OBITUARY

The Late Mrs. E. B. Wilson.

The funeral of the late Mrs. E. B. Wilson took place from her late residence, 126 Union street at 2.30 p.m. on Saturday. It was of a private nature, only relatives and friends of the family being present. The casket was banked with beautiful floral offerings, bearing testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held by a wide circle of friends. The funeral service was conducted by Archdeacon Dobbs who, at the conclusion of the service, repeated the lines of the deceased's favorite hymn, "Peace, Perfect Peace." The mourners, Miss Mair, sister of the deceased, Miss Frances Wilson and Miss Catherine Wilson, daughters. The pall bearers were Rev. Dr. Macgillivray, J. R. Forster, Rev. Dr. Ross, G. E. Hays, Frank Dobbs and A. E. Cogswell. Interment took place in the family plot at Cataragui cemetery.

The Late John P. Anderson.

The death of John P. Anderson occurred at the residence of his nephew, 17 Rideau street, on Sunday morning. The deceased was in the seventy-second year of his age and had been ill for about six months. He suffered a stroke of paralysis about six weeks ago and never rallied. Deceased was born in Kingston, May 23rd, 1847, and married Orville, Tro in 1874. She predeceased him in 1911. He was a machinist by occupation and worked for years in the locomotive works. Mr. Anderson was a prominent member of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, Kingston Lodge No. 59. He had no children, but is survived by one nephew, William Winter of this city. The funeral will take place to Cataragui cemetery on Tuesday afternoon and the Oddfellows will be in charge.

He was born in Woolich, England, seventy-one years ago and came to Canada with her parents when a child, residing in Kingston most of her life. She was a member of Bethel Congregational church and took an active interest in church work. She is survived by four sons and eight daughters. The funeral will be private on Wednesday.

WORK MINES TO CAPACITY.

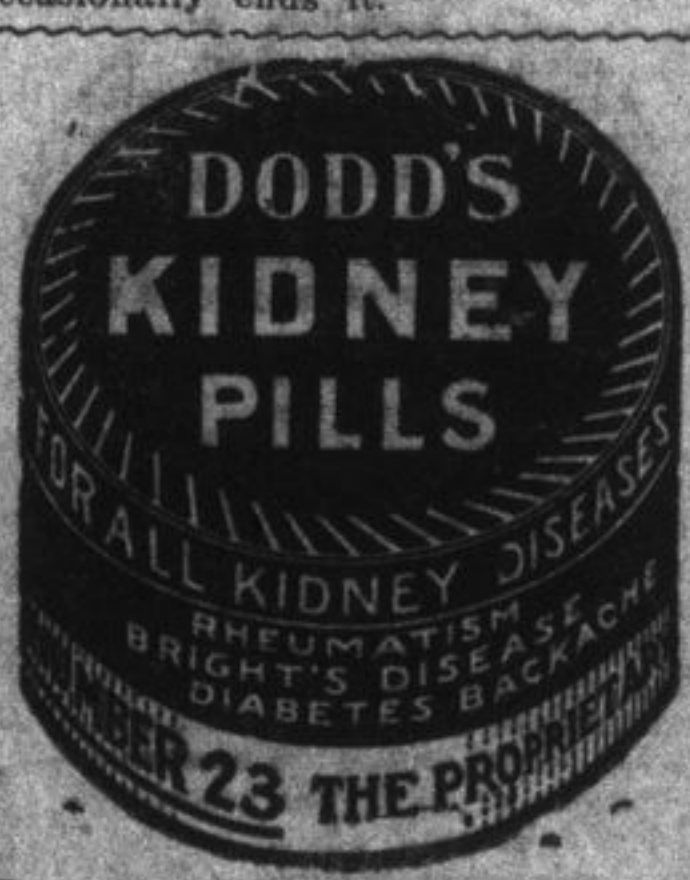

Vigorous Attempt Being Made to Ward off Shortage.

Washington, July 7.—Coal mines are being worked to the fullest capacity, in an endeavor to ward off another serious coal shortage, the Department of the Interior announced today. Figures of the Department showed that coal production, including both bituminous and anthracite was constantly climbing.

Move to Amend Bill.

Ottawa, July 7.—When the House went into committee on the by-elections franchise bill Sir Robert Borden moved an amendment which practically cut out the disfranchising feature. The effect of his motion was that any woman naturalized by the operation of law is entitled to vote under this Act provided she was born on the North American continent or had obtained a certificate showing that she was entitled to naturalization in the ordinary course.
