THEATRICAL

At The Grand. An excellent performance of feature photoplays and superior vaudeville was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd at the Grand Opera House last evening. Virginia Pearson, the beautiful Fox favorite, appeared in a five reel feature, "Buchanan's Wife." This picture is one of heart interest, and Miss Pearson is seen in the difficult role of a hypnotic victim of a man of powerful will. Gloria Joy, the youthful star of Almidon, was seen in a five reel feature film, "No Children Wanted," a story of intrigue and love that terminates happily. Other films shown were a Mutt and Jeff cartoon, "The Ace and Joker," an industrial reel showing the salmon industry, and a one reel comedy, "Her Lady's Slipper." The vaudeville, Madeline Stone appeared in a act combining singing and comedy talk, and drew much hearty applause for her clever wit. This splendid bill will be repeated to-night and to-morrow afternoon and evening only.—Adv't.

McCrae, is set to music by Herbert Myles and Marjorie Trotter, Portland, Oregon, and is a highly creditable composition. Mr. Myles is a Canadian, born at Burford, Ont. Considerable interest is being shown in the gold challenge cup races which are scheduled to start at Alexandria Bay on Wednesday, continuing for three days. The contests are expected to bring together some of the fastest craft on the St. Lawrence river. Rev. Dr. Wilson spoke eloquently and comforting regarding the late Lieut.-Col. Macnee at the service, in Chalmers church, on Monday. He said Mr. Macnee literally loved the church of his fathers, he worked for its advancement with splendid success for the past thirty years. He was a worthy citizen, a companionable man, a devoted father. The summer residents at Alexandria Bay, N.Y., are expectant over the visit there on Thursday of 250 wounded officers and men from Kingston. They go down on the steamer Brockville and will be at the Bay for three hours.
