The Late Mrs. Frank Latour—A Kingston Hospital Nurse Is Visiting At Her Home.
 Lansdowne, Sept. 3.—A unique wedding took place on Monday, Sept. 1st, at 8.30 p.m., when Miss Marjorie Agnes Kelly, eldest daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Kelly, Mallorytown, and L. Corley Jack, son of Mrs. William Jack, Lansdowne, were united in marriage by the Rev. Mr. Curtis of Mallorytown. The wedding, which was out-of-doors, was performed at Bony View Isle, Ivy Lea. The island was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers; the color scheme being white and gold.

The bridal couple stood, under an arch from which was suspended a white wedding bell. The bride's dress was of white satin with overdress of georgette crepe with bead trimming, and she wore a French veil caught up with bridal roses. The maids of honor were her sister, Miss Gladys Kelly, Mallorytown, and her cousin, Miss Vera Dixon, Winnipeg, cousin of the bride. Their dresses were white crepe-de-chene with rose georgette crepe overdress, trimmed with silver lace and they carried pink gladiolus and maiden hair fern. The bride was given away by her uncle, A. McL. Temart of Lansdowne, and the groom was supported by Harold Andrew Mallorytown. After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served in the dining room which was tastefully decorated in pink and white.

The bridal party left by boat for Alexandria Bay, where they took the steamer Kingston for Toronto. Among the guests from a distance were Mrs. Bennett Dixon, Winnipeg, aunt of the bride, and Miss Vera Dixon, cousin, also from Winnipeg and the Misses Anna, Jennie and Margaret Miller, South Hammond, N.Y.

Mrs. Frank Latour passed away very suddenly on Wednesday evening from acute indigestion. Besides her husband, she is survived by a son and
