BOAT-CREATED DISCUSSION.

Many Claim Wilde Should Have Given the Decision.

The British and American services boxing tournament, the semi-finals and finals of which were held at Royal Albert Hall, London, the latter part of January, brought together into the arena many of the greatest boxers of the present day. The tournament was held under the patronage of King George, who presented a handsome trophy to the winning team from the British army.

The contests brought forth many exciting bouts, but not one created so much comment as the exhibition between Pal Moore, of the United States navy, and Jimmy Wilde, the popular English bantamweight champion, in which the former was awarded the decision.

The award of the judges was taken exception to by sporting writers throughout England, and also created a good deal of comment among the British boxing fans. Toronto boxing enthusiasts will be able to see this most interesting bout, together with the finals of the other classes in the motion pictures, which will be presented at Massey-Hall the entire week of March 10. These pictures show graphics every move made by the two little boxers while in the ring, and will let the local followers of the fistie decide for themselves the merits of each. The pictures were originally made for showing exclusively to the royal family, but the bouts proved to be of such widespread interest that permission was gained to show them throughout the British Empire.

How Baseball is Hampered.

"Baseball is hampered by certain club owners who lack experience," said a leading magnate last week. "Persons who know little or nothing about the practical end of the game have become influential stockholders and are trying to run things. As a result many absurd tactical blunders have been made by these persons, whose ideas have disgraced the game. If the inexperienced element will gracefully subsidize and permit men who know the ins and outs of the game to steer the old ship there will be plain sailing. But so long as the lightweighters of baseball refuse to keep quiet the game will continue to suffer."

Pitcher Rudolph For Giants.

Manager John McGraw of the Giants is angling for the services of "Dick" Rudolph again. Rudolph wants to play in New York, which is his home, and at several times has tried to establish a connection there. It was thought that he would become a member of the Kilties last fall, but the plan fell through. If McGraw can make a deal with the Boston Braves for the services of the Bronx boy, he will become a member of the Giants in time for the training trip.

Toronto Federation.

A general revival of all sports in Toronto has led to the formation of the Toronto Amateur Athletic Federation, the officers of which represent all branches of athletic endeavor. The regulation of games throughout the city, the securing of more playing areas and a big local stadium and general co-operation between athletic bodies are the objects of the new association. One of the directors is F. A. O. Johnston, racing board chairman of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association.

No War Interference.

W. A. ("Bill") Barry, the elder brother of champion Ernest of the ilk, who has arrived in England from Budapest, after a long experience as a prisoner of war in Germany, reports that all English prisoners received reasonably fair treatment, and were allowed to go about the town. Racing was better than ever during the war, and English rainers and jockeys were employed. Barry, it will be recalled, won the championship in September, 1918, when he beat George Towns over the Putney to Mortlake course.

Boyle Vetoes Boxing Bill.

Governor Boyle of Nevada, vetoed the twenty-five round boxing bill, a few minutes after it reached his office. The bill passed both houses of the legislature, but did not have a two-thirds majority in either house, indicating that any attempt made to pass the bill over the governor's veto will not be successful.

Headspinners.

Town is famed for its wrestlers. That state developed another strong boy, Alex. Frank, who is said to be as good as Frank Gotch, Joe Stecher or any other of the strangers. In the exigencies of the head-spinning game Alex. may be expected to spin on his bean.

The silent man may be a mine of wisdom, but a talkative fool sometimes explodes the mines.

Bagdad Tennis Title.

Norman E. Brookes, surviving holder for Australia of the Davis tennis cup, and world's champion in singles, has just returned to Australia from Mesopotamia. He was engaged in Red Cross work there, and he is now Major Brookes. Brookes, it will be recalled, won the Davis cup with Anthony F. Wilding, the New Zealander, on the eve of the war. Wilding was killed early in the war.

Major Brookes was appointed a Red Cross Commissioner for Australia in July, 1915. His duties covered the whole of Mesopotamia and Persia.

"I went within forty miles of the Caspian," said Major Brookes, "where the heat for four months in the year averages 112 degrees in the shade. This heat is much more trying than that experienced in Australia, and it is much more dangerous, cases of sunstroke being frequent."

Speaking of tennis, Major Brookes said: "The courts at Bagdad were made of bhoosa, which is a composition of chopped straw and mud. Bhoosa was quite new to me, but I never played on courts like them. I consider them the best courts I have been on. Of course, grass courts could not be got in Mesopotamia, but the bhoosa courts are the next best to grass." Major Brookes easily won the Bagdad tennis championship from English competitors.

Hill, The Methuselahs.

If the International Baseball League is hard pressed, as it is apt to be, for players to fill all the clubs, it can compose a club of the various managers, with a couple of additional players to round out the nine.

Arthur Irwin, the sixty-year-old manager for Rochester, for instance, was a first-class shortstop in his days of active participation in the game; Bill Donovan, of Jersey City, could pitch; George Gibson, of Toronto, could catch; Tom McCarty, of Newark; Fred Schulte, of Birmingham, and Patsy Donovan, of Syracuse, could play the outfield; Chick Hartman, formerly manager of Birmingham, and who will be a member of the team again next season, could cover second; Jack Dunn, of Baltimore, third, and George Witse, also of Syracuse, would be good enough for first.

Gowdy is Himself Again.

The Boston National League Club cabled $250 to Hank Gowdy to-day, in answer to a request from the catcher. Gowdy is with the American army of occupation, and his cable encouraged officials of the Boston Club to believe that he might be released from service at an early date.

NOT TO SANCTION BOUT.

Title Fights Considered Undesirable in New Jersey.

New Jersey boxing officials have no intention of sanctioning the proposed heavyweight championship bout between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey, which Tex Rickard will conduct somewhere in this country July 4th. John S. Smith, chairman of the New Jersey State Boxing Commission, has declared emphatically that under no circumstances will the proposed contest be permitted in New Jersey. In this opinion Commissioner Cann coincides.

The remaining member of the commission, Commissioner Crane, is favorable to the bout being conducted in New Jersey, providing it is held in a suitable building. "Since there is no building which could accommodate the crowd expected to attend the bout, the probability of the fight being held in New Jersey is negligible."

Commissioner Smith declared the contest undesirable as far as New Jersey was concerned. The disparity in the ages of the principals forms the foundation for Commissioner Smith's hostility, and to this is added antipathy over the inactivity of Willard during the war.

World's Ski Record Equalled.

At Steamboat Springs, Col., the world's champion ski jump of 203 feet was equalled last week by Anders Haugen, of St. Paul, at the annual ski tournament. He won the professional event with 249 points, defeating by six points his brother, Lars Haugen, who failed to retain his footing after jumps of 209 and 212 feet.

Nelson Jensen, of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, won the amateur event with 265 points and a jump of 118 feet.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM PERMANENTLY CURED

NEW BRUNSWICK LADY GIVES FULL PARTICULARS OF HER RECOVERY

There are many types of rheumatism, but none worse than inflammatory.

It was this kind that almost killed Mrs. Edw. Warman, of Kent, Jct., N. B.

Every known remedy she tried, different doctors gave her advice, but the disease increased.

Weak, and despairing, she was at her wits' end when the remarkable cure of Thos. Cullen was published. This gentleman was cured of rheumatism by "Ferrozone." Consequently Mrs. Warman used the same remedy. Here is her statement:

"For five years I have been rheumatic. I tried various forms of relief without success. The disease increased, settled in my joints and muscles; these swelled, caused excruciating pain and kept me from sleeping. My limbs and arms stiffened, my shoulders were lame and prevented me from working. Week by week I was losing strength and despaired of finding a cure. It was a happy day I heard of Ferrozone. Every day I took Ferrozone I felt better; it eased the painful joints, gave me energy and a feeling of new life. Ferrozone cured my rheumatism, cured it so that not an ache has ever returned. Even damp weather no longer affects me."

Ferrozone has power to destroy Uric Acid, neutralize and enrich the blood, and therefore does cure the worst cases. Mr. Warman's statement proves this.

By removing the cause of the disease and building up a reserve of energy, Ferrozone is certain to cure. Sufferer, isn't it about time to stop experimenting? Ferrozone is a CURE, order to-day, 50c per box, or six for $2.50, sold by all dealers.
