OBITUARY
Late Mrs. Minerva Keyes. The death of Mrs. Minerva Keyes took place at her residence on Wolfe Island on Friday after a brief illness. The late Mrs. Keyes was the widow of the late John Keyes. She was the daughter of the late William Mosler and resided on Wolfe Island all of her life. She was sixty-nine years of age. In religion she was a devout member of the Methodist church. Three sons, George and William, of Wolfe Island, Bert of Windsor, and one daughter, Mrs. Edward Seville, also of Wolfe Island, survive to mourn her loss.

At the Strand.
Before the camera Houdini broke his own record in a scene of the great, "The Master Mystery." See him at the Strand on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Instead of two sets of handcuffs, he wore three, he was completely bound by heavy chains from his shoulders to half way below his knees, his ankles encased in leg manacles. This equipped he was placed in an iron enforced heavy wooden packing case, securely bound, and hoisted by eight strong men out into the Hudson River. A strong current was running, the box tipped to one side, then immediately sank to view. In exactly thirty-two seconds Houdini appeared, swimming leisurely about as though taking a refreshing dip. But not alone did he break his own record by twenty seconds, almost cutting it in half, but he performed the feat with a broken wrist; he obtained no permit from the police, he signed no release statements for his men, so sure was he of his success. As his box was lost to sight and was to be used again in the serial, after regaining the dock from which the box was hoisted, he joined the divers in their search for it. When found it was still securely bound.

Houdini resumed his work before the camera as though the marvelous record-breaking feat he had just accomplished were a mere part of his day's routine, but Mr. Rolfe, the president of the B. A. Rolfe Production, Burton King, who directed the scene, the cameramen; in fact, all who watched Houdini take his life so lightly in his own hands, were well nigh nervous wrecks, so high had been their tension, so keen their anxiety.—Advt.

GANANOQUE
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
April 5.—The Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church held a missionary tea in the Anglican parish house on Thursday afternoon.

Under the auspices of the local branch of the Navy League of Canada, a meeting was held this week to bring the needs of that organization before the people. Mayor Wilson and Rev. C. E. Kidd, president of the local branch, made strong appeals for support, and favored a drive to increase membership.

The Misses Jean Bain and Kathleen Millar, of this town, were awarded their diplomas as nurses at the recent graduation exercises in connection with the Royal Victoria Hospital of Montreal.

During the past week the local machinists have presented a new wage schedule to the manufacturers of this town asking for 55 cents an hour for all journeymen machinists and 45 cents an hour for first class helpers. There are about twenty-five machinists in the various establishments who come under this rating. Some of the manufacturers have already agreed to the schedule.

Peter Pelow has been elected as delegate for Gananoque, Lodge No. 4, A. O. U. W. Workers of North America, to the national convention of that organization to open the first week in May in Louisville, Ky., and continue for about three weeks.

Miss Phoebe Bryant, Charles street, left recently for Hamilton to spend a short time with friends.

Among the arrivals of soldier lads from overseas so far this week are the following: Sergt. W. J. Kacey and Pres. J. J. Pullan, G. E. Thompson, G. O'Brien, E. Phillips, Delir. J. P. J. Dundon, C. E. Steacey and G. Camites. All were met by the mayor and large crowds of citizens and given a hearty welcome.

Death of a Venerable Resident. Ernestown Station, April 5.—There passed away on Tuesday a lifelong resident in the person of William Amey, in his eighty-eighth year. He was the youngest son of the late Peter Amey and Mary Baker, was born in the house in which he died. About three years ago he suffered an attack of paralysis, which left him in an enfeebled state, confining him to his bed until death released him. He was tenderly cared for by his son, Elmore Amey, and his wife. His wife predeceased him a few months ago. Two sons, Oscar, of Millhaven, and Elmore, on the homestead, also two grandsons, mourn his loss.

It Was a Landmark.
Almost, April 5.—George A. Robertson, Union Hall, can go the town wood-lot one better in the big tree competition. He cut a basswood tree from which he took 1,900 feet of lumber, all good, clear quality, worth at least $70, and with two cords of cordwood taken from what was left.

Told In Twilight
Mrs. Frank R. Phillips, Johnson street, was hostess at a delightful tea on Thursday afternoon in honor of her guests, Mrs. Harry Holland, Miss Marjorie Kirby, Miss Beattie Chamberlain and Miss Dorothy Pringle, who are here for Miss Jennie Phillips' wedding next week. Lovely spring flowers were arranged in the pretty rooms, and the table had for its centre a crystal bowl of pink tulips. Miss Spangenburg poured the tea and Mrs. W. J. B. White cut the loaves, the house guests assisting.

Mrs. Charles Askwith will be hostess at the Bridge Club on Monday afternoon at the Belvidere.

Several delightful supper parties were given last night after the concert in Convocation Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Chown left on Friday for Atlantic City. Mrs. George Tallon and Master Murray Tallon are the guests of Mrs. Bruce Hopkins at "Hazeldeil."

Mrs. W. Kent Macneil is visiting her mother, Mrs. Quirk, in New York. Col. James Stewart, D.S.O., was a passenger on the Northland, and is expected home to-morrow.

E. W. Beatty, Montreal, is spending the week-end in town. W. J. Crothers and Miss Minnie Crothers, Earl street, returned from California on Thursday.

Mrs. Taylor is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Gow, Union street. Mrs. Alexander Mackie, Clergy street, who is at present in Newark, N.J.; is returning home on Monday.

Trifany MacKie, after four years' absence overseas, has resumed his duties at the Royal Military College. Major and Mrs. H. P. Lafferty have taken Mrs. T. G. Smith's house on King street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carruthers and Miss Kathleen Carruthers left on Tuesday for New York. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nicholls, Calgary, are visiting Sergt-Major and Mrs. Beale. They have just returned from overseas.

HIS MOTHER FAINTED
When She Read of Son's Deed at the Penitentiary.
There was a touching scene at the Portsmouth penitentiary a few days ago when the father of Leo Rogers, the young convict, who made an attack on Guard John Berrigan, and attempted to make his escape, called to see his son. The father, who is a much respected resident of North Bay, is heart-broken over the affair, also the youth's mother. The first intimation they received of the affair was when the mother picked up an Ottawa paper at her home and read the account. The mother fainted, and has been in very poor health since.
