HAD GOOD POINTS
 Hot-Tempered Woman Evidently Not Altogether Bad.
 Surely No High-Priced Lawyer Could Have Surpassed Pathetic Plea of Husband Which Won Her Her Liberty.
 There was a negro family living in Bowling Green, Ky. The wife had a notoriously unmanageable temper, usually taking it out on her husband, who was meek and lowly. On this occasion she struck him with a skillet, inflicting a wound so painful and dangerous as to necessitate his having to be taken to the hospital for treatment. The neighbors, knowing the violent temper of the wife, and the cruel treatment she had inflicted upon her husband for such a long time, were so outraged they could endure it no longer, and procured a warrant for her arrest on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon.
 The husband sat through the trial, giving rapt attention to its every detail. The case was handed over to the jury and after very brief deliberation it brought in a verdict of guilty.
 The old darkey husband rose and said:
 "Marse Judge, I don't reckon nothing a ole nigger could say would make much diffence, but I would lak to say a word before you send the 'old man' to the penitentiary. She's always been a good mother to the chillun, all the neighbors will tell you that. She washes and scrubs add sews and mends for 'em, and keeps 'em clean and nice, an when they's sick she sits up with 'em at night. And, Marse Judge, I jest want to ax you if you won't let her go by the house and see the chillun befo' you send her to the penitentiary. They's at home all alone right now, cryin' they po little hearts out and it would 'em good, and the ole 'oman, too, if she could just go and kiss 'em good-by befo' she was put in the penitentiary."
 By this time the judge and the spectators were in tears and the judge said: "Gentlemen of the Jury, I haven't passed sentence yet and if you want a few minutes to further consider this case, I will be glad to grant it." The jury retired and in a few minutes returned with a verdict of "not guilty."

Sailor Values Charm.
 The king and queen recently received at Windsor castle the Austrian, New Zealand and South African press delegates now on a visit to Great Britain. His majesty spoke warmly of the gallantry of the Dominion troops, and exchanged recollections of his empire tour of 1901. When Mr. Pirani of New Zealand mentioned the name of Magpie Papakura, the Maori guide who conducted the king round the hot springs wonderland of Rotorua, the king recalled her at once, and was interested to learn that she is now in England. The New Zealand delegates found that Princess Mary knew all about the pre-war Maori prophecy concerning the battle-cruiser New Zealand—that she would go into action within a given number of years and would be hit but escape serious damage if her captain wore a Maori tiki (greenstone charm). The first part of the prophecy came true, and so up to date has the second. The captain does not forget to wear his tiki.

Passed by Sentry.
 A colonel of a colored regiment coming in about 10:30 was duly challenged by the sentry, and responded: "Colonel — officer of the camp." The sentry tried his best to pierce the darkness, gave it up, and finally said:
 "Look 'eah, man, yo-all ah de foth man what's done tried to make me think he's Cunnel — Go way wid dat stuff."
 The colonel pretty warmly reaffirmed that he was Colonel — and demanded immediate admission. The guard, unabashed, told him to step up so that he could see him. The colonel walked up to him in a rage, and you can imagine his consternation when the sentry took hold of the silver eagle on his shoulder, looked up at him with a grin on his face and said:
 "Oh, Lawdy! 'Tis de ole bird, ain't it?"—The Bayonet.

"Flu" Marketing.
 Marie, who was three Thanksgiving, was out trying her new mask.
 Passing a grocery, she decided to buy some bananas. Mother, not having worn her "flu" protector, sent Marie in to make the purchase. Mother saw the grocer pulling off tons of bananas, it seemed. At length, when there was nothing left but the stalks, Marie handed the grocer her little pocketbook containing one solitary dime. "How many bananas did your little girl want?" asked the grocer as he came to the door. "Ten-cents' worth," replied mother. "She told me she wanted a peck," said the grocer.

Cecil Rhodes' Dream Realized.
 The early completion of a tunnel under the Straits of Gibraltar, which, in connection with the tunnel from Dover to Calais, will practically complete an all-rail connection between Cape Town and London, will more than realize the dream of Cecil Rhodes of a Cap-to-Cairo railroad. The necessary links along the Barbary coast will be simple matters when the intervening waters have been spanned. England is taking hold of the Gibraltar tunnel in a way that means the success of that gigantic enterprise.

COLD AIDS EXPLORERS.
 Vilhjalmur Stefansson Explains the Reason.
 One of the curious errors about the north that are prevalent among those few who have any ideas about the north at all, writes Vilhjalmur Stefansson in Harper's Magazine, that cold is the chief enemy we have to fight beyond the Arctic Circle. I am sure that all those who have traveled extensively on the moving polar ice would agree with me that the cold is our best friend. For that reason February is a better month than March for sledge travel, and January would be as good as February were it not for the fact that it is then too dark for safe working among broken ice, where waterholes are a danger everywhere. In April, when the temperature seldom goes lower than 30 degrees below zero for a night, if a gale breaks up the ice, as often happens, forming open leads that crisscross each other in all directions, it takes several days for the frost to cement the broken places and to pass ice over the lanes, which are impassable moats while they remain unfrozen, but which become smooth boulevards when covered by six inches of young ice. In February, when the temperature is seldom above -30 degrees and frequently goes down to -50 degrees, the same lanes would freeze over in a night, saving many a tedious day.
 It was therefore heart-breaking to lose by the delays in outfitting, as it proved, the whole month of March, for, although we were ready to start on the 22nd, a gale which had just swept the country had broken up all the ice to eastward, and seven miles from land we were stopped by impassable open water. We had then an extraordinary spell of warm weather, about two months ahead of its time, when for a week or 10 days the temperature seldom dropped to zero and occasionally went as high as 25 degrees above.
 With regular March temperature -30 degrees, the gale would have delayed us only two or three days.

Aircraft for Surveys.
 Among the peace time possibilities of aircraft are forest fire patrol and aerial photography. It is now expected that fire patrols by flying boats will be established during the current year by the British Columbia Forest Branch and by one or more of the forest protective associations of Quebec, assisted by the Quebec Government. The St. Maurice Forest Protective Association is the leader in this respect in the east, as the British Columbia Forest Branch has proved in the west. It is believed that there are large possibilities also in connection with aerial fire patrol on Dominion lands in the west, through the Dominion Forestry and Parks Branches. Many men, whose experience in aviation overseas should qualify them to express thoroughly practical opinions, state that, beyond question, these things are eminently feasible.
 Similarly, there is undoubtedly a large field for developments along the line of actual photography, both in conjunction with forest protection and independently. The recent address of Col. Gill before the Geodetic Society of Ottawa showed some of the possibilities of aircraft in furthering the line of work with which the Geodetic Survey is partially concerned.

Not a Swimmer.
 The orderly officer was on his usual round. "Any complaints?" His voice sounded above the din of knives and forks.
 "Yes, sir," answered a healthy looking representative of the Tommy Atkins' tribe. "This 'ere hinking joint's raw!"
 "Look here, my man," said the officer, after due examination, which proved this complaint to be justified.
 "Do you know that Capt. Webb trained on raw beef in order to swim the channel?"
 "Oh," said Tommy Atkins, "I thought as 'ow we was goin' across in boats!"

Kept Guns Going All Night.
 A recent report of Gen. Ironside, commanding the Allied troops at Archangel, pays a tribute to the heroism of a Canadian artillery lieutenant.
 In support of the Allies were some Russian troops, and they broke and left his battery without infantry defence. Retreat was cut off, but the lieutenant kept his battery going and fought the Bolsheviks all night, and finally withdrew his guns without losing one. Gen. Ironside has recommended him for decoration and promotion. Canadians there have absolute confidence in Gen. Ironside, and this has relieved anxiety regarding Canadian troops at Archangel.

HOME-MADE BREAD
 Home bread-making reduces the high cost of living by lessening the amount of expensive meats required to supply the necessary nourishment to the body.
 The increased nutritious value of bread made in the home with ROYAL YEAST CAKES should be sufficient incentive to the thoughtful housewife to give this important food item the attention to which it is justly entitled. Bread made with Royal Yeast will keep fresh and moist longer than that made with any other.

THIS TREE LIKE A SHIP.
 Regular Growth in a Garden in Japan Eight Centuries Old.
 What has been called Japan's most peculiar tree is the so-called boat tree at Kyoto. It is a very ancient pine tree, which grows in the garden of a temple. For more than eight centuries it has been trained to grow in a most remarkable shape, lower branches extending along the ground, then curving up in such a way as to suggest the shape of a boat; while the tree itself rises from the centre, recalling the position of the mast. Needless to say, the Japanese have legends which they connect with this curious pine tree.

Cat Kills 1,033 Rats.
 In seven years a cat at Messrs.
 Robey and Co's engineering works, Lincoln, killed 1,033 rats, according to the record compiled of her weekly captures, but in attacking the 1,034th rodent she was severely bitten and blood-poisoning caused her death.

 without expressing them is the worst kind of a pessimist.

Was Troubled With BOILS For Six Months From the days of Job to the present time, boils have been one of the greatest afflictions of the human race.
 Very few people escape from having them at some time.
 All the poulticing and lancing you may do won't cure them and stop more coming.
 Boils are caused by bad blood bursting out, and the bad blood must be made pure before the boils will disappear.
 Burdock Blood Bitters is the greatest blood purifier known. It cleanses the system, and purifies the blood by removing every particle of foul matter from the system, and when this is done, never another boil comes and health and strength are permanently restored.
 Mr. C. H. Bridges, 470 Barton St., E. Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled with boils for about six months and tried several remedies without any relief until I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, and the effect has been wonderful. After using two bottles, I was rid of them all. I feel like a new man; my appetite is better, and I sleep better than I have for years. I can highly recommend B.
 B. B. to all who are troubled as I was."
