

Bass-Oreno

Have you heard about it? It dives dashes, darts and wiggles just like an injured fish. Probably the secret of the success of this bait is its extremely erratic motions. Several hundreds thousand have been sold.

The back-lash which occurs so persistently when using an ordinary reel has done more to discourage the sport of casting than even that oft-mooted question: "Why Don't They Bite?"

"Why Don't They Bite?"

Now we have a Reel that won't back-lash, and you don't have to thumb your line. The caster has only to learn to throw his bait properly.

LONGBOAT IN COMEBACK

BEAT QUEAL BY FOOT ALTHOUGH NOT IN FIRST CLASS.

Indian Finished Nicely After Having Been Collared Near Home—Boxing Bout.

The first appearance of Tom Longboat since his return from France drew a good crowd of probably 3,500 at the Island Stadium Friday night. He met Queal in a three-mile run and won by inches. Neither was in first-class form, but made a good race of it. The first mile was done in 5.05, the two miles in 10.22 and the third in 15.04.

At the last lap the Indian had a lead of twenty-five yards. Queal went after him and for the last twenty-five yards the two were neck and neck. Longboat winning by a foot. The Indian has a lot of running in him yet and, in comparative good shape, with Queal all in.

There has been a decided revival in foot running and all were glad to see the Indian on the track. Perhaps "Bob" Husbell will open negotiations with him for the big fair.

A RANDOM SHOT OF WHAT IS OR IS NOT.

Jimmy Wilde may become a pugilist parliamentarian. Here's hoping he won't have to use his fists.

E. J. Tranter, National Trotting Association's expert agent has every reason to believe that more trotting bred horses will be shipped abroad during the racing season that he anticipates.

Jack Dempsey says those European "foreigners" must come to America if they want to meet him. During the war, the Germans would have had to do the same thing. Some sleep!

Webb Husbell has pitched six consecutive winning games for the Leafs. John Paul Jones rattled off nine straight victories the first few weeks of the season before he was beaten. Husbell is out to beat that record.

Outsider Spencer, of Bay City, who was originally booked for the Leafs, has been turned over to Jersey City by Billy Cristall.

The Toronto ball team made it 13 straight wins by taking both contests from Reading on the holiday. As with Jersey City, so with Reading—they are a losing team and they lack the punch that wins games and fall down against a fighting team like the Islanders.

Everybody's Dobin it. Doing what? Why taking a fall out of the Reading team. Even old Jap. Dempsey is a popular champ. They always are the first five minutes. No couple ever threw dishes on their honeymoon.

"Who owns the girl?" will never be satisfactorily settled while fight managers are around.

While playing golf over the Rosedale links last week Larry Thornton, assistant to the professional of the club, killed a crow in flight.

One bird carol that Willard had a good head for business. Right. Dempsey is a two-holed business man. Two hats are better than one head.

Poor Old Rube!

These are sad days for "Rube" Marquard, who sits around and watches his team-mates on the Brooklyn club when they are playing at home, unable to get into the fight. The "Pit's" broken leg is mending slowly, but, although he hopes to be back in a uniform by mid-August, it is thought unlikely that he will be able to pitch again before the closing weeks of the season.

Marquard, with a broken leg, might be said to have "it soft" by some ball players who don't mind a little thing like that, but the "Rube" likes and demands action. He would rather be called upon five times in seven days than to be forced to sit around helplessly and watch the other fellows do it.

CARPENTIER AN IDOL AGAIN.

Parisian Celebrities See Him Beat Dick Smith.

Georges Carpentier, the French champion, knocked out Dick Smith, former English champion, in the eighth round of a twenty-round bout at Paris. It was Carpentier's bout all the way.

Smith was offered as the victim to Parisian fans in celebrating Carpentier's return to the ring after a five years' absence. He was completely outclassed. Carpentier dominating the situation throughout.

The fourth round alone was about even. Smith was down for a count of seven in the third, and took a count of eight in the fifth. Carpentier finished his work in the eighth with a left and right hook to the jaw.

The Frenchman seemed anxious for a prompt knockout. He fought fiercely, leaving openings which might have been taken advantage of by a cleverer opponent. Carpentier appeared a little short of condition and some line was obtained on this evening's showing regarding his chance in a gruelling battle. Fred Fulton, the American heavyweight, challenged the winner.

The assembly was more spectacular than the bout itself. Beautiful women in gorgeous gowns and men in evening dress cheering Carpentier, and Fohck and Nungesser, the aviators, when they were introduced. It was more like a social function than a boxing exhibition, and the crowds went home happy as the French idol had not been dethroned.

Lucky is the man whose troubles don't bother him any more than they do his friends.

A young man may induce the girl's father, to toe the mark by posing as the mark.

He who wears a long face doesn't necessarily live the longest.

ANOTHER BOY GOLFER AMazes THE EXPERTS AT ARDSLEY COURSE

A New York despatch says: The boy prodigy of the links is again with us. This time his name is J. W. Swaeter, and he comes from the Ardsley course. The lad about whom all tongues are wagging to-day, was first noticed playing with his father in the Paton et Pillus tournament at Sleepy Hollow a matter of two or three years ago.

It was observed that he had the makings of a real golfer, but few who saw him then would have dreamed that in a little while, and even before he had entered college, he would be cutting such capers on the links as he did in the qualifying round of the annual championship tournament of the West Chester Association, when he went around in the wonderful score of sixty-nine.

This clips three strokes from the amateur record, which has stood for years to the joint credit of Walter J. Travis and Findlay S. Douglas.

Some Scrapper.

Georges Carpentier, French boxing champion, who won his first ring battle since before the war, defeating Pick Smith, of England, by a knock-out. Carpentier made an enviable record as a flyer in the world's struggle, and may meet Jack Dempsey, who wins from Joe Beckett, although the latter wants a prior claim on the world's championship.

Hamilton Rugby Gossip.

Hamilton Herald: The return of Bobby Kerr, Hugh Murray and the other Tiger officers from overseas has resulted in considerable rugby gossip. The opinion is shared by all concerned that the great fall pastime will flourish this year and that, while all of the clubs in the Dominion will have to practically rebuild their teams, the material will not be found wanting. Tigers are already looking forward to the cool weather. There is also a stir apparent among the officers of the Hamilton Rowing Club. The O.R.F.U. wants the H.R.C. in the senior ranks again.

Want Steamers To Carry Ponies.

A. Graham Miles, Alexandria Bay, polo enthusiast, is negotiating with the Canada Steamship Lines to have polo ponies transported on the boats, the Kingston and Toronto, between Toronto and Alexandria Bay.

The purpose is to make it possible for the Toronto polo team to come to this resort to play on Wallesey Island, and for the island team to go to Toronto for games. It is understood that the only question is that of room on the boats. There would be about four ponies to be carried on each trip.

THE POLO MATCH IS UP TO ENGLAND

The United States Will Not Challenge Until Britishers Are Ready.

Possibility of an international polo match between picked teams of American and English players next year is entirely in the hands of the English polo authorities, according to a statement made by the Polo Association at New York. It was announced that no challenge for such a match had been sent to England, and that none would be forwarded until such time as the English authorities indicated that a challenge would be welcomed.

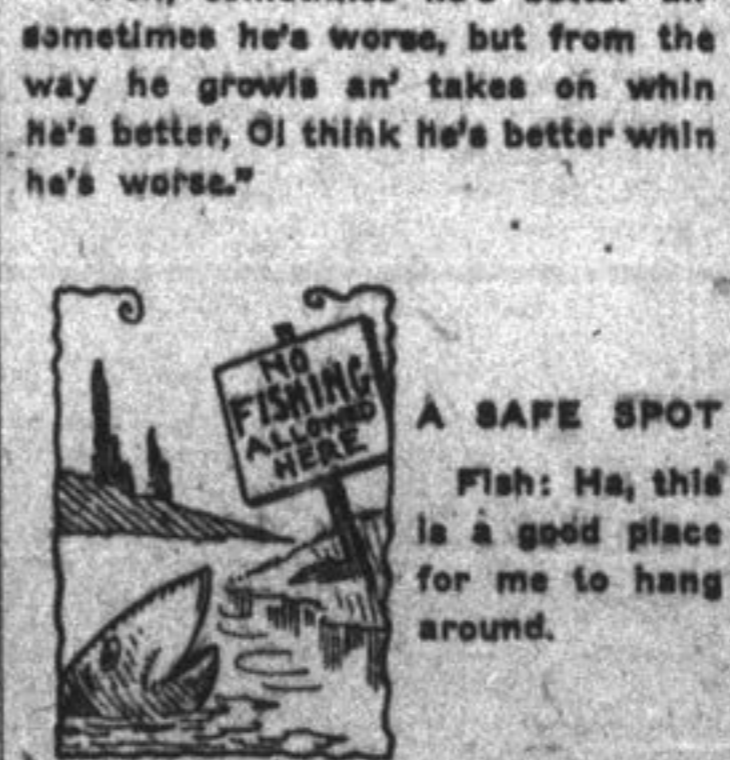

The recent victory of the Freebooters over the Thornby four in the final game for the British championship cup by a score of five goals to three at Hurlingham led to unofficial opinion that England was ready to defend the international trophy won by England from America at Meadowbrook in 1914.

In this match only one member of the victorious English team of five years ago appeared. Major F. W. Barrett played at No. 3 on the Thornby four, and English reports of the match, indicate that the standard of play was considerably below the pre-war form of English polo.
