II---The Untold Agony of the War

What the Fighting Men Suffered With Heroic Silence

BY PHILIP GIBBS

Copyright, 1919, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

It has not been hidden from the passed so bravely, so patiently, so si-, side coura break through. world that modern warfare has sur- lently. been recorded in the black history what was happening to them. of agony in some little home where a want to forget all that. to let loose the old devils of inter- men's agony. national hatred in bloody conflict." generation, or less, the memory of by in the pages of history. fering may fade out, leaving only the romance. The danger is, even now, army began after the retreat from that when people talk about "the Mons of the "old contemptibles"horrors of war," it is but an ab- the gallant little regular army-in stract idea to them and that they do 1914, and when there began that hurled down by high explosives.

lists published month after month brighter side of things for the sake front. and year after year darkened human of those who were anxious and France the British troops were in at the root-causes of war so that we battlefield scenes which were grim or where they were billeted.

That is the present mood of civilized It is due to our men that the world night. They pounded them that a new philosophy of life based the terror of it all should be stripped upon new international relations may of all their romantic "camouflage" so

After the Retreat From Mons. not really understand the depths of long period of stationary warfare in remember in the spring of 1915 that abomination through which our men entrenched positions which neither forty men were buried like this be-

Germans by good generalship and supassed in horror anything that has For the fighting men did not tell perior numbers had established themin selves on high ground almost everyof human strife. The vast casualty their letters home they wrote of the where on the whole line of their imagination by their statistics of sac- afraid; and, when they came home hideous position in the Ypres salient rifice; and every name in those on leave, in answer to questions lying in a saucer-like hollow rimmed closely printed columns meant a cry about their sufferings they said: "I round by the Germans on the ridges father, mother, or wife had tried to Let's go and see a show which will and Messines . When later in the stifle the fear of the heart by faith make us laugh. Thank God / for spring of 1915 they toko over a longin the luck of their man at the front. laughter." As a war correspondent er line to liberate the 10th French The tide of maimed and broken men, in the field I too had to tone down army for the defence of Verdun they of blind and crippled and sick, which the black side of war. Apart alto- were again in low-lying ground flowed back into England and gether from censorship it was my round Lens and Arras, with the en-France after the first battles of 1914 duty to keep up the heart of the peo- emy above them on the Vimy Ridge. and for four and a half years after- ple and not to add to their torture of Monchy Hill, and the banks of the wards, was overwhelming in its flood anxiety for those they loved by har- Scarpe. This was the cause of much of tragedy, in great cities and in tiny rowing descriptions of carnage and misery and enormous slaughter. The namlets, and it was only the courage misery. And there were things the Germans had complete observation of of race and blood which refused to enemy wanted to know which I was the British trenches and of the yield to despair because of this con- not going to tell him-the exact ef- roads and tracks which led to them. tinual slaughter and torture of fect of his poison gas. The sum to- They stared straight down into vilyouth. So the soul of the world [tal of his slaughter in particular lages held by British garrisons and cries out "Never Again," and in this places. The success of his flame into other villages six miles or more period of re-shaping the structure of machines and other devilish devices. behind the lines-Souchez, Ablain, civilization says: "For God's sake let |So, in spite of the tragic spirit which |St. Nazaire, Vlamertinghe and many will cut out this horror. Let us get the front, and my descriptiotions of to march on their way to the front may kill them, and let us establish enough, God knows, in their realism, immense superiority in gun power, safeguards against any nation likely I did not give the full picture of our until the end of 1915, they turned their artillery on to these places with The need of secrecy is now passed. ruthlessness and method, by day and mankind and I think it is out of that should now know how much they fragments and then into dust, so that general emotion of revolt against the suffered with such stoical courage. of Souchez town and sugar factory sacrifice and agonies of its manhood The misery and the beastliness and there is not even a rubbish heap, and found except for the skeleton ribs be evolved. The danger is that in a that the truth should be etched deep- it's church. Beneath those rules and in that dust lie the bones British soldiers. Many of them were burfed alive. That happened score of times in Ypres where platoons

cloth hall, the Cathedral and houses

headless, or with smashed faces, or Our asylums are still full of them. ing among dead and mangled horses, intensified the powers of destruction where a gun team had tried to dash on each side, or changed one form of past Arras station, or a transport slaughter for another. In the early column had come through Albert days of trench warfare the Germans with its Falling Virgin. Yet no man | mined under our lines, and our offi-

body of men moved in daylight with- form of terror. As they stood-to in out being "strafed" by the enemy's the trenches they were aware guns directed by watchful observers some liquid falling lightly upon them on the ridges with telephones con- and it smelt of petroleum. A few nected with the batteries, so that all minutes later they saw German solmovement was at night. Further diers advancing upon them with canforward in the trenches battalions isters strapped to their shoulders lived horribly in foul and perilous and hose-pipes from which jets of high ground made their drainage Some of the King's Royal Rifles flow into the British trenches and the caught fire and were charred to cinheavy rains of Flanders flowed down ders. Others beat the flames out naturally into the flats so that many of their clothes, crying and cursing, of our trenches were waterlogged. and others in spite of their burns Even in August I have waded waist- fired through those tongues of flame deep in water through trenches and Germans carrying canisters were where English soldiers were holding burned to death in their own fire. the front line . "That Grand Fleet) of ours don't seem to be very active," said one of them, getting a joke out British soldiers were great fight- ness of the enemy and ourselves, and Ont., says: "After an attack of la says: "I cannot praise Dr. Williams' ly I had to give up my work and re- ers but bad diggers, and the German both sides did their job thoroughly, grippe I was so run down and enae- Pink Pills too highly. They are real- turn home. It was at this stage that trenches, dugouts and earthworks with superiority on our side towards mic that I could scarcely walk. I ly a wonderful medicine. I was very a friend brought me a box of Dr. Wil- were always better than ours, so the end. In those four and a half had no color, no appetite, and con- much run down, suffered from fre- hams' Pink Pills and urged me to that in the old stationary warfare years our losses were nearly 700,000 stant headaches. The medicine I was quent dizzy spells, and had an almost try them. By the time the box was their losses in daily casualties were killed and over 2,000,000 wounded. taking was doing me no good and constant severe pain in the back, used I thought they were helping me, less than ours. Later when we cap- High figures. Crying out to the pity I had almost lost hope of getting bet. My home work was a source of dread, and decided to continue using the tured many of their trench systems of God, and man for all this sacrifice ter. I was asked to try Dr. Wil- I felt so weak, and life held but lit- pills. I took a half dozen boxes more, our men made use of their deep dug- Lof splendid youth, and with much liams' Pink Pills, and it was not long the enjoyment. Then I began taking when my strength had completely re- outs and shell-proof tunnels so that suffering of spirit and body to each until I could feel that they were Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and the re- turned, my appetite was restored, my their physical condition of life im- individual before he lay quiet below helping me, and after taking them for suit was almost marvellous. They color returned, headaches had disap- proved, but meanwhile there was a wooden cross or went home with a a couple of months I was completely made me feel like a new woman and peared and I was feeling better than greater intensity of gunfire on both blighty wound, who can describe the cured. I now never fail to recom- fully restored my health. I would I had been for years. I would urge sides and all the battlefields were terrors of the battlefield? I cannot, mend these pills to anyone needing a urge every weak woman to give these Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial," ravaged with harrassing fire which though I have gone through those every weak and alling girl to give reached by long distance guns twelve, fields on days of great battle and seen fifteen and even twenty miles behind our guns blown up into the air by the lines, so that men billeted in lit- high explosives with their teams killtle villages a long way from what ed beside them, and have walked Ridge, which was blown clean out by or with no faces. I have seen not

The low a house in Ypres which was piled one shell so that nothing but the once but scores of times the long by the cold in their bones, and how above them by German shell fire, outer walls remained and not a trace trail of the walking wounded, stag- the grey slime of the Flanders mud Their groans were heard by their was found of thirty-six Canadian sol- gering back under shellfire with their was clotted on them, engrained in comrades, who made frantic efforts to diers who had been quartered there. arms about each others' necks, or the skin of their faces and hands, and rescue them, but during this work of it was the constant shelling behind nobbling alone until they dropped to plastering the clothes to their bodies. rescue the enemy's fire was intensi- the lines and in the lines which wore wait for the stretcher bearers or to so that they seemed to have been fied and the living tomb of down the nerves of men and caused die, so patiently that they hardly buried and dug up again. For five the forty an lay many dead and dy- that new disease, unknown to man- groaned-men with ghastly wounds months in 1917 our British soldiers That happened not once, but kind before, called shell-shock-the revealed nakedly, blind men groping endured those things, and our losses hundreds of times, not only in Ypres, most horrible malady in war. Strange- forward meserably with one hand reached fastastic heights. It amountbut in Albert and Arras and many ly enough it affected the stolid tightly clutching a wounded comrade, in the case of some divisions to other towns under German gunfire phlegmatic type of man more than men so hideous in masks of clotted all but annimitation. The two Irish nto which we went with the nag- the nervous and highly strung, and blood that I dared not look at them divisions lost two thousand men each ging little devil of thought that at it had nothing to do with lack of after the first glance. The Flanders before attacking a line of German any moment death or horrible ago- courage, but was a physical disorder battlefields were worst of all because "pill boxes" (or concrete block nies, preceding death might happen of the nervous system caused by con- of the intensity of fire there and be- houses) in August of 1917. They cussion. During the attack on cause of the state of the soil in five were shelled for hours as they stood-Thienval in the battles of the Somme months of heavy rains so that each to in their trenches before the battle I saw a tall and strapping sergeant- shell hole merging into another pit |-- and then when they went into ac-Yet our men went into these places major go raving mad by shell shock. ten or twelve feet deep was filled to tion each division lost over two thouand lived in them, laughing and whis- He kept clawing at his mouth and his the brim and made great bogs in sand more. In one case their loss tling, taking the risk, day after day, body was shaken with convulsions, so which dead bodies floated. Our men was 62 per cent. of their total and hiding that cold touch of fear that he had to be strapped to a could only get through that ground strength. In the other it was 64 which was somewhere in the heart stretcher. Another soldier near ten miles deep to Passchendaele by per cent . During all the years of of the bravest of them. Our troops him, a young and handsome boy, was duck board tracks, a foot and a half war, until the last phase, there were and our transport went up the tracks shaking in a kind of ague, staring wide and greasy with slime, and dreadful episodes like that when which the Germans had registered wildly with a dreadful terror in his "taped out" by German shellfire. whole bodies of men, round Ypres, in with their guns. It was just luck, eyes, quite insane. After almost ev- They went into action at night up Delville Wood and High Wood, on the always, whether they passed between ery battle we fought through four those narrow ways of death, and if Somme, at Gommecourt and Thiepbursts of shelifire at "Suicide and a half years of fighting there was they slipped off the duck boards they val, were slashed to death by Ger-Corner," and "Shrapnel Corner," and always a crowd of shell-shock cases, fell up to the armpits or deeper into man gunfire. They were fine men 'Hellfire Cross Roads," and out of and I used to turn my head away the slime-filled pits, and their cries boys for the most part from English Ypres along the Menin Road. Often from the sight of these poor boys, came wailing down the gusty wind. counties and Scottish farmsteads and luck was against them, and I saw with their dazed and lolling eyes and Woe betide a wounded man who fell cities, and I saw with their dazed and I had mere fragments of human flesh ly- Every year, every month almost, into those bogs of Glencorse Wood a battalion mess after one of these and Inverness Copse, and drowned. ever shirked going up those roads of cers and men in places like the Ho- there and one of them told me how did not try to shun their fate. They ill-fame, and if one transport column henzollern redoubt and Fricourt and he recovered consciousness at dawn walked among the dead and knew the were destroyed another followed past St. Eloi went about their duties with and thought himself quite alone, and horrors of war, but they put on a the dead bodies of their comrades, the awful consciousness that at any was very much afraid because of that mask of cheerfulness and hid any past the dead horses and the broken moment the ground might open be- loneliness, until he heard the voices fear they might have in their hearts wagons so that the men in the line neath their feet and bits of their bo- of wounded wailing about him, and -God knows we were all afraidshould not lack for food or ammu- dies be hurled sky high. So it hap as the light of dawn paled over those and they were gallant to the end, hat-And this happened not for pened many times until by counter grey fields of slime he saw blood- ing this war as the hell it was, but one week or one month or one year, mining we completely defeated the stained figures raising themselves out going through with it and drinking but for four years until the ceme- enemy's underground work. Then of the pits like dead men risen from to the very dregs its cup of agony, communication trenches began no salient were the first to see this new conditions. The Germans on the flame gushed out twenty yards ahead

What Poison Gas Really Meant. of his misery. "It's a pity it don't son gas, first used by the Germans in and do a bit of fighting." That was of 1915, when our men did not unin summer. In winter when the derstand its meaning and retreated water was ice cold it may be imag- before the vapor of death through a ined what our men endured. They wild stampede of civilians in Ypres were always wet. They slept in wet until many fell choking and gasping clothes, sat in wet dugouts, stood in their lives out in the fields around. wet boots and the cold slime of mud One despatch rider, carrying urgent its clammy touch about their very of retreat until he fell from his mosouls. In the first two winters of tor cycle, which dashed sixty yards symptoms were exactly like those of 1915, and until the end of the war a time from this cause, and in the ods and varieties of gas poisoning. old Ypres salient I have seen men He made it heavy so that it filtered of the 49th (Yorkshire) division down into our cellars in Arras and crawling back from the trenches, or Armentieres, where our men lay carried picka-back by their com- sleeping and breathed in its poison rades, unable to walk a yard, and He made it invisible and odorless so with both feet tied up in cotton wool that when gas masks were invented which were miserable holes in the us to vomit, and when we took off wet earth without any of the comfort our gas masks sent over another vermin, and our officers and men and raised enormous blisters and While under their use with my re- flying scythe of steel across their ing, parting for breath, with their thing. Larger vermin-rats and the line there were 1,500 of these mice invaded the trenches and cases and every day for many months romped and squealed in the dugouts, there were hundreds. It was but Miss Doring Bastien, St. Jerome, attacking food supplies and careless poor comfort to our men in agony exertion left me breathless. I suf- human flesh-grawed dead bodies but the trimmings and decorations of fered frequently from severe head-until their bones were bare and white. that death which is war. The slaugh heavy and light, by machine guns and teries behind our lines grew like for the "Flammenwerfer," or flame their graves. Afterwards some of for the name and honor of the Brit Behind the front lines where the our King's Royal Rifles in the Ypres hands like children, and so I met manhood which would allow no sur-the unlucky ones blown to bits, that clawing gesture at the mouth. like that. If there were no comrades many friends among them, and loved handy to haul him out he sank deep them all so that it was hard to go to come out to fill up the gaps, know-After a battle in those swamps ing that in a little while their turn thrower made its appearance, and them clung to each other, or held ish race and for their own pride of

NEW HEALTH AND STRENGTH FOR WEAK GIRLS AND WOME

WEAK, WATERY BLOOD RESPONSIBLE FOR MOST OF THE ILLS FROM WHICH GIRLS AND WOMEN SUFFER

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Actually Make New, Rich Red Blood and Through steam down these blinking trenches the second battle of Ypres, in April and do a bit of fighting." That was of 1915, when our men did not un-This New Blood Restore to Health Weak, Despondent Sufferers.

If every young girl and every woman would realize that the majority of common diseases in Flanders encased them and put orders, rode forward through the tide are due to weak, watery, impoverished blood, and that in this condition health can only be regained by enriching the blood, there would be fewer pallid faces, and nervous, breathless the war they were stricken with a shead until it crashed into a ruined folk in the land. Thin blood means starved nerves, weakened digestion, functional troubles, disease called "Trench Foot." Its wall. That was in the spring of headaches, heart palpitation, and a feeling of extreme weakness at the least exertion. It has been proven in thousands of cases that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best medicine in the all sense was deadened and the feet and intensified the most dreaded world for renewing the blood and strengthening the nerves. That given a fair trial they fill blackened and rotted Battalions means of destruction. The enemy the arteries and veins with new, rich, red blood that means good health, and even life itself; lost forty per cent. of their men for was devilishly ingenious in his meththat they make weak, despondent people bright, active and strong.

CONSTANT HEADACHES.

Mrs. E. C. Taylor, Ascot, avenue, Toronto, says: "A few years ago I I had no color; I was constantly troubled with headaches, dizzy spells and did not save my life. In 1914 I betinuing the use of these pills I be- used that I try Dr. Williams' Pink weight. People began enquiring and from that on I steadily progressed ing." what I was taking and I was not toward recovery. I continued using slow to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the pills for some time longer, and the credit. I took the pills for less they restored me to my old-time than two months, and completely re- health and strength. I shall never Que., says: "For over a year my of living men, though they liked dead that our gas was even more deadly. gained my old-time health and cease to praise this medicine, and to health was gradually failing, my men best, and outside in No Man's strength. I hope my experience may urge all weak run-down girls to give blood had seemed almost to have Land, or in the bogs of Hooge the convince some doubting person as to it a fair trial as I have proved in my turned to water, my cheeks were pale, worst hell of all where our men sat Slaughter on Battlefields Worst of Al the great merit of Dr. Williams' Pink own case their great merit." Pilis, as I have cause to be a firm champion of them."

COULD SCARCELY WALK.

ALWAYS FELT TIRED

Miss A. Sternburg, Haileybury

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

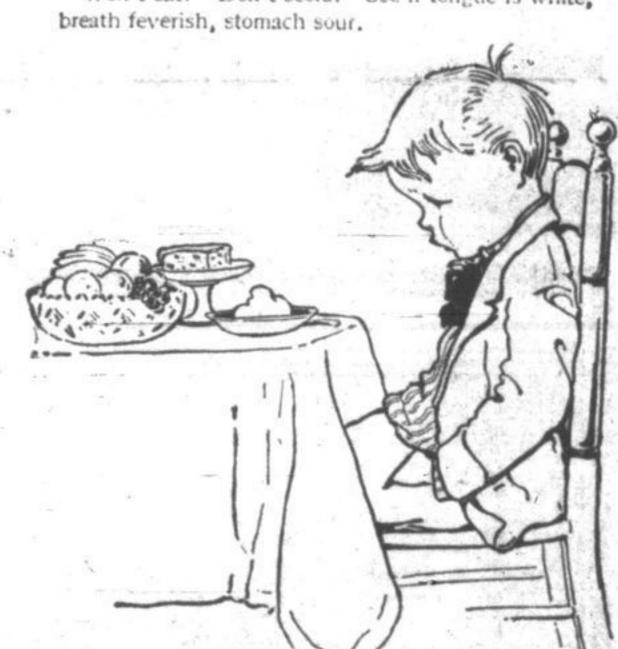

GAINED FORTY POUNDS. Mrs. N. E. Tompsett, Ottawa, Ont. was so run down with anaemia that Road, New Liskeard, Ont., says: "I writes: "For several years I suffered at the field ambulance. There was our men did not know when to wear have much reason to be grateful to terribly from nervous debility and no comfort for them in their dugouts, them . He made a gas which caused Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as they re- was scarcely able to do a thing. Durstored me to health, if, indeed, they ing that time I consulted several doc- or safety of those deep tunnelled dug- gas which killed. And then he inor do anything. I tried many medi- who was called in said that mine was getting any help, and I began to think for themselves below the ridges. all, which deposited a brownish powcines, but none helped me, and my a bad case of anaemia. I lost flesh, that I would never get better. One They were not only wet but alive with der and burnt through men's clothes friends thought I was in a decline, always felt tired, and I got so nerv- day I saw Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from decent, clean homes, some of blinded them. With this gas, sent me asked if I had tried Dr. Williams' take a drink. My heart would flutter advertised and thought I would them used all their lives to the delica- over in shells, he "strafed" our batPink Pills. I had heard of this medi- alarmingly. The doctor did not seem try them. After taking four boxes I cies and refinements of civilized life, teries and put many of them out of cine often, but had not used it, so I to be able to help me at all and my determined to give it a trial. I certainly got a pleasant surprise, for I was in a decline and could not reafter using two boxes I could feel an cover. I was in bed for some weeks improvement in my condition. Containingly. The doctor did not seem out of cine often, but I continued determined to give it a trial. I certainly got a pleasant surprise, for I was in a decline and could not reafter using two boxes I could feel an cover. I was in bed for some weeks improvement in my condition. Containingly. The doctor did not seem out of found themselves swarming with lice, action, and caused thousands of casu daily in the pills for several months and they hated this worse than the danger of five-point-nines and trench health. When I began taking the mortars with the risk of being buried alive in their dugouts or killed by a hundreds of these gas cases were lygan to regain my health, the head- Pills. My father got a supply, and by newed health I now weigh 140. I reparapet. For the lice did not leave lungs turned to water, with their aches and dizzy spells were disap- the time I had taken three boxes commend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills them alone by day or night, and made bodies burned, and with bandaged pearing, and I began to gain in there was a noticeable improvement, to every one whom I know to be ail-PALE AND BLOODLESS.

my lips bloodless, and the slightest and lived amidst the corruption of aches, my appetite failed, and my friends feared I was going into consumption. I had been doctoring but Miss Hannah Hamilton, Everett, Mrs. Alex. Gillis, Glenville, N.S., did not derive any benefit, and final-

Mother! Look at his Tongue!

Give Him a Cascaret—Quick!

Won't eat? Don't scold! See if tongue is white,

TO MOTHERS! Nothing else "works" the nasty bile, the sour fermentations and constipation poison so gently but so thoroughly from the little stomach, liver and bowels like harmless Cascarets. While general disinchination to move about gan to feel run down, and the doctor tors, and many medicines without outs which the Germans had built vented "mustard gas," the worst of children usually fight against laxatives and cathartics, they gladly eat acandy Cascaret. Cascarets never gripe the bowels, never sicken. Each ten cent box of Cascarets contains directions for dose for children aged one year old and upwards.

New Goods Just Arrived

SUNKIST Seeded and Seedless Raisins. In packages only. Buy from your grocer.

Combination Gas and Coal Ranges
We have in stock a full line of Moffatt's gas and coal ranges and gas stoves. These stoves are guaranteed to give you perfect satisfaction.

Let us show them to you.

187 Princess Street.

Phone 840

Do not be persuaded to take a substitute. See that the full trade mark name, "Dr. Wil- they thought was the danger zone through tracks strewn with our dead liams' Pink Pills for Pale People," is printed on the wrapper around the box. If you cannot and cottages. There was one house arms and legs flung far from their below Mont St. Eloi, near the Vimy bodies, with dreadful mangled faces. $2.50, by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Bro ckville, Ont.