Some Pitcher, Some Game.

At Gananoque, on Wednesday afternoon, the Buffalo Prospects defeated the Havana Red Sox by 4 to 2. It was one of the best games of the season. Lewis, the Prospects' pitcher, striking out seventeen men.

YOU COULDN'T SATISFY SOME OF THOSE GUYS

John J. McGraw has his sights set on something more than a pennant this season. He is shooting in the general direction of a managerial record, the same being the first major league manager to win seven pennants, wrench into the situation. McGraw provided Pat Moran doesn't toss a shoe and Mack head the procession with six flags each. McGraw tied up Mack's record in 1917, and if he wins again this waning campaign he will be out in front of the fold with pennants to his credit in 1904, 1905, 1911, 1912, 1913, 1917 and 1919—the long list covering an interim of seventeen years.

WILL FIGHT JOHNSON

Tom Cowler to Meet Former Champion in Mexico
Tom Cowler, the English heavy-weight, is on his way to Mexico, where he fights Jack Johnson, the former heavy-weight champion, in a twenty-round bout the latter part of this month. George Lawrence will look after Cowler's affairs as Al Rippe, his manager, is too busy with his other fighters to make the journey.

A special despatch from Mexico City lately told how Johnson had become such a poor fighter that he wasn't hardly in the pork and bean class. The fight with Cowler won't benefit the latter's reputation, unless the English giant can land a Mary Ann which will definitely end the boxing career of the big and once mighty smoke.

CITY LEAGUE STANDBYS

No. 6—Wm. Purcell
"Bill" Purcell is one of "Buff" Palmer's acquisitions on the Athletics and he is able to handle the ball as nicely as the best of them. He is an old-timer who has had quite some experience in the national game and he has pulled the Athletics out of many a hole. As a pitcher he has mastered the tricks of the trade and handles the little old apple with grace and cleverness. "Bill" is one of the good-natured guys who always gets in and out of a pinch with a smile on his face and he is able to slip back some nice retorts from the coaching lips when someone tries to kid him. "Bill" is certainly one of the brightest lights of the league.

HARD LUCK FOR CANADIAN HEAVY WEIGHT

Sergt. Jack Clements, champion heavy-weight boxer of the Canadian overseas military forces who recently arrived at the New Brunswick Military Hospital with a convoy of patients from his home at Campbellton, N.B., a helpless paralytic as the result of a bathing accident. While in swimming near Grand Mansie where he had been spending fourteen days' leave, he left with his wife and five children, he dived into shallow water, struck on his head, and almost complete paralysis of his whole body followed.

On his arrival home Clements issued a challenge for the Canadian title but he will now be out of the game for good.

MATTER OF MONEY TO WIN PENNANT

McGraw is Buying Another Flag for the New York Polo Grounds.

The fans and press of the West are red hot over John J. McGraw's latest trade, by which he has secured Pitcher Arthur Nehf, from the Boston Braves, in exchange for Pitchers Cecil Causey, Joe Coughner, John Paul Jones and Catcher O'Neill. If the New York Giants win the pennant now it would not be surprising to see Cincinnati recede from the National League union. The loud persistent eulogies go up that New York is buying the pennant.

The funny part of it is that West usually laughs at McGraw's trading ability. In the past season the scribes of Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Pittsburgh love to point out how the Giant leader let Eddie Roush, Heinie Groh, Fred Merkle, Ernie Shore and other players, who are now stars with other clubs than New York, slip through his fingers.

One of the favorite stories in the West is of the several times that McGraw let Charley Herzog go, only to pay dearly to get him back again. And when Hal Chase was not hitting this spring while Walter Holke was batting well over .300 for Boston, this fact was offered as further evidence of McGraw's lack of astuteness.

But within the past weeks McGraw has secured Catcher Snyder from the St. Louis Cardinals, Pitcher Douglas from the Cubs and Pitcher Nehf from the Braves.

As a matter of fact, McGraw has strengthened his team materially by these trades. In fact, it is hard to see how he can fail to win the pennant now.

Douglas has already proven his worth to the Giant cause. Nehf will be even more valuable.

A twenty-round fight between Joe Beckett, the English heavy-weight champion, and Eddie McGoorty of Oshkosh, Wis., has been arranged for September 21 in London, England. The men will battle for a purse of 3,000 pounds and a side bet of 1,000 pounds.

The bout between Beckett and Georges Carpentier, the French heavy-weight champion, has been postponed until November.
