Death of Zeeland Lady. Zeeland, June 30.—They passed to rest on Sunday morning, June 22nd, at 12.30 o'clock, Mrs. Charles Sterling, late of Spokane, Wash., at St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, Brockville. About two years ago she was run down by a motorcycle, had an arm fractured and received other injuries which confined her for eight weeks in hospital. She came east and visited her friends at her childhood home and apparently recovered her health. She went to Toronto and taught the flu, which was raging at that time. Cancer of the stomach developed. She lived for three weeks, gradually getting weaker. She was sixty-four years of age. Her maiden name was Matilda Garrett, being the third daughter of the late George and Mary Garrett, of Zeeland. Twenty years of her life were spent in Perth. She leaves three brothers and two sisters, John and Thomas, of Zeeland; George, of Sharbot Lake; Mrs. Ellen Gould, Zeeland, and Mrs. Annie Wardrobe, Nanton, Alta. The pallbearers were her six nephews, W. H. Garrett, W. H. Garrett, Pte. Ralph Garfield Garrett, Thomas H. Garrett, George Harris Garrett, and George Gould. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Ivor Curry Mills, at her brother John's residence, Maple Shade cottage. The cortege proceeded to Cedar cemetery and the remains were placed beside those of her father and sister.

Chaucery Ashley, a well-known insurance agent of Belleville and victim of paralytic stroke and his condition is serious.

LADY FELL DOWN STAIRS

Accident At Phillipville.—Much Lead Not Collected. Phillipville, June 30.—Mrs. M. Seed, Toronto, is visiting her parents, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm, D. Fairgair, Ottawa, spent the week-end with his sister, Miss Algire, who is ill. Mrs. John Hill is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. Downey, Mrs. L. Blouck, Brockville, spent the past week visiting relatives here. Mrs. Pope is visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. Webster, Mrs. R. Haskin and Mrs. Elliott, who were taken suddenly ill last week, are better.

Mrs. Doherty met with a very painful accident on Saturday night. She was out for a walk and, by mistake, opened the door leading to the stairway and fell to the bottom. Besides being badly bruised she sustained a bad cut over the right eye, which required several stitches to close. Miss V. Davison spent last Saturday in town. J. W. Halladay motored to Kingston on Thursday last. On the 25th inst. a large number of ladies attended the special session of the Women's Institute addressed by the Government representative, Mrs. Patterson. The subject "The Importance and Meaning of Woman's Work" was very ably handled by the speaker.

The members of the Women's Missionary Society of this place are being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Grenham, Lyndhurst this evening. Robert Greenham has purchased from Mr. Ralph the parcel of land they were in dispute, lying between the two Davison farms. Several farmers near here have purchased tractors. Lillie Gile, Harlem, has the services of Mr. Patmore's tractor for ploughing purposes. A great deal of land in this township is not under cultivation as all the farmers here are not able to get it in the spring and now harvesting is about to begin so it cannot even be ploughed.

CHARLESTON MAN WRITES

About Conditions in France.—Danger From Ammunition on Ground. Charleston, June 30.—Among the recent guests at Postar's hotel were: E. Mack, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. J. Grigg; Mr. and Mrs. F. Cole, New Brunswick; N. J. Huggin, Andover; L. Shookmaker, M. Walters, Englewood, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. Doolittle, New York City; Dr. Scranton H. Wright, Schenectady, N.Y.; J. Pickrel, H. James, Leo Pintonburg, Alexander McDonald and wife, New York; W. A. Cowan, Smith's Falls.

R. Postar is having doors placed on his shed for the purpose of housing cars belonging to his guests. Kathleen and Herbert Beale were successful in passing their promotion examinations at the Athens high school. Quite a number here attended the unveiling of the memorial in St. Denis church, Athens, to the memory of the late Corp. Basil Comerty. The Methodist Sunday school of Athens held their annual picnic on the grounds at Cedar Park on Saturday. Relatives of Pte. John B. Ward, who enlisted in May with a labor battalion and left Seaford, England, have received a letter from him, dated June 2nd, and written at St. Pierre, France. He says: "There is a lot of ammunition on the ground. There has been five men killed and four wounded since we came here. One fellow brought a Mills bomb into the tent and it went off and blew his hands off. There were fingers in all directions and it was only part of a bomb. I think you see there is lots of danger. The officers are warning us all the time. I found Gerald Rotsford's grave with a little white wood on cross. I fixed it up and I bought some lower seeds and sowed them. I am sending the picture of the cemetery. I am looking around for graves of the other boys I know."
