The Yacht Club verandah was a charming place on Wednesday afternoon. The cool breeze from the lake, the dancing waves, with several white winged yachts sailing lazily to and fro, made the heat and dust of the town seem very far away indeed. Bridge tables were at the end of the long verandah given over to the devotees of the game, and in the club room was the dainty tea table in charge of Mrs. W. K. Ross and Miss Bessie Smythe. Assisting them were Mrs. Gordon Smith, Mrs. Hubert Stetham, Miss Edith Carruthers, Miss Bessie Robertson and Miss Harriet Gardiner. A very large number of members were present, bringing with them some out-of-town guests, among whom were Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Jack Innes and Miss Gilmore, Toronto; Nursing Sister Shearer, Brockville; and Miss Gladys Counter, Watertown, N.Y.

On Thursday evening, the members of theVictorian Order of Nurses' committee held a tea at Lake Ontario Park in honor of Mrs H. P. Smith, who is leaving for Philadelphia, Pa., to take up residence permanently. Mrs. Smith has been president for the past eight years and her departure is deeply regretted by all connected with the Victorian Order here. On behalf of the committee, Mrs. Oberndorffer, the oldest charter member, presented Mrs. Smith with a beautiful leather club bag in token of their esteem. There is only one other charter member of the local branch of the Victorian Order still active, J. B. Walkem, K.C.
