British Work is Seen. (Canadian Press Despatch) London, Feb. 15 .- The covenant of the League of Nations is held by British papers as an historic document, drafted in an atmosphere of good faith, postulating and foreshadowing better and wiser governments throughout the world. Though the personal triumph of President Wilson is acknowledged, it is pointed out in a modified form that the covenant indicates that he has learned a great deal since he came to Europe, and pride is expressed that so much of the work of British-India and the overseas dominions. TO BE GUEST AT TWO EVENTS IN FRONTENAC CLUB.

Will Address Organized Labor in the Afternoon After Speaking Before the Canadian Club,

Kingston had the honor on Saturday of a visit frem Hon F. B. Carvell, minister of public works, who came to the city for the special purpose of making an inspection of the harbor regarding proposed improvements. Mr. Carvell put in a very busy day, as the committee in charge arranged quite a heavy programme for him.

In addition to looking over the plans for the propsed improvements to the harbor, securing a view of the harbor from Fort Henry, making an |--inspection of the dockage and lelevator facilities, and visiting a number of the local industries, he was the guest of the Canadian Club, at a At best it is "damned by luncheon, in the Frontenac Club at one o'clock, where he delivered an address.
