The Wonderful Barnet "Refrigerator"

We Are Demonstrating It This Week

Yesterday, Thursday, 24th inst., at 4 p.m., the Barnet Refrigerator containing fish, meat, pastry, cigars, salt, matches, onions, milk and butter was opened after being locked from Tuesday afternoon.

Satisfaction found the contents just as palatable and sweet as when they were placed in the refrigerator. The onions had not imparted the slightest odor to anything.

The Best Medicine For Little Ones

There is no medicine for little ones to equal Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative; pleasant to take; do not gripe and never fail to relieve the little one of constipation, indigestion, colic or any of the other minor ailments. Concerning them Mrs. Jos. Monzerolle, Eel River Ridge, N.B., writes: "I believe Baby's Own Tablets are the finest medicine for little ones I have ever used. From my own experience I would recommend every mother to keep a box on hand." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

At the Theatres

Coming to the Grand. William Faversham and Maxine Elliott will present R. C. Carton's sparkling comedy of "Lord and Lady Algy" at the Grand Opera House on Thursday evening, May 1st, for the one night only. Maxine Elliott returns to the local stage on this occasion after an absence of seven years, appearing as "Lady Algy," and Mr. Faversham is seen in his original role of "Algy." Others in the notable cast include Frederick Lloyd, Maud Hosford, Mary Compton, Harvey Hays, Robert Ayrton, Philip Leigh, Percy Waram, Erville Alderson, Emily Fitzroy, Herbert Belmont, Franklyn Fox and Frederick Raymond.

"Lord and Lady Algy" is a comedy in three acts. Lord and Lady Algeron Chetland, though still in love with each other, have separated, chiefly because of financial difficulties and their disagreements over race horses and cigarettes. Algy, since the separation has prospered, won a reputation for easy living, and is out of favor with his father. Algy's elder brother, supposedly a model of rectitude, is infatuated with Mrs. Tudway, and takes advantage of Algy's position to meet her at Algy's flat. Mrs. Tudway is a heartless, innocent young woman, romantic and flighty, who imagines she does not love her husband. Through a misunderstanding, Algy is accused of the flirtation, and is drawn into complications which almost wreck any possibility of a reconciliation with his wife.—Adv.

"The Better 'Ole." Announcement of the forthcoming engagement of the Boston Company in "The Better 'Ole," at the Grand Opera House on Monday and Tuesday, May 5th and 6th, with a matinee on the 5th, will be greeted by theatre-goers of this city with great expectancy. The fame of this unique play, following its New York presentation this fall, has promoted throughout the United States. It is described as "a fragrance from France in two explosions, seven splinters and a short gas attack," by Captain Bruce Bairnsfather and Captain Arthur Slight, based upon Captain Bairnsfather's inimitable war cartoons. A dozen or more catchy musical numbers by Herman Darowski and Percival Knight add to the attractiveness and charm of the production. The comedy will be presented by Mr. and Mrs. Coburn, who are appearing in it at the Court Theatre, New York with enormous success. These characters "Old Bill," "Bert" and "Alf" form the three modern musketeers of Captain Bruce Bairnsfather's famous war cartoons. "Fragments from France," upon which the play is based with a dash of pathos used here and there, these three well-called musketeers picture the lighter and more humorous side of trench life.—Adv.
