

Hawker Probably Lost; Winnipeg Strike May End

HAWKER'S FATE YET UNKNOWN

British Admiralty Thinks He Came to Grief Soon After Starting.

WOULD HAVE SAID FAREWELL BEFORE GETTING OUT OF RANGE IF ABLE.

The Government Criticized For Omitting to Provide Means For Assisting Hawker in His Flight Across the Atlantic.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) London, May 20.—All reports that Aviator Harry Hawker and Lieut. MacKenzie Grieve have been sighted off the coast of Ireland, or that their airplane in which they made an attempt to fly across the Atlantic has fallen into the sea off the estuary of the river Shannon, are unconfirmed this morning. The only exact news received here from the daring fliers is that they left St. John's on Sunday. In view of the Admiralty's statement that the reports current yesterday afternoon and last night were unreliable, and because of the obscurity surrounding the source of those reports, they are now regarded as negligible.

The opinion held in Admiralty circles is that Hawker came to grief soon after he started. It is pointed out that the aviator almost certainly would have sent a farewell message before getting out of radio range, had an accident not befallen him in the meantime.

In the House of Commons last night Josiah C. Wedgwood and other members severely criticized the government for omitting to provide means for assisting Hawker in his flight across the Atlantic. Capt. Elliott declared the country would hold that the government had been lamely and despatchedly careless of the honor of the country and the life of a gallant gentleman.

Another Flight to Come. (Canadian Press Despatch.) St. John's, Nfld., May 20.—With the result of Hawker's endeavors in doubt plans for another race began to develop to-day similar to that for which Hawker and Frederick P. Raynham were lined up here longer than a month. Alcott and Brown of the Vimy bombing plane, which is due to arrive here to-morrow, announce that this flight for Ireland would be undertaken with the coming of the next full moon. Alcott to-day wired to Vice-Admiral Kerr at Harbor Grace for permission to use the flying field of the Handley Page plane now assembling there for a "take off."

Alcott said he would fly from St. John's to Harbor Grace and there would start with a full load on his trans-Atlantic journey. The Handley Page will be ready at the same time in the opinion of the aviator.
