MAJOR G. I. CAMPBELL HOME FROM OVERSEAS

He Accompanied a Unit to Germany After the Armistice Was Signed.

Major, the Rev. G. I. Campbell, chaplain services, has returned from overseas and reported at headquarters Wednesday. Major Campbell was appointed chaplain on the organization of the 14th Battalion and did recruiting duty. When the unit proceeded overseas he was retained at home to recruit for 253rd Battalion and when that unit was drafted to England, Major Campbell became chief recruiting officer for M.D. No. 3. When conscription came into force he became assistant to Col. Street, military representative under the M. S.A., and prosecuted appeals on behalf of the authorities. In November, 1918, he went overseas to relieve a chaplain on active service, and the armistice was signed while he was on the ocean, but he arrived in time to accompany a unit to Germany. Major Campbell says that the war is not over yet, and that the peace is a patched-up peace.

THEATRICAL

At The Grand.

A pleasing entertainment was enjoyed by all who visited the Grand Opera House last evening. Peggy Hyland, the charming young "Fox" star, appeared in her latest and best production, "Marriages Are Made." This is a five reel photoplay of youth and love, with a strong plot to destroy a shipyard, which is frustrated by the fearless heroine, Miss Hyland. Dorothy Phillips was seen in a six reel feature, "The Talk of the Town." Labor and expense have been lavished in this picture and Miss Phillips is seen at her best. Other films shown were a Mutl and Jeff cartoon, "The Tale of a Pig," an industrial film, and a good comedy, "The Porters." The vaudeville, Pickards' Seals, showed skill in juggling by sea lions which is the result of many years of strenuous training. For the last half of the week Tom Moore will be seen in a five reel feature, "Go West, Young Man." Harry Carey will appear in a five reel photoplay, "Three Mounted Men." Comedies and other reels will be shown along with all the best vaudeville.

At The Strand.

The Strand Theatre promises the greatest attraction of the week beginning Thursday and continuing on Friday and Saturday. Charles Chaplin will be shown in "Sunrise" as a farm hand, an entirely new role for this king of fun makers. To produce this picture Charlie Chaplin and his assistants went far into the wilds of California to find the little hamlet which was named "Sunrise" and used in the First National Exhibitors' Circuit attraction of the same name. The funny side of country life shown in the picture, is one of high artistic merit, for the hamlet besides being a typical cross-roads, furnishes beautiful background. Here one sees Clattie far from city hotels slum streets, the big bakery and other scenes that helped to make him famous. He is far out in the country, the much-abused man of all work to a hypocritical old farmer. Although this hard master pretends to be very religious, he does not have a faint conception of the true meaning of the word and goes on hectoring Charlie and forcing him to work long hours for little more than his keep. Life among the farmers and the beasts of the field would be sad indeed if it were not for one person, his sweetheart. This comely maiden (played by Edna Purviance, a striking beauty) is the daughter of a neighboring farmer. She is beginning to return his love when a city chap arrives in an automobile and trouble begins. In this play Charlie will teach the whole world to—
—be happy though tired.
—lay fresh fried hen fruit.
—let no grass grow under the feet.
—chaffeur the cows.
—catch wild oats.
—beat the alarm clock.
—win a maiden's love.
—meet real fairies.
Farm life as it should be!

HAS NOT DECIDED.

To Ask Denke Government to Blockade Russian Ports.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Paris, July 15.—The Council of five met this afternoon, the chief topic of discussion being the Russian blockade. There have been proposals that the powers shall allow ships to enter Russian ports under special permits. It has been suggested that most of the Black Sea ports could be blockaded by the Denke Government which is friendly to the Allies, but the supreme council has not decided to ask him to declare such a blockade.
