THEATRICAL

At the Grand. For to-night, tomorrow and Saturday a special hot-weather attraction of high-class photoplays and vaudeville has been secured for the Grand Opera House. The five reel feature for these days will be "The Savage Woman," in which Clara Kimball Young and her own company will appear. In this picture the Select Pictures Corporation has furnished a role for the beautiful and versatile young actress, vastly different from the frequently chosen society plays. "The Savage Woman" contains many elaborately produced scenes, costly and marvelously staged. A Charlie Chaplin comedy, the Pathe News and other films will be shown. Three acts of big time vaudeville include Frank Morrell & Co. in a singing and talking act of merit, Harry & Etta Conley in a comedy skit entitled "At the Cross Roads," and Smith and Troy in a musical act of piano and songs called "A Breeze from the Philippines."—Adv.

At Griffin's. Salutary lessons to young brides who think themselves neglected by their hard working husbands, and who engage in more or less harmless flirtations with other men, are embraced in the development of the story, "Let's Elope," the new starring vehicle of Marguerite Clark, which will be presented at Griffin's today, Friday and Saturday. The theme is a fascinating one and its treatment by producer and star has been guided by delicacy and taste with superb effect. Miss Clark wears several stunning gowns in this picture, all of which will interest her women admirers. Baby Marie Osborne, known to millions of children as "Little Mary Sunshine," will also be shown in her latest Pathe feature, "Dolly's Vacation," wherein Baby Marie and her little colored playmate, Sambo, conjure up dreams of spooks and Indians and horrid big beasts when they are lost in the woods. But she brings "Mummy" and "Daddy" together again, stops the strike at the factory and causes everything to end happily. This is a delightful comedy drama in five amusing parts. Don't miss this programme.—Adv.

At the Strand. May Allison, the beautiful young Metro star, of "Castles in the Air," at the Strand theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, has acquired new laurels, and is now considered the cleverest comedienne of the screen. After a brilliant career on the stage the screen claimed the attention of the rising young star and she became associated with the famous players and was later starred by the American-Metro. Here she met Harold Lockwood and long after joined the Metro forces. For some time Miss Allison and Mr. Lockwood were co-starred and then each became an individual star. Miss Allison has attained the heights of fame in such plays as "The Island of Intrigue," "Peggy Does Her Darndest," "In For Thirty Days," "Her Inspiration" and many others. "Castles in the Air" was adapted from the clever story by Kate Jordan, published in the Saturday Evening Post, and is a rare combination of humor and heart-appeal.—Adv.

Hurrying to Kingston. Toronto Globe. Humphrey Gilbert Allan Graydon and C. Crane, Ottawa, who have been staying with Mayor Church, all went down to Kingston, this week to be ready for the R.M.C. ball on Friday. From present appearances it will be a case of "on the outside, looking in," for many guests, as there are more than three hundred ex-cadets, returned men, to be there—one entire building at the college having been given over to them as sleeping quarters—and girls from far and near, with their chaperones, are even now hastening to Kingston as fast as rails can carry them.

The local representative of the Military "Y" states that it is not possible to give the soldier patients in Kingston hospital automobile and motor boat trips because the money is not available, as only half of the objective was raised at the last campaign for funds. He thinks that the people of Kingston who have cars should put them at the disposal of the soldiers and he will be glad to arrange the trips along with Capt. McNabb, hospital chaplain. George Young, the secretary, took a party to Kingston Mills on Wednesday and the men appreciated the trip very much. They prefer going in groups.
