SAVE TIME—LABOR—MONEY—With Wind Power

The wind is free. Put it to work on your farm. It will cut your chore-time in half—save you labor and time—make money for you. It will pump and carry the more than a ton of water used every day on an average farm.

A Toronto Windmill will put the wind to work on your farm. Not in the old-fashioned way. Toronto Windmills are modern—big, strong, efficient, requiring little attention, costing nothing to run, working quietly all the time—with DOUBLE GEARS. Toronto Pumps and Toronto Water Systems complete a real water service. Gives you all the water you want under pressure at taps everywhere on the farm.

Toronto Pumps and Water Systems are also built for use with gasoline or electric motors. We have some mighty interesting booklets on Windmills, Pumps and Water Systems. We'll send these free to any farmer who sends us his name and address.

The Late Mrs. Joseph Doak—Richard Waldron of Escott Is Dead, Aged Ninety Years.
Lansdowne, April 2.—Mrs. Doak, widow of the late Joseph Doak, passed away last Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Humphrey, Winstead. Mrs. Doak was twice married, her first husband being Mr. Tackaberry. Besides her daughter, Mrs. Humphrey, she leaves three sons, Robert, Wesley and George Tackaberry and one step son, Freeman Doak; also one brother, W. P. Moore, of Brandon, Man., and two sisters, Mrs. Horton of Lansdowne, and Mrs. Bradley of Baseville, Man. The deceased was in her eightieth year and was a highly respected member of the Methodist church. The funeral was held on Sunday from the residence of her son-in-law, the remains being placed in the Lansdowne vault. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Mr. Hollingsworth of Gananoque East.

Wm. Kennedy had the misfortune to break his arm last week and he is in the Vincent de Paul hospital, Brockville. Walter Patience has bought the residence of Horton Edgeley and Mr. Edgeley has purchased Wesley Foley's property near the English church, now occupied by Frank Earl who is moving to Gananoque.

Mr. Ballard of Calgary spent a few days with Mrs. Cornett on his way from overseas. Mrs. Shaw returned on Thursday from a three weeks' visit in Mallorytown and Brockville.

A branch of the Bank of Toronto is shortly to be opened here in the store recently purchased from W. W. Mitchell.

Mrs. Ross McDeigh has bought Mr. Mitchell's residence and Mr. Mitchell has purchased the Bell property and intends building a warehouse in connection. Mr. C. M. Quinn of Toronto, spent the week-end here.

Roy Foley has returned from Queen's University, Kingston. Mrs. McKay intends putting an addition to her Main street property.

Roy Mullin, Gananoque, has been visiting his father and grandmother for a few days. Frank O'Grady is suffering with appendicitis.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. East on March 28th. George McKay and Harry Humphries have exchanged residences. Hill Warren intends moving to the premises lately occupied by Edward Latimer. Richard Waldron, Escott, passed away April 1st at the advanced age of ninety years. Mr. Harry Hunt has moved to the house formerly occupied by Leonard McNell. Rev. Mr. Towle, a former rector of St. John's, who is now at Wellington, has accepted a call to Bancroft.

OBITUARY

The Late William DUNNETT.
The death of William DUNNETT occurred on Thursday morning after a prolonged illness. He was born in Scotland at Bower Tower, Bower, Caithness-shire, seventy-one years ago, and came to Canada when he was a young man. He worked on a farm at Queenston Heights, upon which Brock's monument now stands. Later he was with the horse cars in Toronto, and then came to Kingston as foreman for the Sheddin Company. He was thirty-one years with this company, and seven with the Grand Trunk Railway and the steamship lines. He was twice married. Two children, James, of the C.P.R., Kingston, and Jessie, survive the first marriage, and the second wife and one son, Kenneth, aged ten years, also survive. The late Mr. DUNNETT was a staunch Liberal, a member of Chalmers Presbyterian church, of the Chosen Friends and St. Andrew's Society. He was a popular citizen.

Late Ex-Ald. William DUNLOP.
The remains of the late ex-Ald. William DUNLOP arrived in the city from Montreal on Thursday afternoon, and the remains were taken to the vault at Cataract cemetery. Quite a number of friends of the deceased gathered at the station to meet the remains. Rev. W. T. G. Brown conducted a service at the cemetery. The pallbearers were Thomas Mills, Dr. W. W. Sands, Robert Elliott and Thomas Gaskin.

Late W. J. Moorehouse.
A very sad death occurred at the General Hospital on Wednesday when W. J. Moorehouse, a lad of fourteen years, son of William J. Moorehouse, Sweet's Corners, passed away. Death was due to blood-poisoning from what at first appeared but a trivial inflammation of the eye. The body was sent to Lyndhurst via Brockville by James Reid, undertaker.

"BOOZE" HIDDEN IN CHIMNEY.
Police Made Find Wednesday At Home On Stephen Street.

The local police have found a new hiding place for liquor. Armed with a search warrant for a home on Stephen street, on Wednesday afternoon, Sergeant Samuel Arnel and Constable John Naylor found two bottles of "booze" in the chimney, and six more bottles under the floor in the kitchen. The collection just nicely filled a small valise, and it was removed to the police station. A charge of having liquor for sale, will likely be made against the owner.

At Huntsville William McLean, Port Hope, representing the Standard Ideal Company of that place, was found dead in bed. At a meeting of the agriculture committee of the legislature, John R. Dargavel, M.P.P., was appointed chairman.
