THEATRICAL.

At the Grand. To-night will be the opening night of the feature picture, 'The Shuttle,' starring the comical and captivating comedienne, Constance Talmadge. This popular star is well known here, as she had the stellar role in another release here several weeks ago, namely, 'Up the Road with Sallic,' and in this comical picture she made a distinct hit. Miss Talmadge is a star who takes roles of a light nature, and the bubbling comedy and irresistible good nature in all her pictures 'takes them the kind that every one delights in. Not only will this be a film to be on the bill, but there will also be the Screen Magazine showing all the latest events and special comedies that are really comical. Three acts of the much talked of vaudeville that the Grand is now presenting will also be down on the list of good things, and altogether the bill will be one of the best entertainments shown here for some time. This will be for to-night, Tuesday and Wednesday only.—Advt.

At Griffin's. William S. Hart, star supreme in Western dramas, will be seen at Griffin's to-day, Tuesday and Wednesday in 'Breed of Men,' a story of a land development scheme in Arizona. Mr. Hart appears as a bad man who becomes sheriff and finally roams up the individual who had swindled all kinds of people out of their money. Mr. Hart always excels in a role wherein he is seen as a daredevil of the open country and this is described as just such a part—'one with plenty of speed, red blood and that desirable quality known as "pep." Some elaborate sets were constructed for the new picture, and many of the big scenes were filmed in Chicago at the stock yards. Appearing in one of those delightful comedies in which she has won an enviable reputation, Enid Bennett, the dainty Thomas H. Ince star will also be shown in 'Happy Though Married,' during the first half of the week. This new picture is a story that turns the laugh on jealous husbands and wives and with a heavy coating of comedy slips over the advice to brides not to accept too seriously keepsakes of olden days that they may find in their husband's trunk. These two feature pictures make up the major portion of an excellent programme which should be seen by all.

At the Strand. A treat is in store for the patrons of the Strand Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, when Norma Talmadge appears in 'The Heart of Wetona,' a Select Pictures production which comes to Kingston with a splendid reputation. The play tells the story of an Indian girl whose mother was an American woman, and who has been brought up as a white girl. It is the old, old story of a girl wronged by a man, and the man in this case almost escapes punishment. The exposure comes when a feast is being celebrated in the tribe, and the chief avenges the man. The girl is doomed to be executed, and is only saved by the appearance of John Hardin, the Indian agent. He carries her off, and is suspected of being the betrayer. To protect the girl, Hardin marries her, and later on finds out the name of the man who has wronged her. He offers to divorce her if she wishes to marry the other man, but she decides that her love is all for Hardin, and the story ends with the death of the scoundrel who almost ruined her life. It is a thrilling story, and Norma Talmadge, in the part of Wetona, is at her best. The sixth episode of the Master Mystery and a Harold Lloyd comedy will also be shown, and the whole programme is on a very high standard. The management of the Strand have also secured a great drawing card in the person of Grace Lang, a talented vocalist with a great reputation. She has been secured at great expense, and will make her first appearance before a Kingston audience at the Strand to-night. She comes with splendid recommendations from the large theatres, and her singing should be very popular in Kingston. To-night she will render a very high-class programme, and her engagement should be a popular one. The management of the Strand are to be congratulated on their enterprise in engaging so talented an artiste for their local theatre, and crowded houses should be their reward.—Advt.

At the City Hall, To-night. To-night, in the City Hall, the citizens of Kingston will have the opportunity of seeing the Canadian Official War Films, and of hearing a thrilling and interesting lecture on the work and life of the Canadian corps in France, told by F. A. McKenzie, Canada's greatest war correspondent. This well-qualified lecturer, who is being brought to Kingston by the 21st Battalion chib, has spent long periods at the front since 1914, and spent most of his time with the Canadian units. Some of his most thrilling experiences were with the 21st Battalion, and he was with Lt.-Col. Elmer Jones of that unit, when he died of wounds received in going over the top with his battalion. His lecture is a wonderful combination of pathos, humour and thrills, and he should be heard by a large audience. Tickets have sold like wildfire, but there will be a number of seats on sale at the door. Admission is thirty-five cents, and a full two-hours enjoyable programme. The lecture will be illustrated, not only by the official war films, but also by a large number of stereopticon views, and F. A. McKenzie can be guaranteed to entertain his audience every minute of the evening.

Physician Taken Ill. Dr. T. C. Smith has fallen a victim to the "flu" in Elgin, Manitoba. He left Kingston a couple of months ago to take over the practice of Dr. Finley, who was attending parliament in Ottawa. Dr. Smith has been busy night and day attending those who are suffering from influenza. Over-work is the cause of his illness.

Military News

The R. C. H. A. depot at Tete de Pont-barracks is gradually being put into shape to receive the R. C. H. A. brigade from overseas, which is expected in a few weeks' time. The men who have been on the R.C.H.A. for the duration of the war and now want their discharge, are being allowed to go back to civil life, and the men who enlisted in the permanent force and are now not up to the physical requirements are being given their "ticket."

When the R. C. H. A. brigade comes back from overseas it is likely that there will have to be a sweep of many of its members. Since going overseas there has been a constant flow of C. E. F. men into the force, and now with the cessation of hostilities they will want to return to civilian employment. In their place and to take the place of the others who are due to be discharged here, there will likely be a recruiting campaign started similar to that now being waged for the P. P. C. M. I. in Ottawa.

Lieut.-Col. C. S. Long, headquarters staff, Ottawa, was in the city over the week-end visiting relatives.

B.S.M. H. Hough, who for some time has been chief clerk to Major T. A. Kidd, D.A.A. and Q.M.G., has been discharged to civil life. He enlisted for overseas, but was declared medically unfit and posted to the amoursies. His efficiency as a clerk brought him rapid promotion and he took over the work of Serjt.-Major Boss when the latter went overseas. Serjt.-Major Saunders, of the records branch, is taking over the position vacated by Serjt.-Major Hough.

Keneth Wood, son of the late Rev. W. J. Wood, pastor of the Methodist church, Pictou, and recently returned from serving overseas, is spending a short holiday at H. B. Bristol's, Pictou. The family home is now in Kingston, and Keneth has a position here. While in Pictou he was presented with an address and a handsome ring.

The troopship Carmania is due at Halifax with a small party for Kingston.

Major A. T. Ogilvie, who was district officer under the M.S.A., leaves on Tuesday for Ottawa to take over his civilian duties in the Civil Service.

AUTOMOBILE WAS STOLEN. But Later on Was Found Discarded on Penitentiary Road. People who leave their automobiles parked on Sydenham street, between Princess and Queen streets, while they are attending the theatres, had better put some person to watch their cars, otherwise they may find them missing, as did one citizen on Saturday night. When he came out of the theatre he found that some person or persons had made off with the car, and it was not found until Sunday afternoon, when it was located on the penitentiary road, where it had been left after all the gasoline had been used.
