THE DARK MYSTERY OF THE LOST CHALLENGE

Ink Splashers Threw Down. -Another Challenge

The mystery of the lost challenge is engaging the attention of the deductive minds amongst the members of Queen's Bowling Club. Several days ago the pianomakers issued a challenge to the printers of the club for a game, which was not accepted. Now the typesetters claim that they declining the next lowest tender will had posted a challenge to the mahogany-varnishers prior to this, and that the latter's challenge was put up to delude the public into thinkducing coal at $9.45 per ton, the only other tenderer quoting $9.58 per the pianomakers. PORTSMOUTH WEDDING.

Lewis Cheaves.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Clark, Portsmouth, when their cousin, Mary Jane Barns, was united in holy matrimony to Lewis Cheaves. The house was prettily decorated with evergreens and sweet peas and flags. The bride wore a charming dress of white satin, trimmed with shadow lace and beads, with bridal veil and a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas the races at Toronto and white ribbon, and entered the John L. Sullivan, of Portsmouth, parlor leaning on the arm of her had a valuable dog killed by a street
