on behalf of the applicant, and T. J. Rigney opposed the application.

W. J. FAIR SURPRISED

At Notice of Motion to Appoint New Road Representative.

W. J. Fair in a communication to the mayor and aldermen, states that he is at a loss to understand the notice of motion given at the last meeting of council by Ald. Linton for the appointment of a civic representative on the Suburban Road Area Commission to replace him. He says he has given his best judgment and much time to the work, and has freely travelled considerably at his own expense to see various roads and to get the best information he could on the subject of road building. Mr. Fair was appointed in October, 1916, for five years, Anthony Rankin, being the Frontenac representative and John S. Sibbitt, of Pittsburgh, the third commissioner. During 1917 and 1918 Frontenac and Kingston voted in all $16,000 for suburban area work, but owing to the scarcity of labour last year, there is a surplus of over $2,000 for use this year from the grants of 1918, which with a grant of $13,000 from the county and city this year will put the commission in a position to construct some ten or twelve miles of a road and take care of repairs. The Commission, he says, has expended the money wisely and well during the past two years, and has also succeeded in getting the area reduced to thirty-nine miles.

In conclusion, Mr. Fair says: "It does seem strange that a much less experienced alderman would attempt to disturb my appointment until my time has expired, as I naturally have a desire to show what can be done by the Commission in five years, knowing that the ultimate goal can only be reached by planning along the lines and within the limited conditions provided for."

I.O.O.F. Marine Night.

At the regular meeting of Kingston Lodge No. 59 I.O.O.F. held Thursday night, the members entertained their marine brethren. After conferring the second degree on five candidates, the tables were laid and the members partook of a very enjoyable banquet. Bro. B. Gilbert, N.G., presided and the following toasts were drunk: "The King"; "States Lodges"; to which Bro. W. Newlands, P.G., responded: "Our Marine Brethren," with which was coupled the name of Bro. Joseph Kennedy, who, on behalf of the marines, suitably responded. Songs were sung by Bro. T. W. Morris, P.G., and Bro. Eardley and were much appreciated. Great credit is due to the entertainment committee of this lodge for the able manner which they catered for the guests who numbered more than one hundred.
