THEATRICAL

At The Grand.
 The best programme of vaudeville and photoplays yet seen in Kingston has been secured for to-night, to-morrow and Saturday at the Grand Opera House. Charming Fannie Ward will play the leading role in the big seven reel feature film, "Common Clay." This picture portrays in an interesting and entertaining manner a wonderful story true to life. In the play form, "Common Clay" made a decided hit at the Republic Theatre, New York, but in the films, with the advantages of the scenery of the great outdoors and an extravagant production such only as films enjoy, this photoplay should prove a rare treat. Clever comedies, travelogues and the Universal Weekly News will complete the film programme. The best vaudeville act ever presented in Kingston will be the headline act, "The Review de Vogue," which carries ten people, special scenery and electrical effects, is claimed by its producers to be the most pretentious offering of the current season. Ella La Vall, petit aeriatist, will also be on the bill.—Advt.

At Griffin's.
 Petite, pretty and talented Shirley Mason will be seen at Griffin's to-day, Friday and Saturday in "The Winning Girl," her California made Paramount picture. Miss Mason has won the hearts of all playgoers by her wonderfully convincing work on stage and screen, and in this production she is said to have a delightful starring vehicle. The story itself, which appeared first in the Saturday evening Post, is one of those human interest tales that win by their very naturalness while the comedy characterizations and incidents with which it is garnished are excellent. Miles Welch, one of the best known young actors of the screen world, appears in support of the tiny star. He is a manly, handsome and artistic player. The other members of the cast are all well chosen. One usual added feature will also be shown in addition to the above, and an exceptionally funny "Mut and Jeff" comedy, which make this bill an all-rounder of the most pleasing to be seen anywhere.

MILITARY BASEBALL LEAGUE.
 Was Formed Wednesday Evening With Six Teams.
 The military baseball league was formed at the V.M.C.A. hall on Wednesday evening. The teams represented at the meeting were: District Depot, G.W.V.A., Army and Navy Veterans, Garrison Regiment, 21st Battalion club and Vocational school. Football will be organized at a later meeting.
 Brig-Gen. V. A. S. Williams, G.O.C., will be approached to accept the position of honorary-president of the league. The following officers were elected: President, Captain Fairful; vice-president, Major Walsh, secretary-treasurer, George Young, of the military "five"; members of the executive committee, N. J. Kaiser, Mr. Harrison, Sergt.-Major W. Hart, Corporal Jarvis, Sergt. G. Steeth and Mr. Travis.

Vocational Baseball Team.
 The organization of a baseball team from among the vocational classes was arranged on Wednesday evening. Already ten men have been selected from the material available, and the first practice will take place on Saturday afternoon. The Daughters of the Empire have supplied the team with suitable uniform. The officers of the club are: Honorary president, Prof. M. B. Baker; president, W. G. Torr; secretary, Mr. Chapman; treasurer, A. G. Strouger. Messrs. Brooks and McPherson were elected to the executive committee. A. G. Knight was appointed manager of the team. The sum of $40 has been raised toward expenses.

POLICE COURT BREVITIES.
 A Couple of Tipplers Before the Magistrate on Thursday.
 Just a little tip to the tipplers who glory in parading around the streets when under the influence. Just stay in your own house; otherwise you will land into trouble.
 A young man pleaded guilty to being intoxicated on the street, and on Thursday morning was fined $10 and costs. With whiskey at such a high price, and add to this a fine, whiskey drinking is a pretty expensive affair. But still it goes on.
 The youth sampled a bottle of liquor late Wednesday afternoon because he was not feeling well, but he took an overdose of his medicine.
 Hugh Thompson has been on remand a week on a charge of being intoxicated. He was further remanded for a day, as there is a witness to be heard for the defence.

LIABLE TO PROSECUTION.
Unmarried Man and Woman Register As Married.
 Ottawa, May 8.—The Commons yesterday took up consideration of a bill to amend the Criminal Code in respect to sexual offences. The bill is the same as one which passed the House last session, but failed to pass the Senate.
 Mr. Nickle, of Kingston, objected to a clause which makes liable to prosecution an unmarried man and woman who register at a hotel as man and wife. Mr. Nickle, while recognizing the purpose of the clause, thought that in its present form it might cause injustice. He moved an amendment that "No persons who have been openly living together as husband and wife shall be liable to an offence under this section."
 The amendment was defeated.

Widow of Slain Premier Arrested.
 Munich, May 8.—It is announced officially that the damage done in Munich incident to the Communist regime and its overthrow amounts to 250,000,000 marks.
 Frau Eisner, widow of the late Premier, has been arrested by the Government forces.

Military News

The SS. Baltic party left Halifax on C.N.R. special on Wednesday at 12.10 p.m. Most of these soldiers are for Ottawa, though some will be coming to Kingston.

The hospital ship Essequibo is due at Portland on May 20th with thirty-seven patients for Kingston. There are three nursing sisters and two amputation cases in the party.

The Siberian party, which is due in Kingston the first of the week, is composed of seventy-eight N.C.O.'s and men for this city.

The SS. Baltic, which arrived at Halifax on Tuesday, had soldiers for Kingston district on board. They are now travelling by special train for the city and should arrive about Friday. The list is: J. Bouton; R. Bradford, 406 Barrie street; F. C. Woodcock, 124 Ordnance street; N. J. Joyce, 42 Charles street; S. A. Knox, Lower Station, Kingston; R. D. C. Gerra, Elm street; G. V. ONTARIO LABOR MINISTER.

Two of Those Offered Portfolio Refuse.
 Toronto, May 8.—Mayor McBride, of Brantford, according to local labor leaders, was the first of the Ontario labor men to be approached by the Ontario Government with a view to the acceptance of the portfolio of labor minister. Others who have been suggested by the Government include Fred Bancroft and R. J. Stevenson, of Toronto. Mayor McBride and Mr. Bancroft have rejected the Government proposal, it is said.
