THEATRICAL.

At the Grand.
An excellent performance of high-class pictures and vaudeville has been engaged for the last half of the week at the Grand. Clara Kimball Young, the beautiful Select artist, will appear with her own company in a five-reel feature film, "The Claw." This picture was adapted for the screen from Cynthia Stockley's story of the same name, and is an absorbingly dramatic and vivid portrayal of life in the African veldt. "The Claw" has many beautiful scenes of the great African jungle, and forms a fitting background for the splendid acting of Miss Young and her co-stars. Another five-reel film, "The Breaker," a story of city life and love, will also be shown, along with the Universal screen magazine and a good two-reel comedy. An act of the better class of vaudeville, combining the latest songs, dances and piano playing, will be presented and completes a highly entertaining programme for the three days.—Advt.

At the Strand To-day.
Emmy Wehlen, known throughout the country as the best dressed woman on the screen, has added a score of new dresses to the wardrobe which she wears in "Fools and Their Money," her latest Metro comedy-drama to be shown at the Strand theatre to-day. Miss Wehlen's much envied reputation has been built up by the fact that not only does she buy her frocks from the most original and exclusive modistes, but that she is a connoisseur in colors and fabrics and always chooses her own materials and colors. The actual styles she leaves to the cleverly trained hands of the tailors and modistes whom she patronizes. Montagu Love and June Elvidge are starred in "The Quickening Flame" in the best roles they have portrayed in a long time. In addition a splendid company of film favorites are seen in the cast. From start to finish "The Quickening Flame" is a very superior picture. It will be shown on Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Strand Theatre. Be sure to see it.—Advt.

At Griffin's.
If you are a follower of the mystic and an investigator of psychic phenomena, go to the Griffin Theatre the last half of this week and enjoy Joan Dawn's act. Jean will mystify you, and you investigating will go for nothing, for she will mystify you from start to finish. She does not only answer your questions, but in most cases tells what you look like. Miss Dawn is the extra added attraction, and she will remain here until Saturday night, appearing at each performance. In addition to the above, a splendid line of photographic attractions will also be shown for the last half of the week, including Enid Bennett's new picture, "The Haunted Bedroom." The story grips and holds the mind; you forget you are looking at a picture and live the interesting experiences of the girl reporter who unravels a situation that baffles the metropolitan detective. An exceptionally good Mack Sennet and Sunshine comedy completes the bill, which would be hard to surpass anywhere. Don't miss this programme.—Advt.

ACCUSED OF THEFT.

Auto Salesman Was Arraigned in the Police Court.
In the police court Thursday, J. A. Sweetman was charged by W. P. Peters, with the theft of $85, on Aug. 31st, 1913. He pleaded "not guilty" through counsel, and the case was enlarged for a day. The accused has been employed as a salesman for Mr. Peters' automobile agency.

A soldier who returned from the front yesterday, got some liquor on the train, collapsed near the police station door and was taken in charge by Constable Nicholas Timmerman. The war hero was fined $10 and costs.

Excursion to Ogdensburg.
Steamer America for the "Burg" leaves Swift's wharf, 8 a.m. Friday. A great trip.

The first lord of the admiralty announced in the British Commons that thirteen of the scattered enemy ships are now ready to be salvaged.

Military News

The Adriatic and Gramplan are reported as having sailed for Halifax with soldiers and dependents. They are likely to dock some time next Sunday, but as the passengers are travelling independently of the military authorities, no official notification is likely to be given respecting the departure of trains from Halifax.

Brig-Gen. Williams made an inspection of the Barrifield hutments and hospital.

The military police have vacated the Hut building and moved to the building formerly used as a hospital on Queen street. It is probable that the force which has done splendid work both during mobilization and demobilization, will be disbanded, now that there are so few soldiers in the city outside of convalescents.

A ROADWAY IN VERY BAD CONDITION

"Be Prepared to Meet Your God," Reads Sign on Big Stone.

A Kingstonian, who came over the road between Belleville and Napanee, in his automobile, on Wednesday, stated that without doubt it is the worst piece of roadway in Ontario. He said there were more holes in this stretch of roadway than all the way from Toronto to Kingston.

The Kingstonian stated that at one place along the road his attention was drawn to a sign which reads as follows: "Be Prepared to Meet Your God."

The sign had been placed there by some person who considered the road very dangerous for traffic.

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS

So far No Trace Has Been Secured of Mr. Sills.

Nothing new has developed in connection with the disappearance of E. E. Sills, undertaker and upholsterer, in the employ of James Reid. When the boat containing the hat and coat were found, every circumstance connected therewith was investigated by members of the family, and the only conclusion to be drawn is that he was drowned while rowing in the rough sea prevailing that day. There is absolutely no clue that would lead to any other explanation of his absence after telling Mr. Birdsal that he would be back at five o'clock.

Niagara Basket Fruit.
Peaches, pears, plums, melons, tomatoes, apples, blackberries, black currants, etc., now arriving at Carnovsky's.
