

LEST WE FORGET

By William T. Ellis

The International Sunday School Lesson For July 20th is "The Lord's Supper."—Matt. 26-30; I Cor. 11:23-36.

Great Britain has adopted a uniform design for all the cemeteries in France into which her fallen heroes are to be gathered.

There is a very human side to this universal sacrament. Jesus, about to go forth to die, was hungry for love.

A Million Million Dead Forgotten. More than a million million persons have lived and died and been forgotten since the lonely, homeless Saviour set up this memorial in a borrowed room in old Jerusalem.

Recollections flood a traveller's mind of strange times and places where the communion has been shared—kneeling on bare boards with soldiers; clinging to the saloon rails of a tossing ship at sea.

The universality of this observance is a visible evidence of the triumph of the cross. The Christ who aided lives still in the hearts of countless men and women and children.

An Egyptian Memory. A few weeks ago, in the midst of grave times in Cairo, I heard unusual sounds proceeding from the windows of the top floor of a house across the street from my room.

All that Passover means to the devout Jew, the Lord's Supper signifies to the Christian. "Christ our Passover, was sacrificed for us."

Therefore we find the Saviour offering himself to his Church throughout the ages in the form of a feast. He feeds and he satisfies. The Lord's table is a board of revelation.

What the Cross Says. Over here on the far side of the world, in the very lands where the Bible story was enacted, we hear welcome humors that America is

STAGE ADOPTED BY METHODISM

Centenary Celebration in U.S. Adds Theatrical Department.

A TREMENDOUS SUCCESS

POWERFUL PLAY TO BE REPRODUCED IN NEW YORK.

It May Be Produced in Canada — Theme of the Drama Presented to Thousands at Columbus, Ohio.

The Methodist Church has officially adopted the stage. In spite of the fact that the last four general conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church have refused to amend the disciplinary rules of the Church to permit its members to attend the theatre, and therefore Methodists in good-standing in the United States are "admonished not to attend theatres."

The tremendous success of "The Wayfarer," a play written and produced by the First Methodist Church, Seattle, specially for the centenary celebration, and the decision of the Centenary Committee in granting permission to have the play reproduced in New York in October, marks the beginning of a new era in the life of the Methodist Church.

One of the largest theatres in New York will be engaged, if possible, for the presentation. Dr. Crowther, the producer, will be in New York during part of the time of its run.

Theme of the Drama. It is altogether probable that, following the presentation in New York, "The Wayfarer" will be put on in the larger centres of the country, and possibly also in Canada.

The theme of the play is the triumph of Christianity, in every dark and troublesome period of the world's history. The opening scene presents a small, wretched village on the French battle-front—the wounded and distracted survivors of a battle.

Had a Very Bad Attack OF Bowel Complaint

IT WAS CURED BY Dr. Fowler's EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY

Any one suffering from bowel complaints such as diarrhoea, dysentery, colic, cramps and pains in the stomach, summer complaint, etc., will find that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry will give quicker and more permanent relief than any other remedy on the market to-day.

the are seen among the ruins. In the stillness that follows the battle, "The Wayfarer," representing humanity, stands bewildered, pondering over the uncertainty of the future.

As the music of "Lead, Kindly Light" emerges from the silence, "Understanding" approaches "The Wayfarer," and takes him back to the days of the captivity in Babylon of "the chosen people of the Lord," the Jews, and shows in scene after scene of tremendous dramatic power every great, discouraging epoch in the world's history, from the Babylonian captivity down to the present troublous days of reconstruction, how Christianity has been equal to every crisis in history.

The best professional talent took the leading roles in the play. A colossal cast of 3,000 actors and singers, supported by a symphony orchestra of 75 pieces, presenting a theme with such a timely message, has completely captivated the Methodist Church.

Thousands Unable to Get Seats. For three weeks, the great pageant has been presented every night except Sundays, to an audience of eight thousand people, while thousands more were turned away daily.

Grey-headed Bishops and Methodists of the older generation, who had never been in a theatre in their lives, as well as the younger generation, who had broken the rules of their church to see such plays as "Uncle Tom's Cabin," "Ben Hur," or "The Servant in the House," all vied with each other in praising "The Wayfarer" as the most inspiring spectacle they had ever witnessed.

The conservative element in the Church, which for years has prevented amendment of the rules on the amusement question, has been so completely won over by the possibilities of the use of the stage to present religious truths to the masses, that leading officials of the Methodist Church told The Globe today that the General Conference to be held in 1920 will, without doubt, bring the rules of the Church on the amusement question into harmony with the rules of the Canadian Methodist Church, which now leave the question of participation in various amusements to "the enlightened Christian conscience of the members of the Church."

Come Men and Save Ten

Greys! Greys!! Greys!!!

There are still enough Grey Serges to last out this week.

Never before — during my annual GREY SERGE WEEK—has the demand for greys been as legion and there's a reason.

The people haven't forgotten the wonderful values they have bought during my previous GREY SERGE WEEKS and they are coming back for more.

All this week I have had customers walk into my shops wearing a grey suit bought during this great value-giving event in 1916-17 and ask if I can sell them another.

I have been able to supply the big demand because I foresaw this and for months I have been buying greys which were put on the racks on July 5th in all my shops from Coast to Coast.

Come in and see these wonderful values in three shades of grey in Men's and Young Men's Models, also Slims and Stouts at—
