

10 Per Cent. Discount to Soldiers

THE GREY SUIT

YOU WILL WANT IS HERE

Our ambition is to provide for men and young men the very best clothes that skilled workmen are capable of making. Not just ordinary clothes that have the outward appearance of being good, but suits that both look the part and act the part in the long service and satisfaction they afford the wearer.

Suits: $20, $22.50, $25, $27.50, $30, up to $45.00.

Top Coats: $20, $22.50, $25, $30 up to $40

THE RAINCOAT

The cut and tailoring of these coats place them in line with a first class spring overcoat. See our special at $18.00.

Livingston's

If Off Your Route It Pays to Walk.

New Curtain Materials

SCRIMS, MARQUISSETTES, BUNGA-LOW NETS, SPOT MUSLINS, MADRAS, CURTAIN NET

Plain hemstitched and fancy bordered in white, cream and orb shades, suitable for any room. 25c, 30c, 35c, 40c, 50c and 60c a yard.

Fancy Art Muslins for draperies and coverings; beautiful patterns in a big variety of colors, full yard wide. At 35c, 40c, and 45c a yard.

Fancy Cretonnes, an attractive collection of handsome designs in light, medium and dark shades, including many novelties. 36 inches wide. 40c, 50c, 60c and 75c a yard.

R. Waldron

RESIGNATION IS ACCEPTED

OF REV. J. D. BOYD AS MINISTER OF ZION CHURCH.

The Congregation Wished Him to Remain and Take Six Months Rest, But Mr. Boyd Decided to Retire.

At the meeting of the Kingston Presbytery on Thursday afternoon in Convocation Hall the resignation of Rev. J. D. Boyd as pastor of Zion Presbyterian church, Kingston, was accepted. Rev. Dr. E. J. Wilson, in the absence of Rev. Mr. Macgillivray, reported that Mr. Boyd still adhered to his resignation, notwithstanding that the congregation had pressed him to withdraw and take six months' holidays. It was with great regret that the congregation and the presbytery acquiesced.

Frank Schukz was asked to speak for Zion church session, and said that the people were sorry to part with Mr. Boyd, who had begun the work at Zion twenty-nine years ago and had always worked hard for the church and the community. They had tried several times to have Mr. Boyd withdraw and take a rest until his health was better, but they had not been successful. They still had hopes that when he regained his health they would have him back again.

John Murray, who had been an elder of Zion church, also spoke in the warmest terms of Mr. Boyd's work, and the regret that the people felt over his leaving.

Prof. W. G. Jordan spoke of the fact that Mr. Boyd had been very useful in his work for the college and the alumni of Queen's had had him as secretary-treasurer for eleven years. Every member of the Presbytery appreciated his work.

Rev. Mr. Wilkins, clerk of the Presbytery, said that Mr. Boyd, besides giving the very best of service to Zion had done valuable work on the committee of the examination of students and the home mission committee.

THEATRICAL

At The Grand.

To-night will be your only chance to see the special bill at the Grand and for the feature picture will be presented "The Soul of Buddha," starring that wonderful and attractive actress, Thera Bara. This film has been the sensation of the year and none should miss its coming to the Grand, for Miss Bara is well known here, for her former successes, "Cleopatra" and "Salome," have been witnessed by all. "The Soul of Buddha" is a film of the Orient and tells a story that will interest everyone and all the scenic effects are beyond comparison as the cast gives ample scope for much splendor. For the rest of the programme there will be another one of those Sunshine comedies that made such a hit last week and also a Mutt and Jeff animated cartoon of comical nature and several other reels that will complete a bill of excellence. An act of exceptionally fine vaudeville has also been secured and altogether it will be a show well worth while for anyone desiring a pleasant evening's entertainment.—Adv.

At Griffin's.

Mysterious happenings, intrigue, spy plotting, U-boat outrages, love, war and victory—these are the ingredients of "The Lone Wolf," the new Thomas Ince Aircraft special picture, starring Henry B. Walthall, which was exhibited at Griffin's yesterday with brilliant success. The story is of too intricate a plot to admit of full details in this review. Suffice that "The Lone Wolf" no longer a criminal, but an Allied intelligence officer, is on the trail of a notorious spy named Eckstrom, who is responsible for the death of the Lone Wolf's sister and her child. He encounters the U-boat in the high seas, the boat is torpedoed by a U-boat and the Lone Wolf cast into the sea, is picked up by the submarine. He discovers the secret base of the submarines near Martha's vineyard, delivers a message entrusted to him by a mysterious and beautiful girl; gets into a net work of spy intrigue and finally succeeds in his revenge and wins the girl of his own. The submarine scenes are wonderfully done, and the whole atmosphere of mystery, tense action and suspense are evidences of the master work of Thos. H. Ince. Don't miss this picture.—Adv.

At The Strand.

A picture of arresting achievement, "Blind Man's Eyes," in which Bert Lytell is starred, was seen yesterday at the Strand Theatre, where it played to a large and appreciative audience. It will also be shown on Friday and Saturday.

This popular young actor, who has shot, meteor-like, into the zenith of fame, plays a role which brings out in a remarkable manner his unusual skill in both heavy emotional drama and light and sympathetic comedy. He is seen in the character of Hugh Overton, a man falsely accused of a crime committed by another. How this is the means of almost complete wrecking his life and of those dear to him is dramatically shown as is also his manner of unearthing and bringing to justice the real criminal. A refreshing contrast is given in the cleverly introduced sympathetic comedy which is done in the actor's happiest vein, while a heart-gripping romance leads to the climax and unusualness of the play. Among those of note in the well-chosen cast are Naomi Childers in the leading feminine character, Joseph Kilgour, Frank Currier, Milton Anderson, Richard Morris, Gertrude Claire and Morris Foster. The screen adaptation was made by June Mathis from the novel of the same name written by William McHugh and was directed by John Ince under the personal supervision of Maxwell Karger, director-general.—Adv.

(Continued on Page 5.)

Gus H.P.'s Minstrels. All the numbers, and they are all hits, from this show are now on sale at The College Book Store.

Military News

On Tuesday a pleasing event took place at the studio of J. L. Rawbon, corner of Brock and Wellington streets, when a deputation waited upon him and presented him with a handsome gold-headed cane on behalf of the officers of the R.C.H.A., C.E.F., on the occasion of his discharge from the service after three years as recorder in the Royal School of Artillery. Mr. Rawbon was in his early years a member of the Governor-General's Body Guard and when the war broke out he volunteered at once. His son, William George Rawbon, was at that time a sergeant in the R.C.H.A., Kingston, and was also a reservist. He succumbed to pneumonia in France on Feb. 14th, 1919. Mr. Rawbon wears the medals of the London Life Saving Society, and the British Royal Humane Society.

Major William Hale, M.D., of Gananoque, who returned with the 42nd Battalion as medical officer, has been appointed to the post of medical officer conducting returning soldiers across the Atlantic. He sailed from St. John Thursday on his first trip.

The troopship Baltic which is due at Halifax on Tuesday, has thirty-one officers and 635 N.C.O.s and men for this district.

The SS. Baltic, due at Halifax on May 6th, carries the 1st and 2nd batteries which will be demobilized at Ottawa.

An award of an approximate annual value of $100 has been instituted at the Royal Military College in honor and in memory of the late Capt. William Henry Victor van der Smissee, Toronto Regiment (3rd Infantry Battalion, C.E.F.), who graduated from the college in 1914, and fell in battle at Sanctuary Wood, June 13th, 1918. It is to be known as the "Victor van der Smissee Award." It will be awarded annually to the best all round gentleman cadet, morally, intellectually and physically, who graduates from the college, taking a commission in the Imperial regulars, the Indian army, the permanent force or active militia of Canada or in the permanent force of any other of His Majesty's dominions. Only cadets taking the full three-year course shall be eligible for the award.

There is a great quantity of uniforms in militia stores that accumulated prior to the order granting the uniform to the soldier on discharge, and these will be issued to the cadet corps free of charge.

Lieut.-Col. George H. Gillespie has commenced his annual inspection of high school cadets in the district. The Regiopolis College is on the list for Friday.

Two Late Musical Numbers. Red Cross Girl of Mine and Alabama Ball, now being featured by Mr. Frank Bessinger, who will sing them at The College Book Store Saturday afternoon 4.30 to 6 p.m. and 9.15 to 10 p.m.

Try Lemmon & Son's for rubber and leather belting. All sizes in stock.

Sergt. Rolph of the Canadian army was disqualified at the fifteen-pound round in a twenty-round bout for the light heavyweight championship of England.

Look at Lemmon & Son's advt. for cheap tires.

Postmaster-General Burleson has refused to consider the request of Clarence H. Mackay for immediate return of the Postal Telegraph Company's lines to private ownership.

The Camborne and Cold Springs Community Club has been organized to promote healthful, clean sports and improve the social life of the community.

See the clean sweep brooms at Lemmon & Son's.

Loose Leaf Supplies

Hanson, Crozier & Edgar PRINTERS, 20 Market St., Kingston.

DAILY MEMORANDUM

See top of page three, right hand corner, for probabilities.

Remember Tag Day in Aid of Orphan Home Saturday, May 3rd.

Luggage sale at Market Place, tomorrow afternoon. Trimmed hats a specialty.

BORN.

SMITH—In Kingston General Hospital on April 30th, 1919, to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith, (nee Muriel Frynter), a daughter.

DIED.

DALY—In Hotel Dieu, May 1st, 1919, Edmund Thomas Daly, aged 41 years, eldest son of Capt. William J. Daly, 123 Earl street, Kingston. Funeral from his late residence at 8.45 Saturday morning to St. Mary's Cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass will be sung for the happy repose of his soul.

Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the mass.

DRAPER—At her late residence, Glenburnie, on May 1st, 1919, Ann Draper, widow of the late Richard Draper in her 74th year.

Funeral will take place from her late residence, on Saturday, May 3rd, 1919, at 10.30 a.m. (now timely) to the Holy Name Church, Kingston Mills.

Friends and acquaintances are invited to attend.

TILLMAN—In Tacoma, Wash., on April 25th, 1919, Adeline Mary, eldest daughter of the late John C. Landryou, Kingston, Ont., and wife of the late Dr. H. C. Tillman, Kingston, Jamaica, B.W.I.

JAMES REID

The Old Firm of Undertakers. 254 and 255 PRINCESS STREET. Phone 147 for Ambulance.

ROBERT J. REID

The Leading Undertaker. Phone 577. 230 Princess Street

M. P. KEYES

Undertaker and Embalmer. Undertaking Parlors, 222 Princess St. Ambulance Phone 1229.

Special Offerings at Laidlaw's Saturday

50 Stunning New Suits

Offered Saturday at $30, $32, $35, $40 and on up.

Handsome Suits Made Of

Fine wool serges
Fine wool gabardines
Fine wool tricotines
Fine wool poplins.

All of the finest qualities and smartest New York styles. Only one of a kind, and only 50 suits in this lot.

Saturday, $30, $32, $35, $40 and on up.

SPLENDID OFFERINGS IN HOSE AND UNDERWEAR JUST FOR SATURDAY

Children's Cotton Ribbed Stockings

In tan and brown. Saturday 50c to 69c pair

In black and white. Saturday, 35c to 50c pair.

Women's Best Colored Lisle Hose

In many shades. Saturday, 40c to 75c pair.

Women's Good Lisle Hose In black and white. Saturday, 3 pair $1.00.

SILK STOCKINGS

In all the best makes. In 15 of the most popular shades. Saturday 75c to $1.50 pair

WOMEN'S VESTS

For spring and summer wear, in a good variety of styles and sizes. Saturday, 35c, 50c a pair and up.

John Laidlaw & Son Limited

This week we are showing: Ladies' kid Oxfords, nice soft stock; kid toecaps, military heels. A shoe that looks well and that will wear. Sizes 3 to 7 $3.75
Cheaper line at $3.50; with or without toecap.

Lockett's