THEATRICAL.

At the Grand.
A gorgeous picturization of the Orient through which was woven a delightful story, the Arabian Nights was presented last night at the Grand when the 1919 extravaganza, "All Baba and the Forty Thieves," was given its first showing here. The story is familiar to all, but it was the stupendous production together with the remarkably clever characterizations that made this photoplay one so well worth seeing. Those who were fortunate in seeing the last William Fox masterpiece, "Jack and the Beanstalk," will find that "All Baba" outdoes even the splendor and interest of that successful wonderplay. Not only was this film on the programme but there were also many other smaller reels that deserve special mention. Several two reel dramas and a news weekly gave entire satisfaction and also comedies that were great. Chief among these was the Mutt and Jeff cartoon comedy and one of the kind that has never before been seen here. This bill will be shown again for the last time this evening.—Adv.

"The Rosary," On Wednesday.
All theatre goers are familiar with "The Rosary," a play as distinct in type and as wholesomely appealing as "Shores Across." This play, which will come to the Grand Opera House on Wednesday matinee and night, April 23rd tells the amazing, but vitally interesting story of how a watchful priest ultimately restored the happiness of a home that had been wrecked by the evil plotting of one who coveted his neighbor's wife. The priest sought revenge because his rival had won the love of the woman, to whom he had paid suit in the days when she was free to choose between them. The story moves on with great force, and shows that suspicion, which increased to what seems certainty, may wreck innocent lives. It is a story that every married man and woman should see, for it teaches a powerful lesson and brings home much needed truths.—Adv.

At The Strand.
The programme offered at the Strand Theatre to-night and on Wednesday is one of surpassing excellence. The feature picture is a thrilling spy play entitled "The Road Through the Dark," in which Clara Kimball Young plays the leading part. The story deals with the adventures of a French girl who becomes the mistress of a German prince and becomes a spy for France. Gabrielle has fallen in love with John Morgan, an American, but her father wishes her to marry a Frenchman, and sends her away from Paris to an aunt in the country in order to break up the affair. The war comes, and the village is invaded by the Germans. Gabrielle's relatives are all shot by the Hun, and she is offered shelter in the personal quarters of the commandant, Prince Karl of Stralitz. Prince Karl tells her that if she will give herself to him he will save the town from the rioters. To save her countrymen and women, she becomes the French mistress of the German prince and is scorned by the villagers, whom she has killed her soul to save. In time Karl is transferred to the Intelligence Department in Berlin. He takes Gabrielle with him, at the request. One night he gives a formal banquet. Gabrielle excuses herself and searches his room, taking away some strategic papers. Karl learns of her duplicity and in the ensuing struggle she kills him. She escapes to France, where she gives valuable information to the Allied council which is meeting there, and where she is reunited with her American lover. In addition to the feature picture the seventh episode of the Houdini serial is shown, and slow motion pictures showing the action of the heart. This is a really wonderful picture, showing the manner in which this most important organ of the body performs its functions. The usual screaming comedy completes the programme.—Adv.

At Griffin's.
A large audience attended this popular theatre last evening and were well pleased with the fine programme exhibited, which is headlined by Marguerite Clark in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." In this production Marguerite Clark portrays the role of Lovely Mary, a monitor in an orphanage in whose care is placed a child, of whose parents she is ignorant, and whom she loves as a brother. This child subsequently is the central figure of an interesting story, the development of which provokes many dramatic situations and of which Miss Clark makes the most. An exceptionally fine picture "The Girl Dodger," featuring popular Charles Ray is the added attraction of our superior programme and proved highly entertaining last evening. Mr. Ray has one of the most unusual and pleasing roles of his career in this production, and he makes the most of it. Don't fail to see this programme.—Adv.

Military News

Lieut. Fred James, of Ottawa, who returned on the SS. Olympic, went overseas with the 146th Battalion. He joined the 2nd Battalion at the front, and was in the thick of the fighting until he was wounded at Vimy Ridge. After recovering in England he returned to France as special correspondent for the Canadian War Records and London Times. Lieut. James' despatches were a feature of the war news in the latter stages of the campaign.

The body of Pte. E. F. Quing, a former member of the 15th Battalion, who died at Queen's Military Hospital on Friday, was buried Monday afternoon in Notre Dame cemetery, Ottawa, with full military honors. A military funeral was given the deceased from the residence of his brother, J. D. Quinn, 408 Rideau street.

Information from Ottawa is to the effect that Lieut.-Colonel E. C. Doan, formerly of this city, has been appointed A. D. of S. & T. on the staff of M.D. No. 6, at Halifax, N.S. Colonel Doan held this appointment at the outbreak of the recent war, and until he proceeded to France. For the past year he has filled the appointment of Chief Military Transport Officer, which has now been abolished, there being no further need of it. It is understood that Colonel Doan has already taken over the duties of his new appointment, which is counted one of the most important in Canada.

Returned members of the 2nd Battalion who need uniforms are requested to meet at the G.W.V.A. rooms this (Tuesday) evening at 8 p.m.

It is published for general information that in enlisting men in the active militia, any person who is fit for garrison duty may be taken on.

All discharge certificates must contain particulars of honors and awards during the service of the person to whom it is issued. Officers commanding units are requested to give strict attention to the matter and are referred to the casualty form for authentic information.

MARRIED.
HUDSON-WRIGHT—At Toronto, on Monday, 19th, August Wright, daughter of the late Clark W. Wright and Mrs. Wright of this city, to George A. Hudson, of Toronto.

IN MEMORIAM.
In loving memory of Garnet Aylmerworth, who was accidentally killed on April 22, 1912.
One precious to our hearts has gone;
The voice we loved is still;
The chair made vacant in our home,
Can never more be filled.

The one we loved is now laid low;
That fond true heart is still;
The hands that always helped us,
Now lie in death's cold chill.
—Mother, Brothers, Sisters.

IN MEMORIAM.
In loving memory of our dear son, Harry Stewart, who departed this life 2 years ago to-day, 1917.
We had a son and brother once,
He was our joy and pride;
We loved him perhaps too well,
For soon he slept and died.
All is dark within our dwelling,
Lonely are our hearts to-day,
For the one we loved so dearly,
Has forever passed away.
(Signed) Father, Mother and Sisters.

IN MEMORIAM.
In loving memory of Driver Stanley R. Byron, killed at Vimy Ridge, April 22nd, 1917.
In Flanders fields the poppies grow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place;
And in the sky
The birds, bravely singing fly,
Scarcely heard amidst the guns below.
We are the dead,
Short days ago we lived, felt dawn,
Saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved,
And now we lie
In Flanders fields.
—Wife and Child.

CARD OF THANKS.
