OBITUARY

Late Pte. Charles Casselman. The death of Pte. Charles Casselman occurred at the Mowat Hospital on Sunday. He was born at Casselman, twenty-two years ago. His home was at Morrisburg.

He enlisted in the first depot battalion on September 24th, 1917, but never got overseas. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Annie Casselman, who resides at Morrisburg. The body was sent to Morrisburg at noon Monday, and interment will take place there with military honors.

The Late Samuel Kennedy. On Saturday last passed away at Peterborough, at a ripe old age, Samuel Kennedy, for many years resident of Garden Island in the employ of the Calvin Co. He was a Presbyterian in religion, a member of Cooke's church of this city. He was also a charter member of L.O.O.F. No. 1269 and of the Garden Island Lodge of Chosen Friends. Four sons and one daughter survive, Samuel, David and Margaret, Peterborough; Samuel and Robert, Montreal. His brother, David, is also living in Chicago.

Late Mrs. Charles Clark. On Sunday morning, Mrs. Charles Clark, 86 Pine street, passed peacefully away. She is survived by her husband, two sons, Robert, Kingston, and Matthew, Vancouver, B.C., and two daughters, Mrs. A. A. Godwin, Vancouver, and Miss Jessie Clark, at home; also two brothers, Robert Bateson, of Rome, and James Bateson, of Kingston, and two sisters, Mrs. H. L. Walker and Miss Margaret Bateson, Kingston. Deceased was a devoted and loving wife and mother, and possessed a very sweet sympathetic disposition which endeared her to all with whom she came in contact. She bore all her long illness with wonderful Christian patience and resignation. Mrs. Clark was a faithful member of Brock Street Methodist church.

Late Robert J. Orr. Robert J. Orr passed away at Montreal while undergoing an operation at the Royal Victoria Hospital, and the body was brought to Kingston on Monday morning. The late Mr. Orr was born in Kingston sixty-two years ago, being a son of the late Johnston Orr. He was single, and is survived by two brothers, J. Lewis Orr, of Kingston, and William Morris Orr, of Cornwall, and two sisters, Mrs. Odette, of Stratford, and Mrs. Edward Marshall, of St. John, N.B. Mr. Orr was a watchmaker by profession, but owing to the failure of his eyesight he discontinued the work some years ago and was engaged with the Angus shops in Montreal. The funeral took place to Cataract cemetery Monday, Canon W. F. Fitzgerald, of St. Paul's church officiating. Mrs. Odette, Mrs. Marshall and William Orr, of Cornwall, came to Kingston to attend the funeral.

JAMES BEWS IS TRAINER.

Queen's Athletic Committee Will Have Professional Trainer.

James Bewes, who for the last three years has been instructor in bayonet fighting and physical training, has been offered and has accepted the position of trainer by the Queen's athletic committee. The committee at a recent meeting decided to make a complete change in the method of handling the university teams, and will this year have a professional trainer and a professional coach. The selection of a coach is practically decided upon and an announcement is expected this week.

Mr. Bewes is one of the best known of local physical instructors and knows the work thoroughly, and should be a valuable man in training the rugby and hockey players of the university.

LATE SERGT. SAMUEL ARNIEL.

Funeral on Monday Afternoon Very Largely Attended.

The funeral of the late Police Sgt. Samuel Arniel took place Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, from his late home, 117 York street, to Cataract cemetery, and was very largely attended. Citizens in all walks of life attended, to pay their tribute of respect to one who had "carried on" in a most faithful manner, and who passed away while in the discharge of his duty.

Deceased was an Oddfellow and quite a large number of the members of that order marched in the cortege. A large and beautiful collection of flowers were banded around the casket. Rev. W. Taylor Dale, pastor of Cooke's Presbyterian church, conducted the service.

The pall-bearers were members of the police force, Chief Robert Nestor, Sgt. James Bateson and Constables John Naylor, Marshall Armstrong, Thomas Mullinger and James Cotter.

Among the boral tributes were the following: pillows, family, police commissioners, Wreaths, Mr. and Mrs. W. Arniel, Mr. and Mrs. W. Fitzgerald, Chief of Police and members of force, Mike Nolan, Mr. and Mrs. A. Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. John Stanbury and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Lawless, British Whig Publishing Co., Humans Society, Sprays, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sherman, Dorothy Tublock, Aunt Lizzie Arniel, Mr. and Mrs. Wehman, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Coombe, Mrs. Clements, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dillon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hefferan, Cross, Mr. and Mrs. James Ferguson (Toronto), Cycle, Mr. and C. Nichols, Plant, Mr. and Mrs. Capt. Tublock, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Arniel.

Tribute From Magistrate. The late Sgt. Arniel would in June have completed twenty-one years' service as police force.

At the session of the police court Monday morning Magistrate Farrell paid a warm tribute to the late police sergeant. He said the news of his death came as a great shock. He passed away while in the discharge of his duties.

"No man on the Kingston police force had a higher sense of his duties and responsibility," said Magistrate Farrell, and pointed out that the board of police commissioners had great respect for his work and efficiency. He never shirked any task, no matter how unpleasant it might be. He never shut his eyes to his duty, or took the easy way of getting out of doing his duty. He performed his duty, and held the respect and esteem of all the citizens, even those with whom he came in contact with, and who might be expected to hold ill-will against him.

Deceased was a member of Cooke's Presbyterian church, and in one of his sermons on Sunday the pastor, Rev. W. Taylor Dale, paid a warm tribute to the deceased.

RECOGNIZED HIS CAR. When Two Men Asked Him to Start It For Them.

About midnight on Sunday a well-known Kingstonian was stopped by two men at the corner of Clergy and Johnson streets and asked to start their car for them. He recognized the number on the car as that of his own, and when he accused the men of stealing his car they bolted. Reports from the vicinity showed that the two had evidently attempted to make away with another car from a garage in the same block, but were unsuccessful.

The Star Has Secured Exclusive Rights to Lord French's New Book LORD KITCHENER VERSUS FIELD MARSHALL FRENCH

"Lord Kitchener did not make things easy for me." That startling phrase is the keynote of one of the most interesting elements of Lord French's new book, to which the Star has secured exclusive rights.

For month, at a critical period of the war, the Great Secretary and the Commander-in-Chief in the field were at loggerheads. This was suspected, but the facts have never been told until now. The cause, the extent and the climax of this historic quarrel will be told in detail together with a lot of other secret history of the war in Lord French's Revelations, which the Star will shortly commence to publish.
