MADE ANOTHER HAUL.

Some More Liquor Found In a Napanee Hotel.

License Inspector Axley of Napanee, paid a visit to the Queen's hotel there on Saturday, and unearthed five more bottles of whiskey. It will be recalled that a provincial license inspector visited the Queen's hotel a few days ago, and discovered ninety-one bottles of liquor in the bath room.

Late Mrs. Yates Avery, Athens.

Athens, Feb. 21.—On Wednesday evening, Feb. 12th, shortly before midnight, Mrs. Yates Avery passed away at her residence, just west of Athens, after an illness of only a few hours. Deceased, before her marriage, was Miss Jennie Amealia Cowan, third daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Cowan. Mrs. Avery was in her fortieth year, and was beloved by all for her kind and loving disposition. About thirteen years ago she was united in marriage to Mr. Avery, who survives, with two sons, Waldon and Howard, and two daughters, Hazel and Thelma, all at home. She is also survived by three sisters and one brother: Misses Nora and Ethel, in Brockville; Laura and Winnifred, of Chantry. The funeral services were held at the late residence on Friday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. T. Vickery.

Only 38,000 Repatriated.

Berne, Feb. 24.—Swiss newspapers reported recently that 200,000 German prisoners had been repatriated from Russia. According to a reliable message this is an exaggeration, as only about 38,000 have thus far returned home.

Sir William Hearst's evident intention not to make an early appeal to the electorate for a renewed mandate of confidence is severely criticized by Toronto conservatives.

Pension For Lady Laurier.

Ottawa, Feb. 24.—The Journal editorially says:

One of the first duties of Parliament should be to vote a pension to Lady Laurier not less than the salary which Sir Wilfrid Laurier received as leader of the Opposition. Sir Wilfrid gave his life service to Canada. He made no effort to seek fortune to himself in the monetary sense; and no fortune came to him. Canada should see to it that the aged wife whom the dead statesman left behind should receive the reverence and justice to which Sir Wilfrid Laurier's fifty years and more of stainless public service entitled her who was closest to his heart.

The Supreme War Council has completed the main details of the military treaty which will be presented to Germany very soon by Marshal Foch. The Council of the Great Powers will probably pass on the treaty on Tuesday.
