THEATRICAL

To-night, "The Bride Shop." With its bright and witty dialogue, its many jingly tunes, its well connected story, a fine delectable production which spells prodigality, and a most excellent cast and chorus, George Choos' magnificent production of the famous musical comedy success, "The Bride Shop," will make a bid for public approval at the Grand Opera House to-night. There are many clever and tuneful musical numbers introduced during the action of the play, among which, "There Seems to be Something About You," "Ring Tang Tung Koo," "Oh, Those Tunes," and "Old Wine and Old Friends Are Best" are bound to be whistled and sung by music lovers before the show leaves town. Eddy Vogt, New Naden, John Sully, Gould, Edith Benjar, Max Hopstill, Muriel Rastrick, Sally Hunt, Frances Allison, Muriel Thomas are in the cast and a chorus the handsomest and most versatile seen outside of the metropolis.—Adv.

At the Grand. Once again this popular playhouse will return to its standard bill of vaudeville and pictures, and for an opener will present charming Haggie Barriscale in her newest Paralta play, "Patrimony." The production is an exceptional photoplay in many ways, and has been proclaimed as the greatest success in which this gifted star has appeared. A gripping plot against the vivid background of the great world war, which, however, is felt rather than seen, affords an ideal opportunity for Miss Barriscale to run the entire gamut of dramatic emotions, and she takes the full advantage of her opportunity. There will also be the usual Pathe News, O. Henry story and laughable comedy that will round out a picture programme of merit. An act of vaudeville that comes very highly recommended will also present a decided attraction when this show will be presented for the two days, Tuesday and Wednesday only.—Adv.

At Griffin's. Fred A. Stone, one of the best known athletic champions in the world, who made his debut in motion pictures in "The Goat," will head the programme at Griffin's for today, Tuesday and Wednesday. In his second film appearance, "Under the Top," Mr. Stone is a talented actor who knows how to portray serious roles as well as humorous role, but he is essentially a fun maker, and in his particular field he is perhaps unapproached by any other comedian now before the public. "Under the Top" is a story of circus life in which Fred Stone plays the part of a country boy who falls in love with a circus man's daughter, and so gets mixed up with the sawdust ring, and before you know it he is showing a bunch of tricks that makes the performers gape. Another charming photoplay to be shown here is Peggy Hyland in "Bonnie Annie Laurie," a palpitating photodrama of war and love. Don't miss this programme.

At the Strand. "The Spender," the Metro play which will be the feature at the Strand theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and in which the newest favorite of the screen, Bert Lyell, will be seen in a role of the cleverest, most amusing and entertaining comedies of the season. The plot centres around two men—Dick Bisbee, young and vital to whom life means enjoyment, and the other, "Tightwad" Bisbee, old and a misanthrope. The young man has no money to buy the good things of life while the older one possesses a million but has lost the art of happiness in his greedy search for gold. The play is vital and compelling for its real human power, while its comedy is most delicately and lightly handled proving a source of entertainment, while the romance which runs through the story is refreshing in its simplicity and charm. In addition there will be shown the third episode of the thrilling Houdini serial, and a novelty in the shape of the first show of the "Crazy" ever shown in Kingston. Frank Bessinger will sing again to-night, and as this is positively his last week in Kingston, patrons are advised to be on hand early.—Adv.

A SACRED RECITAL. Given in St. George's Cathedral on Saturday Afternoon. A splendid musical recital was given at St. George's cathedral on Saturday afternoon by R. R. P. Harvey, organist, which was attended by a large and select audience. Mr. Harvey was in good form and his selections were well chosen. Geoffrey O'Hara, New York, sang "The Green Hill," by Gounod, and "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," by Ambrose. Mr. O'Hara's voice is a true baritone and his rendering of the pieces was much appreciated. "Crossing the Bar," was sung very sweetly by Masters Howard and Peter Fair of the boys' choir. They are sons of W. J. Fair. C. B. S. Harvey, bass, whose voice is familiar to Kingston audiences, sang "White Mary Slept," with much feeling. Captain Black, M.C., late of the 21st battalion, C.E.F., sang very effectively, "Abide With Me."

Macphail Memorial Window. A handsome window was recently placed in Knox church, Cayuga, in memory of Captain (Rev.) Donald G. MacPhail, by his widow, Mrs. L. B. MacPhail, of Kingston. The window, of antique English stained glass, is a splendid specimen of art. It represents "Christ, the Preacher," the main figure being encircled with a wreath of thorns, the Cross showing in the background. It measures 6 ft. x 4 ft., and the inscription reads as follows: "He that believeth in Me hath everlasting life." In loving memory of Capt. Donald G. MacPhail, pastor of this church, 1901-1916, drowned on H.M.H.S. Llandovery Castle, June 27th, 1918." A receipted bill is always considered a good certificate of honesty.

Military Matters

In Friday night's Whig it was noted that on the reorganizing of the new permanent force Lieut. Slade was to be discharged to civil life. This news was received with much regret by many of the old R.C.H.A. boys, who have a very high appreciation of his worth and services in the battery. He saw considerable service overseas in the present war with the R.C.H.A., and wears the ribbon of the 1914-1915 Star. He carries with him to civilian life many hearty good wishes for as bright a civil career as he enjoyed while in the service.

Bombardier Frederick B. Pense, son of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Pense, Princess street, arrived at Halifax last night on the S.S. Olympic, and will be in Kingston on Wednesday.

The Celtic, with twenty N.C.O.'s and men for Kingston, docked on Monday morning and immediately afterwards the Olympic docked with 270 N.C.O.'s and men also for this city.

The Arguaya carried eighty-four and the Royal George, which is now due, has forty-nine for this district.

Officers, N.C.O.'s and men in M. D. No. 3 desiring to attend the reception to the returning battalions, have the permission of Brig.-Gen. Williams, G.O.C., to wear their uniforms. This order holds good for all receptions.

Major Pearce, O.C., C.G.R. detachment, Fort Henry, has asked permission to have the uniform of men in detention as absentees and deserters, and for minor offences, painted with stripes so that they can be distinguished at a distance. It is understood that permission will not be granted.

The clerks at the armouries who were unattached upon the demobilization of 3rd Battalion, C.G.R., have been taken on the C.M.S.C.

A general order mentioned previously in military notes refers only to the organization of a cadet staff which is made a part of the permanent staff of Canada. It will include inspectors of cadet corps.

Col. Harry Genet, A.A.G., has gone to Toronto to be present upon the arrival of his old battalion, the 58th, of which he was commanding officer in France.

Lieut.-Col. A. W. Winnett and T. Hancock, of Kingston, landed from the S.S. Metagama, at St. John, N.B., on Monday and will reach here in a civilian special train. Kingstonians who arrived at Portland, Maine, on the hospital ship Arguaya, on Saturday, were: Major Frank P. Strachan, Gunner F. C. Graham, Pte. C. Defoss, Driver L. H. Joyce, Pte. R. Blair, Pte. P. O. Ruthertford and Pte. C. Sullivan.

An Excellent Meeting. The first of a series of talks on the Gospel, given by S. W. Benner, of Orillia in the Gospel Hall last evening, was considered a good meeting in every way. The attendance was good, and the attention throughout showed that the subjects were well handled by the two speakers. Mr. Irving spoke on "The Kingdom of God which is not meat and drink, but righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost." S. W. Benner followed on some of the Gospel invitations of the bible. This is his first appearance before a Kingston audience and both he and his message were well received. The meetings were announced to continue nightly.

To-Night. In the Gospel Hall, Mr. R. Irving will use a large colored chart called, "The two roads and the two destinies." S. W. Benner, of Orillia will follow with one of his interesting Gospel talks. A good attendance is expected.

J. H. Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railway men in England, said that most of the demands of the railway men had been conceded to in principle, and from that point of view the negotiations had been a success.
