MATE O' MINE.

Member the days old mate o' mine In the land o' long ago When Sunset Channel stained the wine

Of mate of the Woods aglow? Faintly over the years, sweet With the ring of muffled rhyme, The mellow bells of memory beat Over the hills of time.

Member the schoolhouse, mate o' mine, The bundle in the dusty road, "Pickles and Prunes" n' "Tinker-shine," N' "Wigles" n' "Warts" n' "Toad" n'

All of the gang but me n' you— The mate of mine n' mine— Sleep where the British bugles blew Over the riven hills.

Honest to criss-cross, mate o' mine, But wouldn't you give it quick— Factories, mills, and belts of pine For a "belly splash" in the creek? Just for an hour to feel the tang.

A certain woman says that her husband is so fond of an argument that he won't eat anything that will agree with him.
