THEATRICAL

At the Grand.
An excellent performance of feature photoplays and superior vaudeville was offered to the large crowd at the Grand Opera House last evening. Constance Talmadge, the dainty and captivating young Select star, appeared in "A Pair of Silk Stockings," a five-reel comedy of youth and laughter. Henry B. Walthall was seen in a six-reel photodrama, "And a Still Small Voice," with a strong plot and many thrills that are experienced by a gentleman burglar in the practice of his profession. Other films shown were a Charlie Chaplin comedy, "The New Porter," and the screen magazine. The vaudeville, a splendid act of comedy, singing and imitations, won the approval of all. This bill will be repeated to-night for the last time. For the first three days of the week Dorothy Phillips will be seen in "The Talk of the Town," Peggy Hyland in "Marriages are Made." A vaudeville act of unusual merit, "Pickard's Seals," consisting of trained seals, will also be presented.—Adv.

Military News

The Celtic docked at Halifax on Friday and the troop train carried sixteen officers for Kingston. They are expected to arrive here this afternoon.

The Araguaya which docked at Portland had two officers and forty-three other ranks for Kingston and Queen's hospital.

Word has been received that Lieut. H. D. Jones, C.A.S.C., has been made a member of the Order of the British Empire. Lieut. Jones went overseas in August, 1914, and expects to return home shortly. Lieut. Jones is a non-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolfe, 60 Colborne street.

The following men arrived at Portland on the Araguaya on July 11th:—S. S. Buck, R. R. No. 4, Kingston; H. R. Wicheil, 210 Sydney street; W. B. Warren, Madoc; E. L. Alton, Yarker; H. W. Freeman, Tweed. They will probably reach Kingston on Saturday afternoon.

The troop train from the Empress of Britain left Halifax Friday morning. There are 1 officer and 132 other ranks for Kingston.

THE COME-BACK OF BILL

Veteran Baseballer Brought Scrub Team Out on Top.

R. C. H. A. failed to show up for the baseball game against G. W. V. A. at the Cricket Field on Friday evening, and a scrub team was organized in its stead. "Bill" Dehoney hurled like a trojan and had all the earmarks of a big leaguer. His curves were puzzlers and his coaching at first was a treat. The pick-me-ups won from the veterans by 8-4. The teams:

Scrubbers—Cummings, 1b; Brice-land, c; Dehoney, p; Twigg, 2b; Coyne, 2b; Baird, s.s.; Broder, 3b; Claire, P.H.; Spencer, c.f.; Richards, r.f.; Fitzgerald, l.f.

G. W. V. A.—Reid, c; Boyd, p.; Covert, 1b; Downey, 2b; Weaver, 3b and 1.f.; Aiton, s.s.; Pennell, c.f.; Jamieson, c.f.; Gowan, 1.f. and 3b.

Bowling on Friday.
At the bowling green, Skip Elliott continued his winning streak by taking a rink from Skip Buchanan by 12-12. Skip W. M. Campbell won from Skip F. Crozier by 14-11, and Skip J. F. McMillan from Skip E. Green by 13-10.

Queen's Lawn Bowling Club will be represented at the tournament of the St. Lawrence Lawn Bowling Association, which begins at Prescott on Monday.

OBITUARY

The Late John Smith.

John Smith, one of the city's oldest printers, passed away on Friday at the General Hospital. He was born in Kingston seventy-eight years ago, and he became a printer in New York. On returning to Kingston he opened a printing office, which he carried on for a period of forty years. For some years he was foreman of the news room of the New York World. In religion he was a Presbyterian and a member of Chalmers Church. He was a member of Cataract Lodge, A. F. & A. M. Besides his widow, who has been visiting her daughter in New York, and is now on her way home, he is survived by three sons, Alexander, George and William, all three doctors and graduates of Queen's University Medical College and one daughter, Mrs. Latimer, of New York city. The late Mr. Smith was known for his integrity, and his death is the occasion of many expressions of regret in a wide circle of friends.

Wolfe Island Lawn Social.

A most enjoyable and well-attended lawn social was held on Wednesday evening last at the home of Mrs. Henry Halliday (Halliday wharf), in connection with Christ Church, Wolfe Island. The lawn was prettily decorated with flags and Chinese lanterns and well lighted up with torches. Sales of home-made baking and candy were made. The Ladies' Guild had a fancy work and apron table and made many sales. Ice cream and cake furnished refreshment. The Crosby orchestra supplied music, and as a present had a very happy time. The committee of management, including Mrs. Halliday, who is always a charming hostess, brought the social to a successful issue. The Gard pleasure yacht carried passengers from the village to the social.

Death of John Webb.

The death occurred in the Hotel Dieu on Saturday morning of John Webb, an old resident of Brewer's Mills. Deceased was sixty-five years of age. He had been in the hospital for several days. Mr. Webb was one of the best-known farmers in the district, and highly respected. He is survived by his wife, two sisters, and one brother.

A Printer's Anniversary.

On Saturday Samuel Reid, Queen street, had his sixtieth anniversary as a printer. Mr. Reid entered the British Whig on July 12th, 1858 as a printer's devil and is still on the payroll, though he has ceased to perform active duties. Mr. Reid was tendered the congratulations of the staff on maintaining his record of being the oldest printer in Canada.
