Died at Pembroke, Pembroke, March 11.—The death took place on Saturday of Huntley S. Willison, in his thirty-second year. Deceased was manager of the furnishings department of Fenton & Smith's store, and was highly esteemed. He leaves a wife and young family. His father died about three months ago and a brother was killed in France six months ago. He was a member of the local Masonic Lodge. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon.

Wholesale murders in Berlin, including the shooting of some sixty detectives, by the Spartacan forces, was followed by a Government soldier who escaped after being captured by the Spartacan forces.

The union of Austria to Germany has been unanimously agreed on by the national assembly at Vienna, but only as a republic.

The French Government now states that the French dead will reach one million six hundred thousand.
