A CREDIT TO THE COUNTY

THAT THERE WERE BUT THREE CRIMINAL CASES ON DOCKET.

Judge Madden Makes Timely Reference at Opening of the June Sessions of the Peace—Good Showing in View of World-wide Unrest.

The fact that there were just three cases on the criminal calendar at the June sessions of the county court, which opened on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, led Judge Madden, who presided, to congratulate the city and county. "This is not too bad a bill-of-fare," said His Honor, "and it is not surprising when one thinks of the strain the people have been under the past four or five years with such world-wide unrest and discontent, especially among the laboring classes. The bill-of-fare in view of all this is credit to the city and county. Sometimes you will find people who are disposed to despair on the condition of affairs. There are just three criminal cases, and none of them of a serious nature. Two are for theft and one for receiving stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen."

The first case taken up was that of the non-jury case of J. C. Swain vs. George Swain. In this case the plaintiff's claim was for $612, rent of a farm and price of chattels not returned.

The defendant in the case is a son of the plaintiff. Close on to three hours were taken up in the hearing of the case, and proved to be what His Honor referred to as a "family row," and added, "It is still on." After hearing all the evidence the court returned judgment for the defendant without costs. His Honor thought that each side should be called upon to pay its own costs.

The plaintiff in the case rented his farm in Kingston township, as he could not make much on it, to his son, and claimed that there was stock and rent due him to the amount mentioned.

C. R. Webster appeared as counsel for the plaintiff, while A. B. Cunningham conducted the case for the defendant.

The grand jury brought in true bills in the case of William Turkington, charged with theft, and Edward McLaughlin, charged with receiving stolen goods.

The grand jury is composed of the following: Armos, Boutillier (foreman) Samuel Alexander, T. F. Auld, Edwin Bell, Edward Brind, Chas. Diamond, John Coleough, W. E. Cordukes, James Foxton, William McInnon, Gordon Rutledge, and Norman Abernethy.

The second case taken up was that of Alexander Redmond vs. the International Harvester Company of Canada, Ltd. Plaintiff put in a claim for the sum of $319 for an ensilage cutter purchased from the defendants, and which the plaintiff claimed proved useless. W. B. Carroll K.C., of Gananoque, appeared on behalf of the prosecution, and C. H. Webster for the defendants.

Plaintiff claimed that the cutter would not work, and wanted to get his money back. Witnesses for the company stated that they sent a man to see the cutter and put it in proper shape but that Redmond refused to allow the company to make the necessary repairs, and claim the right to make the cutter all right. A night session was held in order to dispose of the case and after hearing the evidence Judge Madden reserved judgment. Redmond lives at Brewer's Mills.

It Helps Others Will Help Me

It Helps Others—Will Help Me... With This Relief Many Thousands Have Learned the Exceptional Value of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

You hear people talking about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. You read about it in the newspapers. You wonder if it would benefit you. And while you are hesitating others are using it to great advantage.

This treatment for the restoration of the blood and nerves is so different to most medicines that you may not realize why you can be so certain of benefit from its use.

In order to maintain the vigor of the nervous system an abundance of pure, rich blood is necessary. When the nervous system becomes exhausted and you are easily tired and suffer from headaches, sleeplessness, irritability or indigestion, it is because the blood is failing to supply proper nutrition to the nervous system.

By securing new, rich blood, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food naturally and certainly restores the vigor of the nerves. Since it works hand-in-hand with nature, it cannot fail to be of benefit, and there is no reason why it will not help you just as it has the writer of this letter.

Mrs. Stephen G. Thwaites, Box 205, Jordan, Ont., writes: "For about a year I was troubled with nervousness, and took doctors' medicine, but it did not seem to relieve me. I could not sleep nor content myself to do anything. I had severe headaches, was tired all the time, and afraid to stay alone. I also tried several nerve medicines until almost discouraged. At last I discovered Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and found relief in this. I had only taken one box when I began to feel better. I continued using this treatment until my nerves were restored to perfect health. I think the Nerve Food splendid for nervous troubles of any kind, and cannot recommend it too highly."

(Rev. S. F. Coffman, Vineland, Ont., states: "This is to certify that I know Mrs. Thwaites, and her statements are correct.")

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents per box, a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.75, at all dealers, or Edman-son, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.

MARRIED AT CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

Geoffrey O'Hara and Miss Dougherty Pledge Troth.

A wedding in which Kingstonsians will all be interested is that of Miss Constance Margaret Dougherty to Geoffrey O'Hara, son of the late Robert O'Hara and Mrs. O'Hara, Kingston, which took place in the First Congregational church, Cambridge, Mass., on Saturday, June 7th. The bride, who is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. M. Angelo Dougherty, Cambridge, wore a gown of white satin with overdress of beautiful old lace. A coronet of orange blossoms rested on her dark hair, and held in place by wedding veil of white silk net. A shower bouquet of white roses was carried, and a very lovely bride was Mr. O'Hara's. The two attendants were her sisters, Miss Ethel Ward Dougherty and Mrs. H. Bertram Potter, gowned alike in lavender, with large picture hats of the same shade, and carried bouquets of white rose buds. The two flower bearers were a niece and nephew of the bride, Miss Barbara Potter and Master Jackson Howe, both in white frock and white hat and carried a basket filled with pink rose buds and baby's breath, while the latter made a quaint page in black velvet. Mr. O'Hara's best man was his brother, Francis French O'Hara, of Ottawa, while the ushers were H. Bertram Potter, Dr. Roger B. Tat, Proctor L. Dougherty, J. Hampton Dougherty and Arthur Craig, of Kingston.

The church was artistically decorated with palms and before the service the organist played most beautifully. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, Rev. Angelo Dougherty, assisted by the pastor of the church, Rev. Raymond Galtman, D.D.

A reception was held afterwards at the home of Charles U. Cogswell and his sister, Miss Margaret Cogswell.

The honeymoon is being spent in New York and Quebec, and Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey O'Hara will spend the summer in Collins Bay. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Robert O'Hara (the groom's mother), Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Craig and the Ven. Archdeacon Ogilvie Dobbs.

HOW TO MAKE YOUR HAIR BEAUTIFUL

Ten Minutes' Home Treatment Works Wonders! Stops Falling Hair and Dandruff and Makes Hair Soft, Brilliant, Lustrous and Fluffy.

Better than all the so-called "hair tonics" in the world is a simple, old-fashioned home recipe consisting of plain Bay Rum, Lavona (de Compose) and a little Menthol Crystals. These three mixed at home in a few minutes, work wonders with any scalp. Try it just one night and see. Get from your druggist 2 oz. Lavona, 6 oz. Bay Rum and 1/2 drachm Menthol Crystals. Dissolve the Crystals in the Bay Rum and pour in 8 oz. bottle. Then add the Lavona, shake well and let it stand for an hour before using. Apply it by putting a little of the mixture on a wet cloth. Draw this cloth slowly through the hair, taking just one small strand at a time. This cleanses the hair and scalp of dirt, dust and excessive oil and makes the hair delightfully soft, lustrous and fluffy.

To stop the hair from falling and to make it grow again rub the lotion briskly into the scalp with the finger tips or a medium stiff brush. Apply night and morning. A few days' use and you will not find a single loose or straggling hair. They will be locked on your heads tight as a vise. Dandruff will disappear. You will find fine downy new hairs sprouting up all over your scalp and this new hair will grow with wonderful rapidity.

Any druggist can sell you the above. The prescription is very inexpensive and we know of nothing so effective and certain in its results.
