KILTY OWNERS WILL FIGHT

JOHNSON MAY BE BACKING DOWN IN CONTROVERSY.

He Has Subjected Carl May's to a Big Fine and Reinstatement May Follow.

At Washington President Ban Johnson of the American League announced that the suspension of Carl Mays, the pitcher recently purchased by the New York Americans from the Boston Red Sox, would remain in force for the remainder of the season unless "evidence of extenuating circumstances was produced."

According to Lieut.-Col. T. L. Huston, half owner of the New York Americans. Baseball will see one of its most interesting fights in years if Johnson, attempts to keep the suspension of Mays in force for the season.

"I will promise both Mr. Johnson and the general baseball public that the New York Club will not sit idly by and stand for this interference with its property rights. I will not tell the New York Club's plan of action at this time, but if Mays' suspension is kept in force, we will take action and take it quickly," said Col Huston.

Following up the threat Col. Ruppert and Col. Houston of the Kilties have declared open war on Ban Johnson, and unless Johnson changes his stand the New York owners will fight to the bitter end. Johnson called a meeting for Tuesday of the American League to consider the Mays case, but Ruppert and Houston have refused to attend this meeting, alleging that they would be outvoted by the five other clubs which were angling for Mays and claiming that Johnson favored Cleveland and wanted to give Frazee of Boston the worst of things. They will apply for an injunction "to restrain Mr. Johnson from interference" with the New York club.

Meanwhile Mays will be subjected to a heavy fine which he must pay out of his own pocket by President Johnson. This announcement is believed by baseball men to indicate Mays' reinstatement within a very short time.

Wings Hits Hard.

Catcher Ed. Wingo, of the Lachine club of the Independent Baseball League, who is now under contract to Chicago White Sox, is the real batting leader of that organization. He is batting for .388. He played here last year with the Dental Corps.

CITY LEAGUE STANDBYS

No. 4 Stanley Trotter.

"Stan," the popular secretary-treasurer of the league, is right on the job when it comes to baseball. He was one of the prime movers in the organization of the league and for some years was its president. His interest in its progress has been one of the gratifying features and it has often been remarked that if there were more men like him in Kingston who would consistently work for the good of some sporting organization it would be no time until a Kingston Amateur Athletic Association could be formed. "Trot" has worked steadily for the league and he has great faith that it is doing much to cultivate clean sport in the city. Mr. Trotter has very efficiently carried out the various duties that have been assigned to him and it is the wish of every true lover of sport in the city that his interest may never wane.

LIKELY PENNANT WINNERS IN BIG LEAGUE CLINCH

Glancing at them from this angle it looks as though Giants and White Sox would meet in the big October clinch. Cincinnati is stirring things up in the National and may beat the Giants for a chance at the big muss. There will be considerable tang to the series this year. The interest in baseball has been more than passable fair all season, and when two outstanding hamlets like New York and Chicago are battling it out the interest is bound to be hectic.

LUDERUS OF PHILLIES BREAKS COLLINS' MARK

Fred Luderus of the Philadelphia National League team has broken the record for playing in consecutive games established by Eddie Collins of the Chicago White Sox. Luderus has not missed a fixture since June 2nd, 1919, and by playing today has completed 479 games in succession.

MAJOR LEAGUE TRANSFER.

Outfielder See of the Rochester, N.Y., Internationals, has been secured for the Cincinnati Nationals. Sueto the Cuban, was traded for him, and a considerable amount of money is said to have been paid in addition. See is but 20 years old and originally was a pitcher.

The New York Nationals have procured Arthur Nehf, a star left-handed pitcher, from the Boston Nationals, in exchange for Pichers Cecil Causey, Joe Oescheger and John Paul Jones, and Catcher Geo. O'Neill. Jones is now with the Toronto Club of the International League, and O'Neill with the Rochester Club.

Charles (Buck) Herzog, star infielder of the Boston National league, on Saturday, became a member of the Chicago National League as the result of a deal by which Leslie Mann, outfielder, and Charles Pick, infielder, are exchanged for the eastern player.

The Cleveland American League have announced the trade of Pitcher Phillips of the local team to Milwaukee for Pitcher Faeth.

HE HAD BETTER —GO TO GERMANY

Jack Johnson, the former heavyweight champion, is evidently up to his old tricks again, if the word received from Mexico City is true. According to word received here the negro is to be deported from Mexico for "scandalous conduct" and defiance of police and refusal to obey the Mexican laws.

Johnson is now exiled from the United States for alleged violation of the Mann white slave law and has been shunned in France, England and Spain. It is said that he intends to go back to Spain from Mexico. It was reported two weeks ago that he was to meet Dan (Porky) Flynn, the Boston heavy weight, in a match at Monterey, Mexico.

ST. LAWRENCE ANGLERS TO CONVENE WEDNESDAY

The Anglers' Association of the St. Lawrence river will hold its annual meeting in the ballroom of the Thousand Island House, Alexandria Bay, Wednesday morning. At the close of the meeting William H. Warburton, proprietor of the Thousand Island House, will give a banquet for the association.

Among the new members are Robert Hobart Davis, of New York, who will arrive at Alexandria Bay in time to attend the meeting. Commodore Thomas H. Wheeler, of New York, Ensign Alson S. Clark, of Chicago, and A. Graham Miles, of New York, are among the members of the association.

New Professional Champion.

In Friday's 36-hole medal play competition for the Canadian professional golf championship at Scarboro, the cream of the Dominion's pros. were arrayed against each other, bent on wrestling from George Cummings, of the Toronto Golf club, the title of Canadian champion and holder of the P. D. Ross cup, Davy Black, of Ottawa Rivermead, demonstrated that he is entitled to the honor for the coming year. His score for the day's play was 148, his card reading 72 in the morning and 76 in the afternoon.

A. T. L. From Corbett.

"Dempsey is only a boy at the boxing game," said Jim Corbett, recently, while chirping fights with a bunch at his Bayside home. "If this Dempsey ever learns to control himself he's going to be the best heavy we've ever had. As yet he's only a boy at the game. He has to learn to save a little for the next round. That's his only fault as far as I can see."
