Meeting of the G.W.V.A. on Monday Evening—Band Instruments Donated by the Ottawa Branch.

At the general meeting of the G.W.V.A. on Monday evening, fifteen comrades who had made application for membership in the association since last meeting were received into the branch.

The chairman of the drive committee reported that his committee were going ahead enthusiastically with arrangements for the proposed peace drive to obtain subscriptions to the official organ of the association—The Veteran.

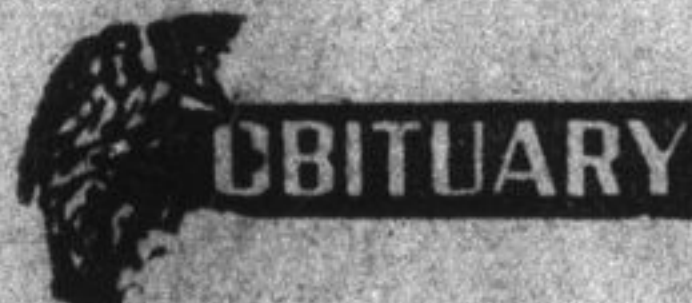

It was reported that the Ottawa branch, hearing that the band of the Kingston branch were in need of instruments in order to increase their efficiency, kindly presented to the Kingston band a large number of excellent band instruments. This is much appreciated by Kingston comrades, and a very hearty vote of thanks was passed.

It was reported that the association in the Dominion propose, in the future to form a G.W.V.A. Dominion Baseball League, which, it is hoped, will eventually develop into a second Canadian National Baseball League.

The secretary reported that since last meeting seventeen matters for investigation had been submitted to him.

The question of the present system of payments to "in" patients under the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-Establishment, was discussed, and whilst the meeting felt that in all probability the Department believed they were acting in the best interests of the patients in withholding from them a large percentage of their pay, the meeting went on record as being strongly in favor of such patients receiving their pay, and allowance in full whilst undergoing treatment under the Department of S.C.R.

On the suggestion of Comrade L. F. Goodwin, the meeting adjourned early, in order to take some active part in the reception to General Ross in the City Hall. The association feel that as they expected much from him in the past, and were not disappointed, they can confidently look to General Ross to carry out good work to the best interests of the returned man.

OBITUARY

Late Sister Mary Andry.

Sister Mary Andry passed away at the House of Providence on Tuesday after an illness of about two months. She was twenty-one years of age and since the joining the Congregation four years ago had been a student. She was a daughter of the late J. McGuire, of Lombardy, and was educated at the Notre-Dame Convent, Kingston. Last October she suffered from influenza, which was followed by pulmonary trouble. She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. W. Murphy, Kingston; Mrs. E. Murphy, Flint, Mich.; and Mrs. E. Covel, Lombardy.

IMPORTANT CHANGES

In Personnel of the Canadian Bond Corporation.

A number of important changes have been made in the personnel of the Canada Bond Corporation, the moving spirit in which is F. E. Fisher, vice-president and managing director of the concern. Mr. Fisher is himself a financial genius of international reputation, and he has gathered around him a staff which forecasts development of the firm in the future. Ralph M. Bird, formerly of the firm of Melholland, Bird & Co., and of his own firm of Ralph M. Bird & Co., has been appointed secretary, and will have charge of the purchasing of securities. He has made a special study of municipal bonds as an investment, and his book, "Installment Bond Valuation Tables," is in general use by bond dealers all over the continent. Norman H. Bell has been appointed sales manager and treasurer. He formerly belonged to the staff of Amelting Jarvis & Co., and later became a partner in the firm of Kerr, Bell & Fleeting. He returned from overseas service in 1913, and has been with the Canada Bond Corporation since then. The assistant secretary is Harry H. Goss, who was for several years with Amelting Jarvis & Co. These changes are very important in the history of this bond concern, and seem to point to great activity on the part of the corporation.

A BOOST FOR "HARRY."

"Should Have Fullest Support of People," Says G. S. Wilson.

Writing to a member of the Whig staff, George S. Wilson, the genial and courteous assistant secretary of the Union of Canadian Municipalities, pays the following tribute to Mayor Newman, after expressing his appreciation for the courtesy of Kingston: "Mayor Newman is made of the right stuff for the head of the city. Such a man should have the fullest support by the 'back-bone' people of your city."

Mayor Forgot to Sign.

The chairman of the Board of Works was warm under the collar this morning when he found that Mayor Newman had gone with the bowlers to Belleville without signing the contract to purchase a steam roller which the council sanctioned last night. The roller is needed badly just now, but the company may ship it today after learning that the council passed the necessary bylaw. The mayor will have to sign the contract when he returns in a couple of days.

An Old Newspaper.

W. J. Paul, tobacconist, Princess street, has on display a copy of the London Times dated October 3rd, 1792. It was received recently by George Dean, caretaker of St. Andrew's Church, from his brother who resides in England. Amongst the news items in it are accounts of the rebellion in Ireland and Admiral Horatio Nelson's victory near Rosetta.

Theatrical

At The Grand.

An excellent performance of high-class photoplays and superior vaudeville was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd at the Grand Opera House last evening. Gladys Brockwell, the talented Fox star, appeared in a five reel feature, "The Forbidden Room," a play of political intrigue and an unsuccessful attempt to implicate a public official in a clever plot. Baby Marie Osborne, the youthful screen star, was seen in a five reel film, "The Voice of Destiny." This story has a very interesting plot that terminates in the unmasking of the villain, and the happy reunion of a father and his family. Other reels shown were a Mut and Jeff cartoon "The Sideshow," and a good comedy "Harry's Pig." The vaudeville proved very entertaining, and consisted of a roller-skating act of merit. This bill will be repeated to-night and tomorrow afternoon and evening.—Adv't.

At Griffin's.

Dainty Lila Lee pleased a large audience at this popular playhouse last evening when she was seen for the first time in her new photoplay, "A Daughter of the Wolf," which the producers pronounce the greatest achievement of her career as a motion picture star. The story itself abounds in thrills, fights and gripping situations and depicts the adventures of the little daughter of a rough fur smuggler, known as Wolf Ainsworth. The plot is enacted vividly by the star and her splendid supporting cast headed by Elliott Dexter. In addition to the above fine photoplay, Tom Mix is also shown in a splendid Western picture, which was received with much enthusiasm last evening, and cannot fail to please the most exacting.—Adv't.

Grenadier Guards Band Coming.

It is still an ill wind that blows no one good. As a result of the strikes at Liverpool, Kingston music lovers will have an opportunity of listening to the British Grenadier Guards Band on Thursday, Aug. 21st at the Grand Opera House. The Guards, who by consent of His Majesty King George, were engaged to play at the Canadian National Exhibition this year, arranged to sail from England about August 12th. The labor difficulties intervened, however, and they were compelled to leave at a much earlier date, and as a result will be able to give the concert in Kingston before being heard at Toronto. The Guards Band is the most famous of all British military musical organizations, and their services have been in great demand for the victory celebrations all over England and the Allied countries.—Adv't.

WAS DECORATED BY FRENCH GOVERNMENT

Capt. W. A. Smith Received Palmes Academiques For Tending French Wounded.

Capt. W. A. Smith, of Kingston, a graduate of Queen's medical college, who has seen much service overseas, returned to Canada on the Megantic and is now in the city. Capt. Smith was home last summer receiving treatment for rheumatism, but he spent the winter at No. 8 hospital at St. Cloud, a famous racing suburb outside of Paris. In February he was honored by receiving the decoration of "Officier d'Academie" or "Palmes Academiques" from the French government for services in looking after French wounded. Capt. Smith has made no plans for the future and intends to spend some time in the city. His father died here recently.

Last Harvesters' Excursion

Today is the last day for harvesters' excursions to the west via the Canadian Pacific railway and eleven young men left on the noon train for Winnipeg. On the last excursion day, the 12th inst., twenty-three left the city. The G.T.R. reports one on the 12th and one today, making a total of 36 persons to leave the city within a week.

Leaving for Toronto.

Reginald Sawyer, Grafton Wilkinson, Jack Emery, Lionel McKay, Paul Cunningham, C. Burns, H. Stephens and G. Findlay, are leaving in a few days for Toronto where they will take part in the shooting for the King Edward Cup at the Canadian National Exhibition. All of the boys are pupils at the Collegiate Institute.

Excursion to Alexandria Bay.

Str. America will make a cruise among the islands, calling at Alexandria Bay. Boat leaves Swift's wharf Wednesday, 2 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hill, of Welland, arrived in the city Monday evening by automobile to visit friends.

Troops from the steamer Caronia arrived in the city at 8:50 a.m. on Tuesday and were taken to Barrickfield for discharge. All of the boys are pupils at the Collegiate Institute.
