THE VOICE OF THE PULPIT MORE SOLDIERS ENROUTE

"GRIEVE NOT THE HOLY SPIRIT OF GOD"

Subject of Sermon by Rev. Dr. Wilson in Chalmers—Rev. Charles Patterson of Toronto Preached in Bethel Church.

"Grieve not the holy spirit of God," was the text of a splendid sermon in Chalmers church on Sunday evening by Rev. Dr. R. J. Wilson, who dealt with some of the things in our daily conduct by which we could grieve the spirit of the Most High—bitterness, anger and ill speaking. He referred particularly to the conditions existing in the church to-day, and as to whether it could under present conditions fulfil its destiny. Dr. Wilson gave a graphic word picture of the early church, of the love existing among those who constituted it, and how their beautiful lives drew others to the Christian faith. He concluded with the hope that the love and brotherhood that existed in the church of long ago would again prevail upon the earth.

Dr. Wilson drew attention to the special services to be held in Chalmers during the next two weeks, the subjects under discussion being most momentous, as they dealt with matters affecting our whole future. This evening Bishop Bidwell is to speak.

At Bethel Church, Rev. Charles Patterson, of the Toronto Bible College, preached at both services in Bethel Congregational church. At the morning service the speaker chose as his text, "Enoch walked with God." He showed that God, while He is infinitely good, is our companion at all times in His efforts to lift us up. He does not wait for us to become good enough to be His friend or companion, but comes down to our level in His work of goodness. Mr. Patterson used the story of Enoch and showed the companionship illustrated there and the message that it left for us that we can make a companion of God and thereby raise ourselves and our character to a high ideal.

Princess Street Church. Sunday was a day of special services at Princess Street Methodist church. In the morning the monthly children's service was held, and the church was filled with the children and their parents. Special music was rendered by the children of the primary department of the Sunday school. Rev. J. A. Waddell preached an inspiring sermon on "Adversity," taking as his text, the words, "We are also witnesses."

In the evening a men's service was held, and the male members of the church turned out in such numbers that chairs had to be brought into the aisles to seat the congregation. Judge Lavell gave a splendid address on the relation of men to the church. He said that all the great men of history and of our own times have been closely associated with the church and have been men of ideals and men of action. Every man to-day should find his niche in the work of the church and should be prepared to assume his share of responsibility. There is nothing nobler than self-forgetful service. What we need in the church is more young men with their optimism, strength and vision.

A male choir of twenty-five voices led in the service of song. The choruses, "Let your lower lights be burning," and "Give the best to Him," were splendidly rendered by the choir. "May the Life of Christ be mine," was sung as a solo and chorus, the solo part being taken by John Marshall. A quartet, composed of Messrs. Waddell, Burroughs, Baker and Connolly sang, "Onward and Upward," very effectively.

THREE VESSELS REACHED CANADA AT THE WEEK-END.

Parties on the Way to Kingston—Nursing Sister F. M. Roadhouse is Among the Number.

The week-end has been a busy one in the arrival of troops at Halifax and St. John. Three vessels docked on Saturday and Sunday, and the troops of these ships are now on the way to their various dispersal areas. The Northland was the first to arrive at Halifax on Saturday, carrying one officer and thirty-one other ranks for the Kingston dispersal area. Of these are one officer and three men being to Kingston city. They are Lieut.-Col. J. C. Stewart, D.S.O., 167 Collingwood street, son of James Stewart, postmaster of Kingston; Driver J. McKinnon, Gunner W. H. Sales, 259 Division Street, and Sergeant Smith, 268 Wellington street. The following are the men for the neighboring district: Sgt. R. H. Booth, Gunner W. C. Hubbell, Gunner F. Nelson, Gunner H. J. Nelson, Supt. R. F. Thompson and Gunner R. Walker, Gananogue; Gunner E. T. Kentish, Napanee, and Driver E. McKnight, Bath Road. The troops from the Northland left Halifax on Saturday and are expected to arrive in Kingston late on Monday afternoon.

The SS. Corona arrived in Halifax on Saturday night, carrying two officers, one nursing sister and eighty other ranks for the Kingston dispersal area. Of this number one officer and seventeen other ranks belong to the city. Nursing Sister F. M. Roadhouse, 142 Nelson street, is also in this party. The officer is Lieut. H. T. Carter, Kingston. The seventeen other ranks are Pte. C. C. Pte. Bellringer, 29 Rideau street; Pte. E. M. Clarke, Gunner D. Clayton, Gunner J. Cooney, Gunner H. Creighton, Pte. Cummings, Pte. W. Fletcher, 283 King street; Sapper K. Hall, Pte. J. MacCallum, Pte. C. S. McDonald, Pte. W. J. Platt, Pte. J. Robertson, Pte. J. Smith, Pte. W. T. Sutton and Corp. J. T. Weaver. Others from this district from the Corona are Sapper H. Carleton, Maberly; Pte. P. S. Burt, Delta; Pte. M. J. Naton, Pte. J. Smith and Gunner M. E. Warring, Gananogue; and H. Sproule, Lavant. These men left Halifax late on Saturday night, but a message arrived in Kingston on Sunday stating that the train had been held up by traffic at Moncton, and was unable to proceed. They will probably reach Kingston on Tuesday afternoon.

The SS. Melita arrived in St. John, N.B., on Sunday, with twenty-one returning soldiers and nursing sisters for Military District No. 3. Of these only one officer and two men are from Kingston. They are Lieut. S. D. Curry and Privates E. F. Phillips and L. Laforne. They are accompanied by their dependents and are coming to Kingston by a civilian special train.

The troops from the SS. Scotia arrived in Kingston about one o'clock on Sunday morning. Despite the inconvenient hour, a number of people assembled at the Fete de Pont barracks to welcome them. There were one officer and thirty-six men in the party. W. E. Hayes, W. J. Dickson, C. E. Mills, P. E. Richards, J. J. Prior and T. J. Turner, all of Kingston, were in the party; also J. W. Henderson, Athletes; J. Kay, Camden East; J. W. Kenny, Seely's Bay; J. E. Kirk, Mallorytown; W. S. Kring, Omphac; L. Roche, Sydenham; and C. C. Spender, Pictou. The men were met at the train by transports, which took the party to Barrieffield huts for discharge.

A Youthful Soldier. Mrs. W. H. Gimblett, Queen street, received a telegram on Saturday from Halifax which stated that her son, William Gimblett, had arrived on the troopship Northland with the 24th Battery.

He was a sergeant in the 33rd Battery here, being at the time the youngest N.C.O. in the garrison. On December 13th, 1915, he went overseas with a draft from the battery, but on his arrival in England was declared too young for service in France and was kept in England for a year. He went to France with the 24th Battery, and served with it until after the battle of Vimy Ridge, going to England for treatment for trench fever, and returning to France and his battery after six months. He finished his young war career by marching with the Canadians into Mons after the armistice.
