The Salada Tea Company,
TORONTO

Gentlemen:

Permit me to express my appreciation of your product. Since beginning my Canadian tour in "TEA FOR THREE" I have discovered that after a fatiguing day, a cup of tea refreshes and stimulates me delightfully. But until I tried SALADA, I feel I never really knew tea. Its fragrance is delicious and its effect most beneficial.

Cordially,

Elsa Ryan

The foregoing letter is only another illustration of public appreciation of the exquisite quality of "SALADA TEA". Miss Ryan not only prefers SALADA in private life but has chosen it for exclusive use at every performance of "Tea for Three".

At the Theatres

scenes between himself and his wife. Anita Stewart makes a splendid social butterfly, and she made a decided hit with the large audience last night. Mrs. De Wolf Hopper, as Irma Dellabarre, a well-known society leader, Edwin Deden as Maurice Dellabarre her husband, and William Boyd as Monte Bracken, the smooth tongued villain of the piece all deserve special mention. The cast is one seldom seen together in one production. A specially augmented orchestra has been arranged for the term of this feature, and it rendered splendid music, including the famous William Tell overture. This picture and programme will be repeated to-night and on Wednesday.—Adv.

At Griffin's.
The large audience attending this theatre last evening were thrilled and delighted to the utmost degree upon witnessing the super-production "The Unpardonable Sin" which opened a three day engagement at Griffin's yesterday, coming direct from the big Allen theatre, Toronto, where it was shown to crowded houses for two weeks, and still hundreds could not gain admission. That this picture more than does justice to the lavish praise expressed wherever shown before, was the opinion of the Kingston public last night, who had the pleasure of seeing it in no sense in "The Unpardonable Sin" a preachment. It is an absorbing tale of love and adventure, with incidents of the world war as a background. The titles for the big production are a clever combination of the clear, straightforward statements which help the action of the story and foreshadow from the writings of Nietzsche, the mad European philosopher, whose doctrines are said to have largely contributed to the horrors of the recent conflagration on the other side of the Atlantic. The acting of Miss Blanche Sweet is superb in the two strongly contrasted roles of the defiant and unquarrelable resolute Dinny and her crushed and broken sister Alice. The multitudes of other actors have been selected and handled with a mastery, while the photography is extraordinarily beautiful. "The Unpardonable Sin" will be shown again this evening and to-morrow, and in no other play-house in Kingston, this season.—Adv.

AN EXCELLENT CONCERT.

Given By Artists in Y.M.C.A. Hall Monday Evening.

A select and appreciative audience greatly enjoyed the concert given in the Y.M.C.A. hall Monday evening under the auspices of the "Ever Ready Class" of the First Baptist Sunday school. Every member of the company was an artist, and every number on the programme a gem.

Mr. Mitchell, the blind pianist, not only proved his ability to interpret the compositions of the best masters, but gained heartiest applause when playing his own melodious productions.

Miss Horsman, the gifted elocutionist, moved her audience to laughter and tears, by her presentation of humorous and dramatic numbers, showing herself to be most at home and proficient in every department of her art.

Mrs. Brathwaite, the soloist of the company, was most gracious in her response to the hearty encores, which evidenced her great popularity with her discriminating hearers.

Mrs. Corda Ward Buchner, played a wonderful old violin, in a wonderful manner, thrilling every hearer by her skillful and marvelous mastery of the most difficult compositions of the greatest composers.

The work of Miss Lenora Coughlin, the talented accompanist, was a treat in itself, and lent much to the enjoyment of the audience, and the success of the other artists.

During the evening the young ladies of the "Sunshine Class" sold home-made candy, daintily prepared, and eagerly purchased.

The proceeds of the concert are to be applied to the purchase of a new modern lantern for the use of the Sunday school and church. The young men of the "Ever Ready Class" are to be congratulated on their enterprise in bringing such a splendid high class entertainment to the city.

"JIMMY" GARRIGAN HOME.

A Former Whig Employee Had Long Service Overseas.

Another former Whig employee, in the person of "Jimmy" Garrigan, has returned home, after a long service overseas. "Jimmy" was employed in the job department at the Whig, and has a wide circle of friends, all of whom were glad to see him back again. Outside of a touch of gas, which he is trying to shake off, "Jimmy" feels and looks fine. He was laid up in hospital for three months, suffering from gas. He was also wounded in the ankle.

Mr. Garrigan went overseas in October, 1915, with the 8th C.M.R., and in December, 1915, was transferred to the corps machine gun section and went through all the heavy fighting.

The remains of the late Joseph Glark, who passed away in Winnipeg, arrived in the city on Monday night for burial in Cataract cemetery.

C. A. Magrath, formerly dominion fuel controller, and now on the International Waterways Commission, was in the city over night on Monday.

In Toronto efforts are being made to prevent a general strike. Conferences were held all day.

TRAVELS 500 MILES ON SURFACE OF SEA

NC-3 Is Safe at Azores—Commander Towers "Taxies" to Land.

Washington, May 20.—After weathering a sixty-mile gale and heavy seas, the missing seaplane NC-3, flagship of the American naval trans-Atlantic flight squadron, entered Ponta Delgada harbor yesterday, under her own power nearly sixty hours from the time she was forced down by fog when almost in sight of the Azores on the record-breaking flight from Newfoundland for Lisbon and Plymouth, England.

Searching battleships and destroyers were scouring the seas and naval officials had all but abandoned hope for the safety of the flying ship and her crew of five, when warships at Ponta Delgada saw the plane "taxiing" across the water, headed for the right objective in the Azores.

Rear Admiral Jackson immediately dispatched the tidings to the Navy Department by cable, and ending the long vigil Mrs. Towers had kept since first news came last Saturday morning that her husband's plane had been lost in the fog 300 miles from the Azores.

Commander Towers after having been forced to alight on the water by fog, was driven northward and eastward by the storm until he was able to taxi his craft to safety on the surface, probably 500 miles from the point where the fog forced him down within a short distance of the "land fall" at the Azores.

With the NC-3 making Ponta Delgada under her own power officials expressed belief that the big seaplane could be put into condition to continue the flight to Lisbon and Plymouth with the NC-4.

CHILD WITH MATCHES STARTED A FIRE

The Neighbors Rushed In and Carried Out a Blazing Couch.

A child playing with matches was responsible for a fire in the home of Charles Sturman, 13 Corrigan street, at 8:59 o'clock on Monday night. While the mother was away, the little tot got possession of some matches, and set fire to a couch. The mother noticed the fire just as she was returning home, and gave the alarm, and some neighbors rushed into the house and extinguished the fire and put the couch out in the yard. The damage will amount to about $15 to contents, and there is no insurance. The house is owned by Mrs. M. Hyslop.

Charles Ryan, formerly with the Robert Mantell Co., and now electrical inspector in the Chicago Bell Telephone offices, is spending a short vacation in the city.
