BOARD OF TRADE COUNCIL

HELD FIRST MEETING OF THE FALL SEASON ON MONDAY.

Kingston Shipbuilding Company Board to Support Application of Nineteen Shipbuilding Companies Before Dominion Government.

A meeting of the Council of the Board of Trade was held on Monday afternoon, with the president, J. M. Campbell, presiding.

It was decided to send representatives to the annual meeting of the Ontario Association of Boards of Trade to be held in Toronto on November 20th and 21st, and Elmer Davis and J. G. Elliott were appointed a committee to draft resolutions, which the local board wish to bring up at this gathering.

J. G. Elliott was appointed to represent the Board at the National Conference on Education, to be held in Winnipeg October 20th to 22nd.

A deputation from the Kingston Shipbuilding Company, Ltd., waited on the Council, and asked that the board support the application about to be made to the Dominion Government by nineteen shipbuilding companies in Canada, asking for assistance for Canadian shipbuilding and also for protection against the importation of old hulls into Canada. In this it will be encouraging the construction of more steel ships in Canada. The matter will be brought up at a meeting of the Board.

It was decided to hold a meeting of the Board on October 7th.

Coming to the Grand. Another good attraction was booked by D. P. Branigan, on Tuesday, when he met Ben Kraus, business manager for "His Bridal Night", a musical farce comedy, which will be at the Grand on Friday Sept. 26th, and Saturday Sept. 27th with a Saturday matinee. The production has made a big hit wherever it has been. Twin sisters figure in the story. A young man marries one of the girls but she refuses to go on a honeymoon trip, and the groom, by mistake, gets away with the other sister. The entire production is a scream from beginning to end.

Mr. Hewitt's Letter.

The leaving out of a dozen words in the publication on Monday of a letter by Thomas Hewitt, with regard to securing water from Loughboro lake, made Mr. Hewitt's point rather obscure. What Mr. Hewitt wrote was that Loughboro Lake is about 130 feet higher than Lake Ontario. This would give a pressure of fifty-one pounds if the water was not in motion in the pipe. But as soon as water flows at the rate of 5,000,000 gallons in twenty-four hours the pressure will be reduced by 30 pounds leaving only twenty-one pounds pressure at Lake Ontario level, which would be useless unless pumps were used at the intake end.

Drayton For Toronto.

It is learned from Ottawa informant that Sir Henry Drayton is not coming to Kingston to contest the seat, but is to succeed Sir George Foster, North Toronto, who goes to the Senate.

This leaves the field open to local aspirants, but owing to the conflicting interests it is impossible to say at the moment who the candidates may be.

Bowling Scores.

Some postponed games were played off on Monday night. W. M. Campbell defeated E. Green, 10 to 10. J. W. Newman won from A. A. Turcott, 15 to 12, in an extra end. J. Chatterton and O. O. Boyd defeated W. H. Dred and W. Burns by 15 to 14, and also defeated J. W. Kelly and J. Lemmon by the same score.

Wedding At Parham.

At the Methodist parsonage, at Parham, on Sept 10th, a happy event took place when Arnold, son of Sydney Peters, of Hinchinbrooke, was united in marriage to Miss Myrtle, daughter of George Hartwick, of Oso. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. Pierce.

Registration Very Slow.

The registration of voters for the Dominion bye-election is not proceeding very fast as the people do not appear to realize that unless they go personally and register they will not have a vote. Even politicians when questioned were found to be ignorant of this fact.

Delegates to Synod.

The following from Kingston are the delegates to the Provincial Anglican Synod, which opened in Ottawa Tuesday: Dean Starr, Rev. J. W. Jones, Archdeacon Dobbs, Canon FitzGerald, Francis King and R. J. Carson.

Was In Class I.

In the matriculation results which appeared in this paper recently the name of Miss Margaret Arthur, of Frontenac county, appeared in Class II. This was an error, as Miss Arthur's name should have come under Class I.

No Rugby Practice.

"Jack" Williams expected to have held a practice of Queen's rugby players Monday afternoon, but a practice did not materialize, for the reason that there were no players on hand.

While Police Commissioner Enright was discussing with the heads of the detective bureau on Monday how to rid New York of its latest outbreak of banditry, six armed men calmly robbed the Williamsbridge branch of the Bronx Borough Bank of $3,000 in cash and escaped.

Theatrical

At the Grand.

"The Ace of the Saddle," the newest Universal release featuring their western star, Harry Carey, opened at the Grand last night. The production is above even the high standard set in previous Carey pictures. Of thrills there are plenty, of careful conscientious work by the star there is a volume. Each member of the supporting cast is deserving of praise for the able manner in which he performs his part. Albert Ray the virile young Universal star also appeared in "Words and Music." The manner in which a young musician after many setbacks and misfortunes finally rose from poverty to fame and fortune is the topic of this interesting feature. Comedy and other reels were also shown. Splendid vaudeville consisting of four girls in a singing and musical act made a delightful hit. This programme will be repeated to-night and to-morrow afternoon and evening.—Advt.

"My Soldier Girl."

What will prove the real big success of the present season standing out above all the new musical comedies that have been sent forth this year is "My Soldier Girl," to be presented at the Grand next Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee. Many names of prominent artists well known to lovers of musical plays are in the cast of this remarkable success, including Dorothy Garrigue, Maude Baxter, J. G. LeRoy, Billy Moore, Leslie Jones, James Baber, Billy Murphy and others equally as clever. The chorus is composed of the most attractive lot of girls ever gathered together in one company. The production offers an artistic presentation whether in the first act, during a brilliant lawn fete, or during the last act, which is a novel and gorgeous Follies setting.—Advt.

At The Strand.

One of the sweetest pictures ever seen was shown at the Strand Theatre on Monday night. It is called "The Microbe." A literary genius named De Witt Spence rescues a "newsy" from the slums and takes him to his beautiful apartment, where the boy is found to be a girl wearing boy's clothes. He places her in care of his housekeeper and undertakes to teach her conventional habits. The inevitable result is foreseen by his friends and they plan to effect their separation, but though they succeed in their object, the affection that has sprung up proved too strong and a very pretty climax brings the piece to a close. The picture is to be seen Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Strand has had a very artistic stage completed, and an eight-piece orchestra plays every night. The walls are being redecorated. The entrance is being finished in mahogany and the walls in ivory. The work is being done by T. Milo. The effect is to give the Strand a most classic and attractive appearance.—Advt.

At Griffin's.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic audiences seen at Griffin's in some time greeted the initial showing of our excellent new programme and expressed themselves as having never been better entertained. The feature picture, William S. Hart in "Square Deal Sanderson," lives up to the usual high standard of Hart pictures, being a true to life story of the great west, and provides this great artist with unbounded opportunities for his best work. Dainty Ann Little plays the lead opposite Mr. Hart and gives an excellent portrayal of a difficult part. With regard to our programme of vaudeville, something entirely different in this line was shown and the highly satisfied audience applauded vigorously. This same programme will be shown again to-night and to-morrow. Don't overlook it.—Advt.
