THE PATRIOT
"What have you done to show your patriotism?"
"Well, I always shoot off two or three dollars worth of fireworks every Fourth of July."

HE WONDERED
Bug: This going up on a rocket is O. K., but I'm wondering about the coming down.

"Won't go off eh? Maybe you ain't got enough powder in it."
"Nuff powder! Why I got her crammed full of powder. I got a whole box of it off Ma's dressin' table this morning."

To Let Norway Have Spitzbergen.
Paris, Aug. 1.—The Russian political commission in Paris has advised the peace conference commission which is considering the disposition of the Spitzbergen Archipelago, which lies in the Arctic ocean between Franz-Josef Land and Greenland, that the Russians are willing to have Spitzbergen given to Norway.

The belief is expressed by the Russians, however, that it will be necessary to have an international convention for the purpose of protecting the rights of persons of various nations having property in Spitzbergen.

CHEERY MESSAGE

From the Past Mystifies Two Modern Woodmen.

Cobourg, Aug. 1.—A big cedar tree about four-feet in diameter was cut down last winter by Messrs. Mathew and John Linton. It was sawn for fuel. While splitting up some of the wood the other day they came across a silver pencil embedded in it. On it was engraved: "Tom Hall's Old Rye Whiskey. Best in the World." The pencil was found almost in the centre of the tree. It is believed that the article must have been placed in some hollow in the bark when men were cutting ties for the old Cobourg & Peterborough Railway, nearly seventy years ago, and the tree had grown around it. The silver is pronounced to be of a high grade.
