NICK TIMMERMAN RESIGNS

AS SANITARY AND GARBAGE INSPECTOR FOR THE CITY.

His health Forces Valuable Servant of the City to Relinquish Duties—Served Faithfully and Well.

NICHOLAS TIMMERMAN
 As a result of illness, Nicholas Timmerman, garbage and sanitary inspector, has handed in his resignation, which will be taken up at the next meeting of the committee on public health. In the retirement of Mr. Timmerman, the city loses a valuable servant and at the same time, one of the most faithful in the city's employment. For over thirty years he served the city as a member of the police force, and for the past three years, he has acted as inspector of garbage. For many years, during his time on the police force, he acted as sanitary inspector.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

LOCAL NOTES AND ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Happenings in the City and Vicinity
 —What the Merchants Offer to the Readers of the Whig.

New cabbage at Carnovsky's, W. Swaine, piano tuner, orders at McAuley's, or phone 664W.

The Bishop of Ontario will visit Brockville parishes on Sunday next.

Now is the time to have your piano tuned. We carry two expert tuners and will assure entire satisfaction. C. W. Lindsay, Limited.

Peter Richie, county constable, executed a search warrant for an oil stove at Harrowsmith on Tuesday but failed to find the missing article.

Miss Daisy MacNamee, graduate of Kingston General Hospital, leaves on Monday for New York to take a six months' post-graduate course in hospital work.

Spontaneous combustion is believed to have been the cause of a fire which broke out over the boiler at the Kingston hosiery mill at 10.08 on Tuesday night. Damage will amount to about $25.

Remember the boys overseas still need smokes. The Whig will gratefully receive donations of cigars and cigarettes to send to the 21st Battalion as a last offering from the people of Kingston.

Dr. R. L. Mason, assistant physician on the staff of the Eastern Hospital, Brockville, has been transferred to the staff of the Rockwood Hospital. Accompanied by Mrs. Mason, he has reached the city.

We will rent you a piano, and at end of six months if you feel like purchasing instrument we will allow the six months' rental on purchase price, and arrange easy terms on balance. C. W. Lindsay, Limited.

The local yards and offices of the Montreal Transportation Company will probably be closed down completely by May 1st. At present there is much activity in making the boats ready for the coming season.

At the meeting of the fire and light committee on Tuesday, the committee went on record as endorsing the proposal of the Board of Health to have two annual clean-up weeks, the first week in May and the first in October.

Prevoost, Brock street, has just received a case of tweed, chevot, and blue serge for his order department. His ready made clothing and gent's furnishing department are well assorted with the latest goods.

The city engineer is arranging to purchase signs labelled "School, Go Slow," to be placed on Union and Alfred street near Victoria school, so that children will not be in danger of being injured by passing automobiles.

Elma Cresdee, the five-year-old daughter of Sidney N. Cresdee, employed at the Royal Military College, fell out of a window last Friday and dropped eighteen feet to the ground. Both bones of her left arm were broken.

The remains of the late Mrs. Bottrell, of Westmount are to arrive in Kingston by the Grand Trunk railway on Thursday afternoon, and the funeral will take place from St. George's cathedral directly upon the arrival of the train.

By holding up the cement tenders in the Board of Works, Ald. Graham, chairman of that committee, says he will save the city at least $1,750, as he has a new figure to supply 5,000 barrels thirty-five cents a barrel cheaper.

The boys of the 21st Battalion overseas are in need of cigarettes. The 21st Battalion Club is conducting a whirlwind campaign to send a parcel of two thousand packets of cigarettes and twenty boxes of cigars to their comrades. Donations gratefully received by Captain Black, the Hub Building; Lieut. Westbeare, Golden Lion Block; Best's Drug Store, and at the Whig office.

"Nick" Timmerman, as he is known to his friends, and they are legion, for he is known to almost every citizen, both young and old, is a native of Holland, who came out to this country in 1872. He lived for a few years in the United States, being employed at Buffalo and other points, but afterwards located in Kingston, and has lived here for upwards of forty years. He worked for a time in the locomotive works, and then joined the police force. In police work, he served the city faithfully and well, and when he resigned three years ago, to take over the position of garbage inspector, he left a record that any man might justly be proud of. He paid strict attention to police duty and was always "on the job." For some years, he did duty as a plainclothes man, and rendered excellent service. For many years, while a member of the police force, he officiated as one of the yard inspectors, and served under the medical health officer as a sanitary inspector, and in both capacities rendered good service to the city. Mr. Timmerman knows every inch of the ground in Kingston, and understands conditions so well that he was found to be a most valuable man in this work.

Three years ago, when the city erected its incinerator, and laid out a scheme for garbage collection, those in authority did not have far to look for a man to head the department. "Nick" was the man selected, and during his term of office, he "made good," and it is much to be regretted that he has been forced to retire from the work owing to failing health.

In the retirement of Mr. Timmerman the city loses a loyal and much valued servant—one who at all times, worked for the interests of the city he loves so well, and whose work did much to mark progress along sanitary lines, and whose chief aim was to make Kingston a distinctly cleaner, healthier, and more wholesome city.

Medical Dinner Held.
 The second annual dinner of Medicine '22 was held at the Randolph Hotel on Tuesday evening. The address was given by Dr. Lothrop, honorary president. He outlined the plans for the enlargement of the General Hospital, which will involve an expenditure of $700,000. Other guests who were present and gave addresses were Lieut.-Col. Kidd, Capt. F. X. O'Connor, Dr. Matheson and Prof. Patterson.

Police Court Briefs.
 Magistrate Farrell made a final settlement on Wednesday morning, in the case of the "vest end row," in which Kenneth Hermitson and Robert McCormick were charged with being intoxicated and ill-using Cecil Birdsell, and which was aired in court on Tuesday. McCormick was fined $20 and costs or ten days and Hermitson was fined $10 and costs.

Engagement Announced.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Miller, of Kitchener, Ontario, announce the engagement of their second daughter, Cora Beatrice Miller, formerly of Edmonton, to Charles Moxley, of Lloydminster, the marriage to take place the middle of April. Mr. Moxley was formerly well known as a Kingston druggist and rugby quarter back.

Colds Cause Headaches And Pains.
 Feverish Headaches and Body Pains caused from a cold are soon relieved by taking LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. There's only one "Bromo Quinine." B. W. GROVE'S signature on the box. 30c.

The Last and Best.
 To-night at the Gospel Hall, New Orange Building, will be the last of the addresses on the large colored prophetic chart, and should be by far the most interesting and instructive of the series. The attendance will likely be large.

A dray, hauling a load of flour on Ontario street, broke down on Wednesday morning and tied up the street car traffic for a while.

May Cosmopolitan on Sale Thursday

AMERICA'S GREATEST MAGAZINE

Watch for the magazine with the Salvation Army Girl cover. Another tribute to this magnificent organization by Harrison Fisher. Among fifteen short stories, serials and special articles the May Cosmopolitan contains:

Cynthia Stockley
 Some writers understand politics, some know war, quite a few understand men; very, very few know women. Cynthia Stockley does. She has shown this in one story after another, but never to quite such advantage as in the short novel, Lost Lorraine Loree, which begins in the May Cosmopolitan. It is the story of a beautiful, impulsive bride left alone in the temptations of the African diamond-fields.

Rupert Hughes
 Here's good news for the more than a million buyers of Cosmopolitan: Rupert Hughes' short stories are to be a month-to-month feature hereafter. His first story for you, a story called Read It Again, comes in the May issue. You'll want to do just what the title suggests.

James Oliver Curwood
 Don't let any mischance cause you to miss reading his story, The Hungry Horde, in the May issue. You'll be as impatient to get it as the thousands of Curwood "fans" throughout the country are for each new red-blooded story of the Great Outdoors from his pen.

A New Writer
 Cosmopolitan doesn't introduce many new writers to its pages. We demand the best and will consider only the best. Which generally means the work of the famous in writing. But now and then the stories of a newcomer are so startlingly excellent as to warrant a place in America's Greatest Magazine. Remember this when you read The Last Adams, who used to write such attractive light operas as "The Time, The Place, and the Girl," and such popular songs as "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now," Mr. Adams—his Lieutenant Adams, on duty in France these days—has gone in for fiction, and he has been a success from the start. His stories will be a feature of our future.

And Then Some
 These are only a hint of the May Cosmopolitan. John Galsworthy, Doug Byrne, E. Phillips Oppenheim, Judge Griffioen, Samuel Merwin, George Randolph Chester, and others of distinction will be among those present as usual.

That "as usual" means a lot. Cosmopolitan doesn't have the best now and then; it has the best always. And that is the answer to—
 More Than a Million Copies Each Issue.
