RECEPTION TO THE R.C.H.A.

ARRANGEMENTS TO GIVE ARTILLERYMEN WELCOME.

There Are Several Hundred Toronto University Men in the Batteries—Upheld the Traditions of the Force. Though no definite plans have been made, the matter of giving a proper reception to the R.C.H.A. batteries when they return to Kingston is now being discussed and arrangements will probably be made shortly.

When the R.C.H.A. left Kingston for Valcartier Camp in 1914, coming directly from Petawawa Camp for the purpose, the batteries had about 180 men. These soldiers were of the old guard being permanent force. At Valcartier camp there were several hundred men, mostly Toronto University men, transferred by request to the Kingston unit. These soldiers are now serving in France and with them has been added at different times drafts from Kingston and Petawawa camp.

While the R.C.H.A. may come back, up to full strength, the other members now in the city realize that it will not be the same body as that which went away in 1914. Nevertheless they are going to be accorded a reception worthy of their achievements on the battle-field.

It is understood that orders have been issued which will allow the R.C.H.A. to detain with their complete equipment and march directly to the barracks without having anything to do with the dispersal station at Barriefield.

THEATRICAL.

"Vanity Fair Of 1919." "The play's the thing" has been changed in these days to "the girl's the thing." Accordingly a real success may be promised theatre patrons of the Grand when the breezy musical revue, "Vanity Fair," comes to Kingston on Friday evening. Here will be seen and heard girls of every type to appeal to the wandering fancy. From the prima donna right down to the little "pony" in the chorus, it's a show of feminine beauty. And when one adds in the laughs that tread right on each other's heels the scenic settings, nine in number, each a comfort to the eye, the bewildering array of unique costumes, the fifteen hitting song numbers and the graceful dancing specialties it is small wonder that "Vanity Fair" is heralded as one of the actually good things of the year. Seats are now on sale at the box office.

"A Night In Honolulu." Miss Dolly Day, who plays the Hawaiian dancing girl in "A Night in Honolulu," which comes to the Grand Opera House next Saturday, matinee and night, is a young woman who has made her way on the stage by careful study. The only and practical way for one ambitious to learn the ways of the stage is to "act," said Miss Day. The various schools of acting may be well enough in their way, but my observation of their graduates has been that they are harder to fit into a role than a person who has had no training at all. The Stock Company is the best school which can be found in the country to-day.

At the Strand. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday, "His Picture in the Papers." It looked easy for Pete Prindle (Douglas Fairbanks) to get his portrait displayed on the front pages of all the New York papers—yes, it looked almost too easy. Here's what the hero actually did before he put through the proposition, gained a half interest in his father's firm and was awarded the hand of the girl he loved: Wrecked an auto and went to the hospital, was thrown off a train, put out a champion middleweight and fought a losing fight with two husky policemen. At last he won by fighting off a band of yeggmen and saving a train from being wrecked.

In these days of strenuous advertising this comedy is interesting as showing how a man eager to attain notoriety may fall down time after time only to attain it when he is not looking for it. Fairbanks makes an attractive picture as a lively youth who prefers a good, juicy beefsteak to the dessicated foods that his rich father exploits through the press.

At Griffith's. Another highly delighted audience attended this popular theatre last evening and expressed their keen appreciation of the charming programme exhibited. Ever popular Charles Ray was shown in "String Beans," a typical Ray photoplay, which shows the efforts of a swindler to get the confidence and coin of the gullible natives of a small town on a string bean canner project. The story is highly amusing, full of human nature and containing a pretty romance. "Good-Bye, Bill," another delightful feature starring the two sterling artists, Shirley Mason and Ernest Trues, also proved very popular with the audience. The photoplay satirizes Wild Bill Hobenzollers from start to finish. It shows how he hung his terrorism idea on the eye of the German people so effectively that he thought sure it would work on the rest of the world, too. These two features are well worth seeing, and should not be overlooked by anyone desiring a good evening's entertainment.

Bugler Hughes Coming. A telegram to Mrs. P. Hughes, 177 Alfred street, on Wednesday, announced the arrival at Halifax of Bugler William Hughes, better known as "Tack" Hughes, who went overseas with the 146th Battalion when he was only seventeen years old.

Mrs. Hughes had her husband and six sons serving overseas at one time, but now all but her husband and two of her sons have returned.

Capt. "Jack" d'Esterre left on Wednesday noon to spend a week at his old home in Toronto. Ripe pine apples, 40c each, Carnovsky's offer to-day.

Military Matters

Orders have been issued for the reconstitution of the permanent force. The strength of the establishment is fixed at 5,000 men. Its composition and disposition is left to the discretion of the Minister of Militia-in-Council. The term of enlistment shall be two years. The rates of pay and allowances authorized for officers, N.C.O.'s, and men of the C.E.F. shall be paid to the permanent force under this order according to rank or appointment therein, and a "dependents' allowance" will take the place of the separation allowance, but it is expressly stated that nothing in the order shall affect adversely any present members of the permanent force in respect to pay and allowances.

Lieut. T. F. Harrison is expected to arrive on Thursday from England. He is a son of T. J. Harrison, Rideau street.

The George Richardson Chapter, I.O.D.E., entertained the soldiers at Barriefield barracks on Tuesday evening. There was a large attendance of soldiers, who thoroughly enjoyed the splendid programme of solos, duets and recitations provided by the ladies. After the programme, refreshments were supplied, and hearty thanks were expressed to the chapter for the evening's entertainment.

The Salvation Army band is to give a concert at the Barriefield barracks this evening.

In future all church parade services are to be held at the Barriefield barracks. The C.A.S.C. unit and other troops in the city, as well as those at Fort Henry, will parade to Barriefield for divine service, which will be held in the recreation building.

3rd DIVISION SAILS FOR CANADA SATURDAY
Canada's Third Division will start homeward on Saturday next. The initial shipload will embark at Liverpool on the Adriatic. Advice to this effect have been received at the Militia Department. There are about twenty-two thousand men in the division and the fact that it is the first to come home is because it was in England when demobilization was ordered. The other divisions will come in turn. With the arrival of the Third Division the departmental scheme of sending the men direct to dispersal areas in each division will become operative. Each man will be sent to the area nearest to which his home is located.

Miss Gibbs' address in G.W.V.A. Hall, Thursday, 8.15 p.m., will hold interest for every young woman who wishes to help herself while helping her country. Admission free.

Sergt. Allan Forsythe spent the week-end in Gananoque. Tomatoes, cucumbers, Carnovsky's.
