Military Matters

Men at present attached to "C" Battery at Tete de Pont barracks think they are overworked. They cannot see why men who have not been overseas but who want to enlist in the artillery, are not accepted in order to bring the battery nearer strength.

Veterans resent the order-in-council prohibiting the giving of liquor to returned men. They declare it is an insult, that it lowers their dignity and almost makes them feel they are in disgrace while wearing the uniform.

The 1st Depot Battalion, E.O.R., is to be disbanded by the end of the week and by that time all of the personnel will have been disposed of by discharging or by transferring to other units. The battalion has been commanded by Lieut.-Col. R. W. Smart who now concludes a splendid military career since the war.

A notice appeared in district orders on Tuesday to the effect that individual applications for the 1914-1915 Ribbon and Star, should not be made as the Director of Records is making out a nominal roll of all soldiers who are entitled to this decoration and as soon as possible all soldiers who served overseas before December 31st, 1915, will be sent this new decoration.

The work of closing up the records of the depot Registrar under the Military Service Act is expected to finish this week and the records will be sent to Ottawa. It is the intention of the military authorities to make out lists of all soldiers who were ordered but who did not report and action will then be taken to disfranchise them or in some way punish them for disobedience of the Military Service Act.

With the closing up of the 1st Depot Battalion, E.O.R., it is expected that the 2nd Depot Battalion, E.O.R., now in Ottawa will shortly be brought to the huts at Barrfield so that it can be more quickly closed up. The signal training depot, O. Ottawa, will also be brought here for the final work of demobilization.

Owing to the illness of Major W. J. Sharpe, the court-martial of that officer, scheduled originally for today, did not take place. The major is still in hospital.

TO ASK THE CITY

To Arrange For Monster Reception For 21st Battalion.

The returned men of the 2nd Battalion, following the lead of the 21st and the R.C.H.A., are to form a battalion club. The club is to have its first meeting in the G. W. V. A. rooms on Thursday evening next, when it is expected that there will be a large attendance of 2nd Battalion veterans.

The 21st Battalion Club met in the G.W.V.A. rooms on Thursday evening at eight o'clock. There was a large attendance of members of the battalion. Comrade Tagwood, vice-president, occupied the chair. A committee was appointed to wait upon the city council to ask that a civic committee be formed to make arrangements for a monster reception for the 21st Battalion when it arrives in Kingston. This committee consists of Captain McCulla, Captain Taylor and Captain Sleeth. A committee to help 21st men to obtain employment was also formed.

It was reported that over one thousand tickets have been sold for the draw for a cake, which is being held in aid of the funds of the club. The banquet is to be held during the first week in March. The club is making arrangements to have the G.W.V.A. meeting room decorated with pictures and souvenirs of the 21st Battalion, so that it will be the official 21st Battalion club room until separate quarters can be secured, if it is decided to open separate rooms.

In Aid of Hotel Dieu. A handsome khaki sofa pillow, beautifully embroidered in silken Flanders field poppies, will be disposed of March 17th, the afternoon of the Hotel Dieu Hospital annual linen shower, held this year as usual by the kind ladies of the auxiliary staff.

The proceeds will be expended in replenishing the hospital "bath robe" supply.

Note—The pillow may be seen in main office of above institution. Save a few pennies for the above good cause of your local institution.

A Cake In A Drawing Scheme.

The cake in the window of Best's Drug Store on Princess street has been attracting considerable attention during the past few days. It was made by a friend of the 21st Battalion Club, and is to be disposed of by means of a drawing scheme. Tickets are now on sale at a price of ten cents each, and on Friday next Mayor H. W. Newman will draw the winning number at Best's Drug Store. The proceeds will go to the funds of the 21st Battalion Club.

Driver Was Injured.

Charles Mullins, driver of one of the Shedd's Company's teams, was thrown from his wagon at the corner of Barrie and Union streets on Thursday, when the wheels skidded on the railway track. He received severe injury to his head by the fall, and James Reid's motor ambulance was called to convey him to the General Hospital.

Oranges Coming Down.

Seedless sun-kist oranges, 25c dozen, Saturday, at Carnovsky's.

Ray Peppin, son of Charles Peppin, formerly of Brockville, is now managing the drug store of the late F. Charles Clarke in Belleville. Mr. Peppin served on transports for a long time under the Army Medical branch.

Henry Kirk, Colborne, has requested the sad message that his son, Pte. Arthur Kirk, has died in a hospital in England, after an illness of several weeks.

THEATRICAL.

At the Grand.

The mountainous country of Switzerland has always been the subject of much interest to everyone, and now it forms the background for one of the most enterprising and absorbing productions ever filmed, namely, "The Street of Seven Stars," which, although beginning with Paris as the locale, soon turns to the wonderful scenery of the Swiss highlands. Doris Kenyon, the girl of a thousand expressions, who is rated as the most beautiful actress in pictures, had the titular role in this remarkable photodrama, which was presented at the Grand last night and will be shown again to-night and also tomorrow, and she did justice to every scene. Not only was this feature good, but also the other ones on the bill, which included the Pathe News, comedy reels and an O. Henry story, while Bert Jones in a talking and novelty juggling act made a decided hit. Don't miss this programme at the Grand to-night.

"The Other Man's Wife."

The eternal triangle, the man, the wife and the other man, or the woman, this is the basis for all stories and naturally is as old as time. To treat this age old basic principle in a new or clever manner "is a consummation devoutly to be wished," and in "The Other Man's Wife" the Lambert Producing Company's play a new treatment of this old theme is to be found.

The play is from the pen of Victor E. Lambert, and abounds in a succession of clever situations. The comedy scenes are numerous, and the press has been most flattering in what they have had to say about the play.

"The Other Man's Wife" will be seen at the Grand Opera House on Wednesday, Feb. 19th, matinee and night.

At the Strand.

"The Heart of a Girl" is the title of the striking new World Picture, which on Friday and Saturday will be shown at the Strand Theatre with Barbara Castleton and Irving Cummings as the stars. The struggles of two rivals for the nomination for governor form the background for a charming love story and the climax of the story occurs during the progress of the convention at which the nomination is made. This particular scene is one of the most massive and elaborate ever seen on the screen and the events which take place in the convention are thrilling and interesting enough to satisfy the most exacting of photoplay critics. "The Heart of a Girl" is from the pen of Maravene Thompson, author of many popular short stories and best selling novels. Many of Mrs. Thompson's stories have appeared in the American Magazine and have been played up as the leading feature of that magazine. Her stories have also appeared in a number of other periodicals. Mrs. Thompson is also the author of a stage play which has recently been produced with much success. "The Heart of a Girl" is a wholesome, clean, pleasing, tensely interesting attraction. It is consistent, fast-moving and entertaining. It is the sort of a picture that every lover of the best in motion pictures will thoroughly enjoy.

That Charlie Chaplin's vogue is a thing of perennial increase can be gathered from the recent announcement of a well-known clipping bureau that he ranks third to President Wilson and the Kaiser as the most frequently mentioned personality in the newspaper world. The reason for this can be gathered from a visit to the Strand Theatre, where "A Dog's Life," the first of his $1,000,000 comedies, will be shown on Friday and Saturday.

At Griffin's.

Maurice Tourneur's superb picture "Sporting Life," was witnessed by an exceptionally large audience at this theatre last evening. The photoplay is filled with stirring action from start to finish, and there are numerous splendidly photographed scenes. It teems with suspenseful interest, the villains being constantly foiled at the eleventh hour. Excellent views are shown of the Earl of Woodstock's country estate, the Gypsy camp, racing stables, tail-bos the National Sporting Club of London and last, a genuine picture of the famous English Derby at Epsom. The audience was drawn into the excitement of the play's episodes, applauding and exclaiming at the succession of climaxes, as people do only when they are thrilled by a sense of participation in what they see or hear. It is a remarkable picture. This superior production will be shown again this evening and tomorrow matinee and night.
