

It's Tough

for the boy to get down to business again after his long vacation. Our good School Clothes will help out a bit.

Queer boy if he isn't needing Clothes after the wear and tear of the long summer vacation.

We're at our best when we're clothing boys.

On School Suits we place our strongest efforts — strong fabrics, strong making seams, double all points where strain comes, riveted and clinched.

Suits $7.50, $8.00, $8.50, $9.50, $10 and up to $18.00.

We clothe boys of all ages and we do it well and at moderate prices.

THEATRICAL.

At the Grand.
The management of the Grand Opera House is pleased to announce that an excellent programme of high-class photoplays and superior vaudeville has been arranged for the first half of the week. Virginia Pearson, the talented Fox beauty, will appear in a five-reel feature, "Buchanan's Wife," a heart interest story of a woman's search for happiness, showing the power of hypnotism. Bessie Barriscale, the charming young artiste, will be seen in a five-reel feature, "The Heart of Rachel." This play abounds with beautiful scenery and forms a striking background for the splendid acting of Miss Barriscale. Other reels to be shown are a Mutt and Jeff cartoon, "The Art and Joker," a good comedy and the screen magazine. The vaudeville is of the best kind, and promises much amusement for all.—Advt.

At Griffin's.
In "Men Women and Money," Ethel Clayton's latest starring vehicle she is afforded excellent opportunities for the display of her talents as an emotional actress. Miss Clayton depicts the lure of society life for a young girl from the Middle West, who once having had a taste of the gorgeous society functions, the games of bridge, the exquisite and expensive gowns and the company of wealthy society idlers, can no longer force herself to be contented in her little home. At the death of her parents she goes back to her real home, where she awakens to her real self, after discovering that the life of a society butterfly is founded on sham and pretense, forms a highly entertaining and gripping story. Don't miss it.—Advt.

At The Strand.
She was a cafe girl—just one of a number of girls whose lives were founded by the four walls of the notorious Domino Cafe. She hadn't adopted this mode of life from choice; she had been thrown into it when a child and knew no other. She was the prettiest of the girls and was known to the patrons of the cafe as Jo. "The Probation Wife," Norma Talmadge's latest Select Picture, in which she is presented by Joseph M. Schenck, is the story of Jo Mowbray, the cafe girl who became a member of society's "400." Miss Talmadge gives an excellent interpretation of the cafe girl who knows by instinct that the life she would choose if she had her choice. The cafe is raided and Jo is sentenced to three years in the reformatory with the rest of the cabaret girls. Here we see a different Jo—a different Norma Talmadge. As an inmate of the reformatory she is made to scrub floors and perform all the duties of a slavey. At the end of two years she escapes. She marries a handsome society man who furnishes her with all the luxuries of life. Another Jo! As a rich society matron, in the gorgeous creations which Miss Talmadge knows so well how to wear, she is beautiful and charming. From a cafe girl to a slavey, to a lady—Miss Talmadge certainly has an opportunity to display her versatility, and she does it—well! "The Probation Wife" can be seen on Mon. Tues. Wed. at the Strand Theatre.—Advt.

DISPUTE IS SETTLED.

With Regard to the Certificate of Steamer America.
The difficulty over the steamer America's inspection certificate has been adjusted, and the vessel will be permitted to go back on the international route. She will probably make her first trip on Tuesday. This state of affairs was brought about by a conference held in Kingston, Monday, at the Frontenac hotel, between James Grenier, superintendent of the Canada Steamship Lines, Montreal, Walter Hazlett, assistant superintendent, Captain Nelson, district supervisor of Lines, and Captain Dobson, inspector of hulls at the port of Ogdensburg, N.Y. The local inspector, M. R. Davis made a thorough inspection of the America's hull in company with the American inspector and a joint certificate with likely issue, covering the difficulty.

When interviewed, Mr. Grenier stated that the matter had been anything the matter with the steamer itself but that the trouble arose over the matter of the certificate. Certain requirements have to be observed with respect to vessels plying on an international route, and everything has been settled to the satisfaction of all parties.

ENUMERATORS FINISH

Work of Preparing the Referendum Voters' List in Kingston.
The sub-enumerators appointed to prepare the lists of voters for the city of Kingston have completed their work and the lists are now in the hands of the printers. Captain Bolton, chief enumerator, expresses his satisfaction over the work. The addition of the women voters has more than doubled the number entitled to vote and if they all exercise their right the pole on the prohibition referendum will be a very heavy one. As an example it is stated that one district the city that formerly contained but 250 names now has 800. Many women have expressed their disinclination to vote at elections.

Capt. Douglas Carruthers Injured.
Capt. Douglas Carruthers of Kingston, is reported to have been injured in an accident to an airplane in Belgium, when two companions were seriously injured. The extent of Captain Carruthers' injuries was not stated particularly. Captain Carruthers took out his commission in the Imperial Army some years ago and attained the rank of temporary major, and was on a visit to his parents during the last year. He is now in a hospital in Belgium and further word of his condition is being anxiously awaited.

Military News

Nursing Sister Rhoda Blanche Wurtels will take up her duties as matron of the Royal Military College on the 25th inst.

Col. Genet, representing the G. O. C. M. D. No. 3, unveiled the Britton memorial window in Christ Church, Gananogue, on Sunday morning. The window, which is described as a beautiful work of art, was presented to the church by the family of the late Lieut.-Col. Russell Britton, who was killed in France at Fresno while commanding the 3rd Field Battery, 1st Brigade in 1917. He was well known in Kingston as an athlete at Queen's University, where he was a great football player. He graduated from Upper Canada College, and entered the firm of Cowan & Britton Manufacturing Company, Gananogue. He went overseas as a major, and was promoted commanding officer and awarded the D.S.O. He is survived by his widow and three children. He was in a dug-out in a railway embankment when an enemy shell burst, a small piece of it striking him and causing death. Archdeacon Bedford Jones presented the window for the family. Among those present were Col. Constantine, Lieut.-Col. G. H. Gillespie and Lieut.-Col. Crocker.

The following soldiers arrived on the Minnedou on Saturday: Cadet C. E. Chown, Pte. A. J. Grimes, Driver Wilson, all of Kingston.

Presents Him With Triplets.
Trenton, Aug. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. George Page live in a humble way in East Trenton. Mr. Page is working at the Benedict-Proctor silver plating establishment. They have been married for sixteen years, and have a family of five girls, the oldest a girl of fifteen and the youngest six years old. On Aug. 1st Mrs. Page gave birth to a baby boy at 4.30 p.m.; at 5.20 p.m. she gave birth to another boy, and at 6 o'clock a little girl arrived. All three babies are normal children and are doing well.

"My Dear,

What An Utterly Stunning Gown!"

"Yes, Isn't It"

"I'd love to have a Satin or Georgette Crepe too, but they cost a fortune, alas!"

"Well, I'd hardly call $38.50 a fortune!"

"For goodness sake, is that all you paid?"

Where?

"They have them as low as $25.00. There was one navy, all beaded in silver, made me hesitate."

"Oh, you mean thing, tell me where—"

"And a wonder in Capri Blue, with adorable little bits of silver braid and embroidery on it, for $60.00"

"Please Tell Me Where"

"Well, It Was at Laidlaw's!"

"Alleen and I just happened in. We'd been to all the shops in the city and just stopped in.
"Why, they had more Satins, Georgettes and Crepe de Chenes than any one store in the city, and you can see for yourself how wonderfully low they are! Of course, there are regular creations as high as $75.00, but Alleen and I had all kinds of choice around $38.00!"

"And here I've been doing without a Georgette Crepe or Satin Dress all this time. I'm going to Laidlaw's the first thing to-morrow afternoon!"

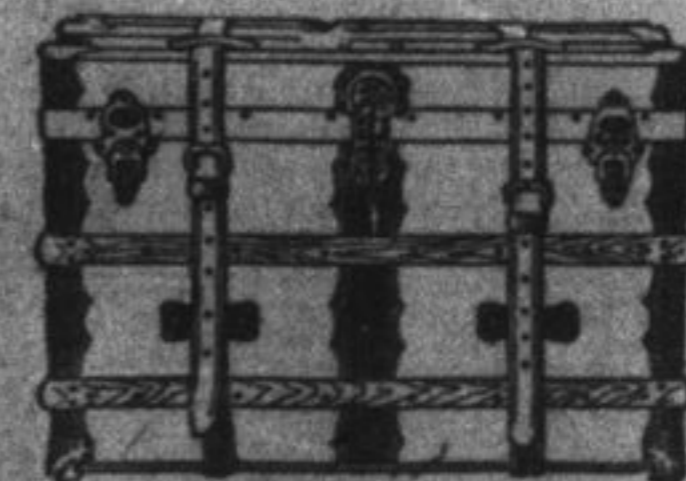

WOMEN

who wear the better kind of clothes are constantly "discovering" the big choice and low prices there are at Laidlaw's. We'd like to see every woman in town with a lovely Crepe de Chene, Satin or Georgette Crepe Dress.
